Introduction

This new edition of English Vocabulary in Use: pre-intermediate & intermediate still retains the features that made the first edition so popular:
- The format of presentation on the left-hand page and practice on the right-hand page.
- Approaching vocabulary in a variety of ways: topics (e.g. Food), word formation (e.g. Prefixes), words and grammar (e.g. Uncountable and plural nouns), collocation and phrases (e.g. Make, do and take), functions (e.g. Apologies, excuses and thanks), concepts (e.g. Time), varieties of English (e.g. Formal and informal English), etc.
- A student-friendly Answer key, including not only correct answers to right/wrong exercises, but also possible answers for more open-ended exercises.
- Usage notes that are ideal for self-study learners.
- A complete Index at the back of the book, listing all the target words and phrases with a phonemic transcription to help you with pronunciation.

What is different about the new edition?

Colour
The first thing you will notice is that the new edition is in colour. This makes the text and the artwork more attractive, and it also makes the book easier for you to use: the different sections and headings are now clearer, and the usage notes are shown against their own colour background, so you can find them and read them more easily.

Use of the Cambridge International Corpus
This new edition has made extensive use of the Cambridge International Corpus of written and spoken English. This has been important in two ways:
- the frequency information in the Corpus has helped to guide the selection of words and phrases in the book and ensure that the vocabulary will be suitable for pre-intermediate and intermediate learners of English;
- example sentences are the same or similar to those in the Corpus. In other words, the examples show you words and phrases being used in their most typical contexts.

Collocation and phrases
The new edition concentrates even more on showing words in common collocations and phrases. For example, when you study different meanings of see (Unit 27), you will learn that it often appears in these phrases: I see, I see what you mean, I'll see what (he says), etc. In a unit on physical appearance (Unit 48), you will meet these common collocations: blonde hair, tall and slim, medium height, etc.

New units
In response to suggestions from teachers and students, there are now six completely new units in the book:
Likes, preferences and interests (Unit 19)       Have and have got (Unit 25)
Frequently asked questions (Unit 20)           Leave, catch and let (Unit 28)
Common responses (Unit 21)             Global problems (Unit 88)

Many other units have been significantly revised, e.g. The place where you live (Unit 54), City life (Unit 65), Life in the country (Unit 66). In the office (Unit 72), Music (Unit 77), Computers and the Internet (Unit 81).
Better use of space
The usage notes are shown against a colour background and most have been placed in the left-hand margin; this makes them easier to see and read, and creates more space on the page. As a result, there are now more pictures in the new edition, more example sentences, and more new words and phrases to learn.

I very much hope you will enjoy working with this new edition of English Vocabulary in Use: pre-intermediate and intermediate.

Using this book

Who is this book for?

English Vocabulary in Use: pre-intermediate and intermediate has been written to help learners at this level to improve their English. It has been designed for students who are studying on their own, but it can also be used by a teacher in the classroom with a group of students.

How is the book organised?

The book has 100 two-page units. The left-hand page explains the new words and phrases chosen for that unit. They are all highlighted in bold and most units contain approximately 25 new words or phrases. The right-hand page gives you a chance to check your understanding through a series of exercises which practise the new vocabulary.

There is an Answer key at the back of the book. This gives correct answers to exercises with ‘right’ or ‘wrong’ solutions, and also possible answers for exercises which do not have ‘right’ or ‘wrong’ solutions.

There is an Index at the back of the book. This lists all the words and phrases introduced in the book and refers you to the unit or units where these words/phrases appear. The Index also includes a phonemic transcription for most of the words, and on page 243 you are given special help with the pronunciation of approximately 200 words which present particular problems for many learners of English.

This is the page that introduces the new vocabulary for each topic or area of language. First of all, the vocabulary is divided into a number of sections (A, B, C, etc.) with simple clear titles. Then, within each section, new words/phrases are explained using a number of different techniques:

1 A short definition.
   e.g. unemployed (= without a job); hang on (= wait); feel like (= want or desire informal)
   The abbreviations fml or infml tell you if a word is either ‘formal’ or ‘informal’.
2 A short explanation.
   e.g. He admitted stealing her money, but denied taking the computer (= he said ‘yes’ he took the money, but ‘no’ he didn’t take the computer).
3 A synonym or opposite.
   e.g. dreadful (= terrible); dirty (opp clean)

4 In a situation. With some words and phrases it is easier to see their meaning when they are in context, e.g. [This is from a text about a motoring accident] ‘... The driver of the Mercedes was OK, but the other driver was badly injured, and both cars were badly damaged.’

5 A picture or diagram. This seems the obvious way to explain a large number of concrete nouns and verbs.
   e.g. carrot Go along here and turn left.

For many of the new words/phrases there are also sentence examples which show the words in context in order to consolidate the meaning and illustrate any special features.
   e.g. My boyfriend gets very jealous when I talk to other boys.
       The plane appeared in the sky, then suddenly disappeared behind a cloud.
       Some people can’t stand (= hate) working at the weekend. [can’t stand + -ing form]

Finally, a big effort has been made to introduce new words alongside other words that often appear with them (this is called ‘collocation’).
   e.g. miss the bus; a strong accent; the car broke down; it’s vitally important; fasten your seat belt; go on holiday; give someone a hand; to a certain extent; a terrible pain, etc. There are many more examples of collocation in this new edition, and with the support of the Cambridge International Corpus you can now be sure that the examples included are some of the most important ones.

This page contains the exercises to practise the new vocabulary presented on the left-hand page.
In general, the first exercise practises the form of some of the new words, and then there are further exercises which focus on the meaning. In most units there is at least one exercise which gives learners a chance to think about and practise new vocabulary in relation to their own lives, and/or a task which invites learners to do something with the vocabulary outside of the book. In every unit there is a range of exercise types to help to maintain your interest.

How should I use the book?

The first four units teach you some important words and phrases, but they also give you information about vocabulary, plus ideas and techniques to help you learn vocabulary. Do these units first, then work through the book studying the units which interest you.

If you go to English lessons, you may also want to study Unit 5. This introduces vocabulary that is often used by teachers or needed by students in the classroom, e.g. cassette recorder, clean the board, Could I borrow a pen?, What does that mean?, etc.

Everything you need is in the book. The new vocabulary is explained on the left-hand page, and the exercises have an Answer key at the back of the book. But it is still important to have your own dictionary. A good bilingual dictionary will give you support in your first language, and a monolingual dictionary produced for intermediate learners will give you added practice in English. Use these to help you. (See Unit 3 for more information and ideas.)

Finally, you can visit the ‘in Use’ website at http://www.cambridge.org/elt/inuse/.

Good luck.

Learning and revising with this book

A Have a routine

A routine means doing certain things often and in the same way. If you are using this book for self-study (= to study alone), it helps to have a routine. So, how much time can you spend on the book each day or each week? Here are some ideas:
- if you are studying a new unit, spend at least (= a minimum of) half an hour or 45 minutes
- if you are revising (= studying a unit for a second or third time), five or ten minutes is very useful.

So, plan longer periods for new units and shorter periods for revision.

B Using the book

Do different things to maintain your interest. (= keep your interest high) For example:
1. Don’t study the units in the same order as the book. Choose (= select) units that interest you (= are interesting for you).
2. When you do a unit, you can read the whole (= all) of the left-hand page (= page on the left), then do the exercises. Or, do the exercises first, then read the left-hand page if there is a problem.
3. Be active when you are learning. For example:
   - when you are reading the left-hand page, use a highlighter pen to mark new or interesting vocabulary;
   - practise saying the words aloud (= speaking them), so you can pronounce them (= say the pronunciation), and also silently (= without a noise) in your head to help you to remember them;
   - put new words in your own notebook using some of the ideas from Unit 2.

C Revision

It’s easy to forget words that you learn, but if you revise for short periods, it helps you to remember words and make them part of your active vocabulary. Here are some ideas.

1. Do exercises in pencil. Check your answers when you finish, then rub them out (= remove them using a rubber). Later, come back and do the exercises again. Use the left-hand page if you have a problem.
2. When you read a left-hand page for a second time, have a blank piece of paper (= paper with no writing on it) with you. When you come to a new word in bold with a definition in (brackets), cover the definition (= put the paper over it) and try to define it (= give the meaning/definition).
3. Revise for short periods but do it often. Five minutes a day (NOT five minutes per day) is probably better than half an hour a week; but half an hour a week is probably better than two hours a month.
4. Be active when you revise, e.g. test yourself, practise the pronunciation, write down important words and phrases in your notebook with example sentences.
Exercises

1.1 Read these questions. What do you think? (Answers are on the opposite page.)
1. Is it better to plan regular self-study, or just study when you've got some free time?
2. Is it a good idea to study the units in the same order as they appear in the book?
3. Is it a good idea to write down new words in a notebook when you are studying a unit?
4. Is it necessary to revise vocabulary (= study it again for a second or third time)?
5. Is it better to revise vocabulary occasionally for long periods of time, or is it better to revise regularly for short periods of time?

1.2 Find your way round the book.
   • Turn to the Topic units in the Contents on pages iv–v.
   • Take a blank piece of paper and cover the right-hand side of the page with the examples.
   • Read the list of unit titles, and write down your own examples – one or two for each unit.
   • Are there any unit titles you don't understand? Are there any units where you can't think of examples? If so, turn to that unit and find out what it is about.
   You could use similar titles in your own vocabulary notebook (see Unit 2).

1.3 Complete the table.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>noun</th>
<th>verb</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>definition</td>
<td>define......</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>revision</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pronunciation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>choice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>interest</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1.4 There is a mistake with the underlined words. Can you correct each one?
1. Did you make all of the exercises?
2. I studied for one half hour.
3. Do you always read the left page first?
4. I passed twenty minutes on the first exercise.
5. I read the all page.

1.5 True or False? If the sentence is false, rewrite it to make it true. Write in pencil.
1. In this book, most of the important new vocabulary is shown in bold print. True
2. Definitions/explanations of new words are often in brackets after the word.
3. A routine means doing certain things in a different way each time.
4. If you maintain something at a level, it means you keep it at the same level.
5. At least 50 people means a maximum of 50 people.
6. If you write something then rub it out, you remove it from the page.
7. If you do something silently, you do it without a noise.
8. Revision means studying something for the first time.
9. If you read a whole book, you read all of it.
10. A blank piece of paper is full of writing.

Check your answers. Look at any wrong answers carefully, then rub them out. Do the exercise again tomorrow.
Keeping a vocabulary notebook

Organising your notebook
Give each page a title, e.g. sport, education, verbs followed by an -ing form, etc. When you learn new words and phrases, write them on a suitable page.

What do I need to record?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Special style</td>
<td>make a note</td>
<td>purchase (= buy: formal) kids (= children: informal)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You don’t need to record all of these things for every word or phrase. The most important thing is to show the words in typical examples. Leave space in your notebook as well, then you can come back and add more information later if you learn something new.

Organising words on the page
Don’t just write lists of individual words. Put words together that appear together, e.g. blonde hair (opp black hair), get off the bus (= go out of the bus). Make the pages interesting with pictures, diagrams and example sentences.

1. thumb
2. decision
3. smile (v, n)
4. rise slowly

Don’t pronounce the 'w' in wrist or the 'b' in thumb.

Note: both verbs are irregular: rise/rose/risen; fall/fell/fallen.
Exercises

2.1 Organise this list of words into three groups and give each one a title.

| unfriendly | put on | platform | gloves | unhappy |
| train | get on | unable | size | jumper |
| wear | late | unkind | tie | passenger |

Find the units in this book which may include these words. Add more to each group.

2.2 Fill the gaps with suitable words to form common partners with the nouns in bold.

1. She’s ................. the phone at the moment.
2. A: Do you want milk and sugar? B: No, just a ................. coffee, please.
3. If you’re cold, why don’t you ................. your coat?
4. I don’t usually ................. that mistake.
5. She ................. me a big smile this morning.
6. It was the third ................. of my left hand.

2.3 Underline the correct answer.

1. A pond is:
   a. bigger than a lake   b. smaller than a lake   c. the same size
2. I really enjoy:
   a. play tennis   b. to play tennis   c. playing tennis
3. When we were on holiday we had:
   a. lovely weathers   b. lovely weather   c. a lovely weather
4. The underlined letters in ache are pronounced the same as in:
   a. machine   b. catch   c. chemist
5. The past tense of ‘fall’ is:
   a. fell   b. felt   c. falled
6. You can ‘get off’:
   a. a bus   b. a kitchen   c. a noise
7. ‘Rise sharply’ means:
   a.   b.   c.
8. ‘Purchase’ is:
   a. an informal word for ‘buy’   b. a formal word for ‘buy’   c. a formal word for ‘child’

2.4 Look at the words below. What is the best way to record their meaning? What other information would be useful? Use a dictionary to help you.

Example You could record ‘dream’ with a translation, a picture (see Unit 9), or an explanation, e.g. things you imagine in your sleep. ‘Dream’ can be a verb or noun and is often followed by ‘about’, e.g. I dreamt about you.

| dream | concentrate | beard | nearly | empty | rescue | knife |

2.5 Write down three more nouns that often follow ‘take’. Do the same for ‘make’ and ‘do’.

take a shower  make  do
Using a dictionary

What dictionaries do I need?
Buy a good bilingual dictionary and a good English–English dictionary. The bilingual dictionary is easier for you to understand; but it’s also good for you to work in English as much as possible.

<table>

What information does a dictionary give me?
Look up a word (= find a word in a dictionary) and you will get this information.
- the meaning, e.g. homesick = unhappy because you are away from home for a long period
- the pronunciation (using phonemic symbols), e.g. island /aɪˈlænd/, lose /luːz/, tiny /ˈtaɪni
- the part of speech, e.g. dirty adj (= adjective), choose v (= verb), law n (= noun)
- word grammar, e.g. advice (U) (= uncountable noun), begin (began, begun) (= the past tense and past participle)
- common collocations (see Unit 12), e.g. do homework (NOT make); It depends on you (NOT of)
- example phrases or sentences, e.g. The train leaves from platform seven.
- sometimes synonyms or opposites, e.g. polite (syn = courteous; opp = impolite)

How can I use my dictionary?
When you look up a word, put a tick (√) next to it. Each time you return to a page with a tick, look at it quickly to check you remember the word.
When you see a new word or phrase in a text, first try to guess the meaning (= try to think of the meaning from the context), then carry on (= continue) reading to see (= find out) if your guess is correct. Use your dictionary to check the meaning. (= find out if the meaning is correct)
Don’t just read definitions. The example phrases and sentences show you how a word or phrase is used, and they often help you to understand the meaning more clearly.
If you look up a word in a bilingual dictionary and get several different translations, check in a monolingual dictionary to see which translation is the best one in the context.
Remember that many words have more than one meaning. The first meaning in the dictionary is not always the one you want. Read through the different meanings.
Exercises

3.1 Complete these sentences about dictionary use.

1. It's important to have a good English-English dictionary and also a ........................................ dictionary, which is easier to understand.
2. Dictionaries show the .................................. using phonemic symbols.
3. Dictionaries will tell you if a noun is countable or ..................................................
4. Dictionaries show synonyms and .................................. where they exist.
5. If you meet a word you don't know, you can try to .................................................. the meaning from the context, or you can .................................. it ................................ in a dictionary.

3.2 Right or wrong? If the answer is wrong, correct it.

1. Advice is a countable noun.  Wrong (advice is an uncountable noun)
2. Homesick means you are unhappy living at home and you want to leave.
3. You don't make homework, you do homework.
4. Carry on means the same as continue.
5. The opposite of polite is unpolite.
6. The past tense of begin is begun.
7. Dirty is an adjective.
8. If you look up a word, you find the meaning in a dictionary.
9. Trains arrive at and leave from platforms.
10. Depend is followed by the preposition of.

3.3 In the word 'island'  /ˈaɪlənd/ , the letter 's' is silent (= not pronounced). Use your dictionary to find the silent letters in these words. (Do not include the letter 'c' at the end of a word.)

knife  comb  castle  salmon  receipt

3.4 Use a dictionary to find the answers to these questions about words on the left-hand page.

1. What does tiny mean?

Special terms

Uncountable noun: (U) a noun which has no plural form and isn’t used with the indefinite article, e.g. Can you send me some information? (NOT an information or informations)

Plural noun: (pl) a noun which only has a plural form and isn’t used with the indefinite article, e.g. He was wearing blue trousers and a white shirt. (NOT a blue trouser)

Infinitive: the base form of a verb, e.g. We decided to stop for lunch.

Phrasal verb: a verb + adverb or preposition, e.g. wake up, turn sth on, look after sth/sb.

Idiom: a group of words with a meaning that is different from the individual words, e.g. never mind, keep an eye on sth, etc.

Transitive verb: a verb which needs a direct object, e.g. The police caught the man (‘the man’ is the direct object of the verb ‘caught’). A verb which doesn’t need a direct object is intransitive, e.g. Tim and his brother are always arguing.

Informal: a word or phrase which is informal is used mostly in spoken English. Formal English is more common in writing or with people you don’t know very well.

Many words also have synonyms, which are words with the same meaning, e.g. ‘big’ and ‘large’ are synonyms in many contexts. The opposite is ‘small’.

Word building

In the word uncomfortable, un- is a prefix, comfort is a root, and -able is a suffix. Other common prefixes include: re-, in- and dis-. Suffixes include: -ity, -ment and -ive.

Pronunciation

Dictionaries show the pronunciation of a word using phonemic symbols, e.g. book [bʊk], before [bɪfr], cinema [sinəmə], and so on.

Every word has one or more syllables, e.g. ‘book’ has one syllable, ‘before’ has two syllables, ‘cinema’ has three syllables, and so on.

For pronunciation, it is important to know which syllable has the main stress, e.g. on ‘before’ it is the second syllable (before), and on ‘cinema’ it is the first syllable (cinema), and so on.

Punctuation

full stop . comma , brackets ( ) hyphen - question mark ?

Hyphens are used to connect certain words or parts of a word together, e.g. a ten-year-old child.
Exercises

4.1 There is one word missing in each line of the text. Where does the missing word go? What could it be? What part of speech is it?

Last year I went to → for my holiday. I spent the first week Seville staying with a couple of friends, and then I a train to Barcelona, where I spent another ten days. It is a beautiful city and I had a marvellous time. I stayed in a very hotel right in the centre, but I didn't mind spending a lot money because it is a wonderful and very convenient. My brother recommended it; he goes Spain a lot and he stays anywhere else.

1. Spain (noun)
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.

4.2 In the dialogue below, find at least one example of the following: an uncountable noun, a plural noun, a phrasal verb, and an idiom.

A: It's 8 o'clock. We'd better get a move on if we're going to meet Sue at the airport.
B: That's OK. Her flight doesn't get in until 8.50.
A: Yes, but it'll take us an hour to get to the airport - you know what the traffic is like.
B: OK. I'll just go and get changed.
A: What's wrong with your shorts?
B: I don't like driving in shorts. I'm going to put some jeans on.

4.3 Look at the underlined verbs in these sentences. Which are transitive? Which are intransitive?

1. She broke her leg.
2. Take off your jacket.
3. I got up at 7.30.
4. She doesn't like Chinese food.
5. We arrived late.
6. He told me to sit down.

un- is the most common, e.g. unfriendly, unable, unusual, unnecessary, unemployed (= without a job), untidy (= not in order; also, in a mess), unkind, unpleasant (= horrible).

in- is often used before words with a Latin origin, e.g. invisible (= cannot be seen), informal, inadequate (= not good enough, e.g. The car park is inadequate for a big supermarket like that).

im- is used before some words beginning with ‘m’ or ‘p’, e.g. impolite, impossible, impatient (someone who is ‘impatient’ wants things to happen now; they cannot wait for things), immoral.

il- can be used before ‘l’, e.g. illegible (= impossible to read because the writing is bad).

ir- is only used before a few words beginning with ‘r’, e.g. irresponsible.

dis- is used before some adjectives, e.g. dishonest (a ‘dishonest’ person is someone you cannot trust, and often does not tell the truth), and a few verbs, e.g. dislike, disagree.

Verb prefixes: un- and dis-

With some verbs, these prefixes can also mean ‘the opposite of an action’.

The plane appeared in the sky, then suddenly disappeared behind a cloud.

I locked the door when I left, but then I lost the key and couldn’t unlock it when I got back.

I got dressed (= put on my clothes) and had my breakfast.

I had to pack my suitcase/do my packing (= put everything in it) very quickly, so when I unpacked (= took things out) at the hotel, most of my clothes looked terrible.

Other verb prefixes with specific meanings re- (= again)  The shop closed down but it’ll reopen next month.

I failed my exam but I can retake/redo it next year.

The roads were dangerous this morning; it was foggy and I couldn’t see far.
He was very emotional when he said ‘goodbye’.
Did you buy a diesel car because it’s more economical than petrol?
I’m afraid you’ll have to clean the floor – it’s very dirty.

-able

This common suffix creates adjectives from nouns and verbs:
an enjoyable evening a comfortable chair jeans are still fashionable.
suitable (= right/correct for a situation), e.g. A grey suit is very suitable for a wedding.
Sometimes -able means ‘can be done’:
washable (= can be washed), e.g. Is this jacket washable?
reliable (= can be trusted), e.g. I’ve never had a problem with this car – it’s very reliable.
Words ending -able often express the opposite meaning with the prefix un-: unsuitable (= not right/correct for a situation), e.g. Jeans are unsuitable for weddings.
unbreakable (= cannot be broken), e.g. The glass in the shop window is unbreakable.
Words ending -ible sometimes add the prefix in- to form an opposite:
incomprehensible (= cannot be understood), e.g. This street map is incomprehensible.
invisible (= cannot be seen), e.g. Trees surround the house, so it’s invisible from the road.

-ful and -less

-ful often means ‘full of’ or ‘having the quality of the noun’:
careful (= doing sth with care and attention), e.g. careful driver helpful (= able to help), e.g. Her advice was very helpful.
painful (= giving pain), e.g. It was painful when I hit my hand.
useful (= has a lot of use), e.g. I found it a useful book.
thoughtful (= kind and thinks of others)

-less often means ‘without’:
careless (= without care, and causing mistakes), e.g. His work is full of careless mistakes.
useless (= without use and often terrible), e.g. This knife is useless – it won’t cut anything.
homeless (= with nowhere to live), e.g. Many families are homeless because of the war.

Nouns and verbs with the same form

Many words in English function as noun and verb, or verb and adjective, or noun and adjective, with the same form.

What's the answer? (noun) I must clean my room. (verb) I don't like the cold. (noun) Answer the question. (verb) It's a clean room. (adj) I don't like cold weather. (adj)

The same word form can have different meanings, but this unit looks at examples where the meaning is the same or similar, and concentrates on nouns and verbs with the same form.

A  Noun and verb

- rain
- laugh
- taste
- smell
- kiss
- dream

- brake (= stop a car using the brake on the floor)
- diet (= eat less to lose weight)
- guess (= give an answer without knowing the facts)
- ring (= telephone)
- queue (= wait in a line of people)
- murder (= kill someone)

Many common words can function as noun and verb with the same form and meaning: drink, rest, look, cost, swim, wash, push, pull, reply, kiss, chat (= a casual conversation informal) [also practise (v) and practice (n)].

B  Which verb?

It is often more natural in English to use the verb + noun structure (e.g. had a guess) and not the verb (e.g. guessed). You need to know which verbs to use with the nouns.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

4 I braked but I still couldn’t stop in time. I ...........................................
5 I dreamt about my mother. I ...........................................
6 Did you look in the paper? Did you ...........................................?

9.4 Sometimes the same word can be a verb and noun but the meaning changes. Read these pairs of sentences. Do the verb and noun have a similar meaning, or are they different in meaning?
1 a We had a long wait for the bus.
    b If we wait any longer, we may miss the train.
2 a I gave him the book.
    b Did you book the table in the restaurant?
3 a They take a break after an hour’s work.
    b Did he break his arm skiing?
4 a I go for a run most mornings.
    b I was late so I had to run to get to school on time.
Compounds nouns

Formation

A compound noun is formed from two words, and occasionally three, to create a single new idea.

- dining room (= room where you eat meals)
- science fiction (= stories about the future)
- writing paper (= paper for writing letters)
- mother tongue (= your first language)
- bus driver (= person who drives buses)
- bus stop (= where buses stop for people to get on)
- haircut (= e.g. My hair’s long; I need a haircut.)
- traffic jam (= long line of cars moving very slowly)
- babysitter (= person who looks after children when parents are out)
- box office (= place where you buy cinema or theatre tickets)
- travel agent (= job of a person who makes travel arrangements for us)

One word or two?

Some short common compound nouns are written as one word, e.g. bedroom, postman; a few are written with a hyphen, e.g. T-shirt, make-up (= stuff you put on the face, often on lips and around eyes, to be more attractive); but most are written as two words, e.g. credit card, bus stop. Use a dictionary to check if necessary.

Pronunciation

The main stress is usually on the first part, e.g. post office, income tax, but sometimes it is on both parts, e.g. science fiction, mother tongue. Use a dictionary to check if necessary.

Forming new compounds

One part of a compound often forms the basis for a number of compound nouns.

<table>

10.1 Find compound nouns on the opposite page connected with each of these topics.

- MONEY
- KITCHENS
- JOBS
- ROADS/TRANSPORT
- THINGS WE WEAR

10.2 Complete each sentence with a suitable compound noun from the opposite page.

1. We booked our holiday through a [travel agent].
2. I'm sorry I'm late. There was a terrible [traffic] on the motorway.
3. Humphrey Bogart was a famous [actor] in the 1940s and 50s.
4. The [shoes] were red but he still didn't stop.
5. When I got to the dentist, I had to sit in the [waiting] room for 40 minutes.
6. Mary wanted to go out, but she couldn't find a [childcare] for the children.
7. When I'm driving I always wear [sunglasses] if it's very bright and sunny.
8. Most people have to pay [tax] on their salary; the more you earn, the more you pay.
9. I washed my hair; then I discovered that the [shampoo] wasn't working.
10. We waited at the [bus stop] for 20 minutes, then three arrived at the same time.
11. My brother loves [jogging], but I never read stuff like that about the future.
12. Your jeans were dirty so I put them in the [wash] together with mine.

10.3 Take one word (the first part or the second part) from each compound and create a new compound. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

Examples brother-in-law mother-in-law postbox post office

- 1 dining room ............... 5 traffic lights ...............
- 2 film star ............... 6 sunglasses ...............
- 3 credit card ............... 7 hair dryer ...............
- 4 toothpaste ............... 8 boyfriend ...............

Now mark the main stress on each of the compound nouns you have created.
Compound adjectives

Formation and pronunciation
A compound adjective is formed from two words, and occasionally three. The second part is often a present participle (e.g. good-looking) or a past participle (e.g. well-known). They usually have a hyphen before a noun, (e.g. a well-known actress, a good-looking man) and we usually pronounce both parts with equal stress.

Describing people
Many compound adjectives describe a person’s appearance, character and situation.

This is Bill. He isn’t well known (= famous), he isn’t well off (= rich), and nobody says he’s good looking (= very nice/attractive to look at). But he’s a nice man – kind, friendly and easy going (= relaxed and easy to be with). Here he’s wearing a short-sleeved shirt and a brand-new (= completely new) hat.

'Well' and 'badly'
These adverbs combine with many past participles to form compound adjectives. We can use both of them with most of these participles, e.g. well-paid or badly-paid (NOT badly-known).

- a well-organised team
- a well-equipped computer room
- a well-written story
- a well-known writer (= famous)

- a well-paid job (= good salary)
- a badly-behaved child (= acting in a bad way)
- a badly-dressed young man (= wearing old or dirty clothes)

A 'five-minute' walk
We often combine a number and a singular noun to form a compound adjective. The nouns in bold in these sentences, e.g. walk, hotel are often used with the particular adjectives.

- It’s a ten-minute walk to the shop. (= a walk of ten minutes)
- He works in a four-star hotel. (= a hotel with a rating of four stars)
- I gave her a twenty-pound note. (= a note with a value of twenty pounds)
- Our flight finally left after a two-hour delay. (= the plane was two hours late)
- The winner was a ten-year-old girl. (= a girl who is ten years old)
- If you park your car there, you could get a fifty-euro fine. (= a penalty of €50 to pay for parking in the wrong place)

Common compounds
She used to have a part-time job – just mornings – but now she works full time.
Most people are right handed, but about 10% are left handed.
I went first class to Paris, but it was more expensive.
Mary bought a second-hand BMW. (= the car was not brand new, but new for her) 11.1 Match words from the left-hand box with words from the right to form ten compounds.
Exercises

Example first-class

11.2 Complete the compound adjective in these sentences.

1. They were both wearing short-...................... shirts.
2. Goran Ivanisevic is probably the most famous left-...................... tennis player.
3. He's just bought a brand-...................... car.
4. One girl was very badly ...................... she kept shouting and then threw food all over the floor.
5. She's just got a ......................-time job now. She works three hours a day, Monday to Thursday.
6. It was a very badly-...................... article: terrible punctuation and lots of spelling mistakes.
7. They're very well ......................, so they can go to expensive restaurants.
8. She's got a little shop near the market, where she sells second-...................... things.
9. When I saw her, she was with a very good-...................... man in a white suit.
10. Have you ever met a well-...................... actor or politician?
11. I had a nice time with my cousin - he's good company and very easy ......................
12. She has a seven-......................-old son.

11.3 Find two examples to complete these compound adjectives.

1. well-...................... 3. badly-......................
2. ............................ 4. -time
3. ............................ -handed

11.4 Choose the most suitable noun to follow the adjectives in these sentences.

1. I stayed in a five-star ...................... in London.
2. We didn't get to Malaga until midnight because we had a two-hour ...................... at Heathrow.
3. She bought a paper and paid for it with a twenty-pound ......................
4. It's just over a kilometre, so it's only about a fifteen-minute ......................
5. I had to pay a forty-pound ...................... for not having a parking ticket.

11.5 Write about yourself using ten different compound adjectives from the opposite page. You can describe yourself, your personality, your family, your clothes, the place where you live, the journeys you make, etc. Compare your answers with someone else, if possible.
Collocation (word partners)

What is collocation?
If you want to use a word naturally, you need to learn the other words that often go with it. This can be different from language to language. For example, in English we say:
I missed the bus. (= I didn’t catch the bus) (NOT I lost the bus)
He had to go to hospital; it’s a serious injury. (= a bad injury) (NOT a grave injury)
She was bitterly disappointed (= very disappointed/unhappy) with her exam result.

Verb + noun
The meaning of many of these examples may be clear, but did you know these verbs and nouns go together? Are they the same or different in your language?
start  | a car (= turn on the engine)  | a story
       | a family (= think about having a first child)  | tell a joke (= a funny story)
miss  | a person (= be unhappy because a particular person is not there)  | the truth (opp tell a lie)
       | a lesson (= not go to a lesson)  | waste time/money (= use it badly) get on a bus (opp get off a bus)

Adjective + noun
a soft  | drink (= non-alcoholic drink)  | dry  | wine (opp sweet wine)
        | voice (opp a loud voice)  | weather (opp wet weather)

a strong accent (opp a slight accent)
(a) strong coffee (opp a weak coffee) hard work (= difficult physically or mentally)  | a great success (= very successful) a hard question (= difficult to answer)  | a great time (= an enjoyable time)

I can’t understand his English because he has such a strong accent.
The conference was hard work but everyone said it was a great success.
There was heavy traffic in the city centre because of the wet weather.
We had a great time in Brazil – the beaches are fantastic.

Adverb + adjective
The underlined adverbs in 1–3 mean very, the adverbs in 4–5 mean fully/completely. In each case, we often use these adverbs with the adjectives that follow them. Notice also the phrases in bold.
1 I’m terribly sorry to bother you (= to disturb you), but is Steven there?
2 She is well aware of the problem. (= she knows all about the problem)
3 It is vitally important to make a note of common collocations in your notebook.
4 He’s fast asleep. (= in a deep sleep)
5 She was wide awake (= fully awake) a minute ago.
Exercises

12.1 You can keep a record of common collocations using diagrams. They are very clear on the page and you can add to them. Complete these.

```
heavy

mis tell a story

```

12.2 Write the opposite.
1 get on the bus  get off the bus
2 a strong accent
3 strong coffee
4 a soft voice
5 an alcoholic drink
6 tell the truth
7 catch the bus
8 sweet wine

12.3 Complete these sentences with a suitable word.
1 I'm terribly sorry I'm late, but I missed the bus and had to wait ages for another one.
2 He told everyone the same joke, and nobody laughed.
3 We had snow in the night and I couldn't catch the bus this morning.
4 Everyone said the party was a failure.
5 I think they want to get married and have a family.
6 We carried the suitcases up to the fourth floor, and it was very tiring work.
7 It's important that we finish this work by the end of the week.
8 If this rain continues, I don't think he'll come.
9 I don't drink coffee at night because it keeps me awake.
10 I really missed my family when I stayed in Australia on my own last year.
11 I'm sure she is aware of the problem.
12 I spent my time on that course; it was terrible.
13 When I went into the children's room, the boys were both asleep, but Angela was awake, reading a Harry Potter story.

12.4 The adjectives on the left can all mean 'very big', but we often use them with the nouns on the right. Use a dictionary to find the correct collocations, and then complete the sentences below. You will need to look at the example sentences in the dictionary, perhaps at the adjectives and the nouns.

2 Fortunately the shop I go to has a ................. ................. of shirts and jumpers to choose from.
3 I've got very ................. ................. , but my waist is quite small.
4 A few men can't find clothes to fit them, but the ................. ................. are small, medium or large.
Idioms and fixed expressions

What is an idiom?
An idiom is a group of words with a meaning that is different from the individual words. Sometimes the meaning is easy to understand; sometimes it is difficult to understand from the individual words. These examples move from 'easy to understand' to 'more difficult to understand'.

I've changed my mind about those shoes. (= changed my decision or opinion)
I'm tired today because I had a late night. (= went to bed later than usual) (opp an early night)
I'm trying to write an essay but I'm getting nowhere. (= not making progress)
You find fast food restaurants all over the place. (= everywhere)
My wife and I take it in turns to cook. (= I cook one day, she cooks the next, etc.)
I'm sorry but I don't think I can make it (= come) on Friday. I'm really busy.
They asked us to keep an eye on (= watch/look after) the house while they're away.
I feel like (= want) a drink; I feel like going out this evening. (= want to go out)
We should get rid of some of this stuff. (= remove it/throw it away)
That boy really gets on my nerves. (= is very annoying; makes me angry)
The answer's on the tip of my tongue. (= I know it, but can't remember it at this moment)

Pairs of idioms
These pairs are related in meaning and sometimes they are used together.

On the one hand/on the other hand (= used to contrast opposite points of view)
I'm not sure about these new apartments. On the one hand they provide homes for people, which is good. But on the other hand, we have lost the only piece of open land in the area.

In the short term/in the long term (= a short or long period of time in the future)
In the short term we can manage here, but in the long term we will need a bigger place.
If we do this, it will be cheaper in the long term. (= over a long period of time)

In theory/in practice (used to contrast a general idea with reality)
In theory your plan looks very interesting; but in practice, it may be too expensive for us.

Common idioms
Some common idioms are used in everyday questions and replies.

A: Are you coming?
B: Yes, hang on. (= wait a minute)

A: What's up? (= What's the matter?)
B: Nothing.

A: I've forgotten to bring your book.
B: Never mind. (= it's OK, no problem)
A: Shall we go out?
B: Yeah, if you like. (= I am happy to do that)

A: Can I borrow your dictionary?
B: Sure, go ahead. (= help yourself; take it; do it)

A: I don't know which one to choose.
B: Well, make up your mind. (= make a decision)

A: What's the answer?
B: I haven't a clue. (= I don't know)
A: Would you prefer to stay in?
B: It's up to you. (= it's your decision)
Exercises

13.1 Replace the underlined word(s) with an idiomatic phrase from the opposite page.

1 A: Is Rebecca here?
   B: Yes, wait a minute. I’ll get her.
2 A: How long does it take?
   B: I’ve no idea.
3 A: Could I borrow this for a minute?
   B: Yes, take it.
4 A: I’m sorry I broke that glass.
   B: That’s OK. It’s not important.
5 A: Would you like to go to the cinema?
   B: Yes, I am happy to do that.
6 A: What’s the matter?
   B: Nothing. Why?
7 A: Could you look after my things for a minute?
   B: Yeah, sure.
8 A: Is John coming this evening?
   B: No, I’m afraid he can’t come.
9 A: You’ll have to decide soon.
   B: Yes, I know, but it’s very difficult.
10 A: What time shall we leave?
    B: I don’t mind. It’s your decision.

13.2 Complete the idioms in these sentences.

1 In the short ................................... we don’t need any help from the bank.
2 We take it in .................................. to look after the dog.
3 Tell the children to be quiet – they’re getting on my ..............................................

7 I had to get ...................................... of all my magazines because they were taking up too much space.
8 What’s in the fridge? I feel ..................................... something to eat.
9 I’m very tired this evening. I think I’ll have an .......................................... night.
10 The answer was on the tip of my .............................................. but I just couldn’t remember it.
11 It’ll take us the whole day to drive to Scotland – the train is much faster. On the other .................................................., it’ll be very convenient to have the car when we get there.
12 I’m ........................................ nowhere with this crossword; I just can’t do any more.
13 I was going to invite my cousins, but I’ve .......................................... my mind.
14 I can’t take all my furniture with me: I’ll have to .......................................... rid of some of it.

13.3 It can be difficult to guess the meaning of an idiom, especially if you do not have the full context. Look at these examples (they are not presented on the opposite page).

1 The exam was a piece of cake.
2 They’ve gone for good.
3 I can make do with a small flat.

Here is a fuller context for the above idioms. Can you guess the meaning now?

1 A: Was the exam difficult?
   B: No, it was a piece of cake.
2 A: Do you think they’ll ever come back to England?
   B: No, they’ve gone for good.
3 A: Do you really need a large flat?
   B: Well, it would be nice to have a big place, but I can probably make do with a small flat.
Verb or adjective + preposition

Verb + preposition

Some verbs are often followed by a particular preposition. Pay special attention to any that are different in your language.

In formal situations we often use apologise and apology.
I must apologise for being late. I would like to apologise for the delay. Unfortunately, ...
Please accept our apologies for the delay in sending out your order.
[a common phrase in business letters]

Excuses and promises
If the situation is important we can give an explanation or excuse after the apology. An excuse is the reason for the apology – it may or may not be true.
I'm sorry I'm late, but I was delayed/got held up at the airport.
I'm sorry I'm late, but my train was cancelled. (= the train was on the timetable but did not run)
If you are responsible for a problem, you can offer or promise to do something about it.
I'm sorry about the mess in here – I'll clear it up. (= I will make everything tidy/in order)
I'm sorry about the confusion over the plans – I'll sort it out. (= I will solve the problems)

Reassuring people
When people apologise to us, it is common to reassure them (= tell them that 'everything is OK'). Sometimes we use two expressions to emphasise that 'it's OK'.
A: I'm sorry I'm late.  B: That's OK. Don't worry.  A: I'm afraid I forgot to bring the books.  B: Never mind. It doesn't matter.

Thanks and replies
These are the most common ways of thanking people in everyday situations, with typical replies.
A: Here are the books you wanted.  A: I'll answer that.
B: Oh, thank you (very much).  B: Oh, thanks (a lot).
A: That's OK.  A: No problem.
A: I'll post those letters for you.  B: Oh, thank you. That's very kind of you. [This is polite and a bit more formal.]
16.1 Complete these dialogues with a suitable word. Contractions (e.g. I'm) count as one word.

1. A: I'm ____________ sorry.
   B: That's OK.

2. A: I'm sorry _______________ late. The 7.30 train was ________________ and I had to catch the 7.50.
   B: That's OK. No ________________

3. A: Sorry to ______________ you waiting.
   B: That's OK. Never ________________

4. A: I think the boss has got a real problem with this contract.
   B: Yes, but I'm sure he'll ________________ it out.

5. A: I've got your CDs.
   B: Oh, thanks a ________________

6. A: I must ________________ for missing the meeting.
   B: That's OK. It doesn't ________________

7. A: I'm busy right now but I won't be ________________ B: That's OK. Don't ________________

8. A: I'll carry your bags for you.
   B: Thanks. That's very ________________ of you.

   B: That's OK. No ________________

10. A: I'm sorry ________________ the room; it's very untidy.
    B: That's OK. I'll clear it ________________ later.

16.2 What could you say in these situations? (If it is an apology, give an explanation.)

1. You get on a bus at the same time as another person and he/she almost falls over.
   I'm terribly sorry. / I beg your pardon. I didn't see you there.

2. You arrange to meet friends in the centre of town but you are 20 minutes late.

3. Your car has broken down. You're pushing it to the side of the road and a stranger offers to help.

4. A friend borrows a pen, then loses it. When they apologise, you want to reassure them.

5. You need to see your boss, but she's busy. What do you say as you go into her office?

6. A colleague at work tells you that a number of files are in the wrong order and he doesn't know what to do. When he apologises, how can you reassure him, and what can you offer to do?

7. You were unable to go to a meeting with a client. Now you phone to explain.

8. Your company promised to send some information about new products to a customer last week. You still haven't sent the information and must now write to explain.
Requests, invitations and suggestions

Requests and replies
Notice that the phrases get longer when the requests get bigger.

1 A: Could you pass me the salt?   A: Could I possibly borrow your dictionary?
   B: Yeah, sure.   B: Yes, help yourself. (= yes, take it)

2 A: Do you think you could (possibly) lend me two or three pounds?
   B: Yeah, sure. or No, I'm afraid I can't. I haven't got any money on me. (= with me)
   No, I'm afraid not.

3 A: I was wondering if I could (possibly) leave work half an hour early today?
   B: Yeah, no problem. or Well, it's a bit difficult (actually), because ...

Invitations and replies

A: Would you like to go out this evening?

B: Yeah, great/I'd love to.

or I'm sorry, I can't.

A: We're going to a restaurant and we were wondering if you'd like to come with us?

B: I'd love to, but I'm afraid I can't. I've got to write an essay.

Suggestions and replies

Suggestions are ideas for things to do/say/make, etc.

Asking for suggestions
What shall we do tonight?
Where shall we go this evening?
What do you fancy doing (= want to do) this evening? (infml; notice the -ing form after fancy)

Making suggestions
How about (or What about) going to the cinema? (notice the -ing form)
Perhaps we could just get a pizza or something like that.
Why don't we try that new club in the main square?
Do you fancy going to that Italian restaurant? [This can be a suggestion or an invitation.]

Replies
Positive: Yeah, great/fine/that's a good idea/that sounds great.
Neutral: Yeah, if you like. (= if you want to go, then I am happy to go)
   Yes, I don't mind. (= it's OK for me) (NOT for me it's the same)
Negative: I think I'd rather (= I would prefer to) stay in and watch TV.
Exercises

17.1 Correct the mistakes in this dialogue. There are six, including the example.

Would
A: Do you like to go out this evening?
B: I’m afraid but I haven’t got any money.
A: That’s OK, I’ll pay. How about go to see a film?
B: No, I think I’d rather to stay in and do my homework.
A: Why you don’t do your homework this afternoon?
B: I’m busy this afternoon.
A: OK. We could go tomorrow.
B: Yeah, great.
A: Right. What film shall we see?
B: For me it’s the same.

17.2 Complete the dialogues with a suitable word. Contractions (e.g. isn’t) count as one word.

1 A: Could you possibly open that window? It’s very hot in here.
   B: Yeah, .............................................

2 A: Clive and Sally are here at the moment and we were ....................... if you’d like to come over for a meal this evening?
   B: Yes, I’d ......................... to.

3 A: What do you ....................... doing this evening?
   B: I don’t know really. Any ideas?
   A: Why ..................... we go to the cinema? We haven’t been for ages.
   B: Yeah, that’s a great .......................

4 A: OK. Where ....................... we go on Saturday?
   B: How ..................... going to the beach if the weather’s nice?
   A: Yeah. Or we ..................... try that new sports centre just outside town.
   B: Mmm. I think I’d ..................... go to the beach.
   A: Yeah, OK, if you .....................

5 A: What ....................... you like to do this weekend?
   B: I don’t ..................... . You decide.

17.3 Respond to each of these requests, invitations and suggestions. If possible, do this activity with someone else: one of you asks the questions, the other answers.

1 Could I borrow a pen for a minute?
2 Do you think you could post a letter for me?
3 I was wondering if you’ve got a suitcase you could lend me?
4 Would you like to go out this evening?
5 I’ve got some tickets for a concert. Do you fancy coming with me?
6 How about going to a football match at the weekend?
7 Why don’t we meet this afternoon and practise our English for an hour?
8 We could invite some other people from our English class to meet us as well.
9 I know you’re busy but could you help me with this essay?
10 Do you fancy going to the cinema?
Opinions, agreeing and disagreeing

A Asking someone for their opinion
What do you think of his new book/girlfriend? (= asking about a specific person/thing)
What do you think about cosmetic surgery? (= asking about a general topic)
How do you feel about working with the others?

B Introducing your own opinion
(Personally) I think Paula was probably right.
(Personally) I don't think it's a good idea. (NOT I think it's not a good idea)
In my opinion we need to change the direction of the company. [This is more formal.]

C Having strong opinions
These adjectives are common when we give opinions.
I thought it was a brilliant idea. (= a fantastic idea)
She thought the pictures were disgusting. (= terrible, very unpleasant, not acceptable)
His plan is just ridiculous. (= absurd and stupid)
I think it's a really original book. (= new and different from anything else)

D Giving the opinion of others
According to the newspaper (= in the opinion of the paper), she knew nothing about it.
The newspaper says the President knew weeks ago. (NOT It is written in the newspaper.)

E Agreeing with someone
If we want to show we agree with someone, we can do it like this:
A: I think we should put the money in the bank.
B: Yes, I agree (with you). or Yes, I think you're (absolutely) right.

F Disagreeing with someone
It is common to begin by agreeing before you give a different opinion.
possibly, but don't you think ...
Yes, perhaps/maybe, but I'm not sure that ... you could be right, but don't forget ...

If we disagree but not completely, we often use these expressions:
Yes, I see what you mean, but ...
Yes, I take your point, but ...

G Strong disagreement
I totally disagree (with you).
I'm afraid I don't agree (with you) at all.
Exercises

18.1 Complete these questions in three different ways to ask people their opinion.
1 ................................ these shoes? Do they look OK?
2 ................................ the plan to change the examination system?
3 ................................ having more responsibility?

Really? I quite like it.
Oh, I really like it.

And things like that

We can describe a list of things, e.g. likes or dislikes, with one or two examples, then finish with general phrases like these. We can also use them to ask about likes or dislikes.

She's very keen on poetry and drama and that sort of thing.
I try to eat healthy food – simple pasta and salads, and stuff like that.
My husband likes boxing and wrestling, but I hate things like that.
What kind of things/sort of stuff do you like?

Look forward to

I'm looking forward to going home. (= pleased and excited about going home soon)
I always look forward to my birthday. (= pleased and excited when it is going to happen)
I'm not looking forward to the exams because I haven't done much work.
I look forward to hearing from you. (This is a common way to end a formal letter.)

Which do you prefer?

In general
A: Which do you prefer, tea or coffee?
B: I prefer coffee to tea in the morning. But in the afternoon I usually drink tea.

Specific occasion
A: We can go to the cinema or the theatre – it doesn't matter. Which would you prefer?
B: I'd prefer to go to the cinema. or I'd rather go to the cinema.
‘I’d rather’ is the same as ‘I’d prefer to’, but is more common in spoken English.

What are you interested in?

A: Are you interested in Latin American music?
B: Yes, very (much). or No, not really. or No, it doesn't interest me (at all).

We can respond to bad news using the same constructions but different adjectives.

C

Responding with disappointment

I can’t go to the party this evening.
Sam isn’t feeling well, so he’s staying here.

I think it’s going to rain for our picnic.

Responses of agreement

These responses all agree to do something, or they permit the speaker to choose and make the decision. The way we say these phrases makes it clear if we are happy or unhappy.

What time shall we go?
What do you want to do?
Where shall we put these chairs?
Do you want to go out?
Shall we take a taxi?

Whenever you like. (= We can go when you want)
Whatever you like.
Wherever you like.
I don’t mind. (= I am happy to go out, or stay in) Yeah, if you like. (= that’s OK with me)

E

Remember to respond!

It is important to show you are listening. These are common ways we do it.

mmm uh huh yeah OK I know sure right/I see (= I understand)

4 Where shall we go?
5 I've just won £1,000.
6 I can't go tomorrow. I have to work.
7 Peter has lost his wallet with all his credit cards.
8 I wanted to speak to Karen, but she's out all day.
Greetings, farewells and special expressions

Greetings: ‘hello’

How do you do? or Hello. Nice to meet you.

Hi/Hello. How are you?

Good morning, good afternoon, good evening

Used in formal situations when you meet someone for the first time. The reply can also be How do you do? or Pleased/nice to meet you.

A common greeting when you meet someone you already know. (Also How’s it going? informal) The usual reply is: Fine, thanks. And you? Or possibly: Not bad. How about you? These expressions are used at different times of the day (most people say Good morning until lunchtime). British people do not usually say Good day, but Australians do.

Farewells: ‘goodbye’

Nice to meet you. or Nice to have met you.

See you later/tomorrow.

Bye. See you soon.

Goodnight.

A: Have a nice weekend.
B: Yes. Same to you.

In formal situations, when you say goodbye to someone you have just met for the first time.

If you plan to see someone you know later the same day/ the next day.

You know you will see someone again, but have no plans to meet them.

When you say goodbye to someone late at night, or if you (or they) are going to bed.

When you say goodbye to a colleague/friend on Friday afternoon. You can also reply: You too.

Happy occasions and celebrations

Happy Birthday

Happy/Merry Christmas

Happy New Year

Congratulations

To someone on his/her birthday. You can also say Many happy returns.

To someone just before or on Christmas Day (25 December).

To someone at the beginning of the year.

To someone who has just achieved something, e.g. passed an exam, got a job, etc. We can also say Well done.

Expressions for special situations

Excuse me a To get someone’s attention, e.g. Excuse me. Is this your hat?
b When you want to get past other people (on a bus or in a crowded room).
c To tell others you are going to leave the room.

Sorry a To say sorry, e.g. you stand on someone’s foot.
b When you want someone to repeat what they said. (With this meaning, the voice must rise at the end of the word.)

Cheers Used to express good wishes when you have a drink with other people. Informally it can also mean ‘goodbye’ and ‘thank you’.

Good luck To wish someone well before a difficult situation, e.g. exam or job interview.

Bless you To someone when they sneeze. They can reply: Thank you.
Exercises

22.1 What message could you write in a card to these people?
1 A friend. Next week is 25 December. Happy Christmas
2 A friend who is 21 tomorrow.
3 A friend. It will be 1 January in three days’ time.
4 A very good friend who has just passed some important exams.
5 A friend who is going to take his driving test in three days’ time.
6 A friend you will visit when you return from your holiday, but you’re not sure when.

22.2 Complete the conversations in a suitable way.

1 This is Kevin Ward.

2 You too.

3

   Thank you.

22.3 What could you say in these situations?
1 You are in a meeting. Someone enters the room and says you have an important telephone call. What do you say as you leave? Excuse me. I won’t be long.
2 Someone says something to you but you didn’t hear all of it. What do you say?
3 You met a new business client for the first time 15 minutes ago, and now you are leaving. What do you say?
4 You are in a crowded bus. It is your stop and you want to get off. What do you say to other passengers as you move past them?
5 You are staying with some English friends. What do you say to them when you leave the room in the evening to go to bed?
6 You are in the street. A woman walks past you and at the same time something falls out of her bag. She has her back to you. What do you say?
7 A friend tells you they have just won some money.
8 Another friend is going for a job interview this afternoon.

22.4 When do we use these expressions? Do you have similar ones in your language?

Phrasal verbs (I): form and meaning

Formation
A phrasal verb is a verb + adverb or preposition, and occasionally a verb + adverb and preposition.
The price of petrol is going up (= increasing) again.
He fell over (= fell to the ground) and hurt his knee.
She's trying to find out (= learn/discover) the name of that new hotel.
Who's going to look after (= take care of) the children when their mother is in hospital?
If you don’t understand the meaning, look it up. (= find the meaning in a dictionary)
He doesn’t get on with (= have a good relationship with) his parents. (verb + adv + prep)

Meaning
Sometimes the adverb or preposition doesn’t change the meaning, but makes it sound more natural.
I didn’t wake up until 7 o’clock. I’m saving up for a new computer.
Hurry up or we’ll be late. She stood up and went over to the door.
Sit down and be quiet. He told me to lie down on the bed.

Sometimes an adverb adds a particular meaning. For example, back can mean ‘return’.
I’m going to take that jacket back to the shop; it’s too small.
You can look at the books but remember to put them back on the shelf.

More often, the adverb or preposition changes the meaning of the verb: ‘take off’ doesn’t mean the same as ‘take’, and ‘get on’ doesn’t mean the same as ‘get’. Here are some examples:
It took her a long time to get over (= get better/recover from) her illness.
We’ll take a short break and then carry on (= continue) with the meeting.
My wife has decided to give up (= stop) smoking.
I can’t make any sandwiches – we’ve run out of bread. (= no bread is left; it is finished)
I’ve told them we can’t put the meeting off. (= change the time of the meeting to a later date)

Multiple meanings
Be careful: many phrasal verbs have more than one meaning.
It was so hot I had to take off (= remove) my jacket.
I’m always nervous when the plane takes off. (= leaves the ground)
I’ve got a lot of work to get through (= finish) before Friday.
I tried phoning him, but I couldn’t get through. (= make contact and talk to him)
My alarm clock didn’t go off (= ring) this morning.
The bomb could go off (= explode) at any minute. [See picture.]
The fish will go off (= go bad) if you don’t put it in the fridge.
I picked up most of the rubbish. (= took it from a place, using my hands)
I have to pick Jane up (= collect her in my car) from the station.
Exercises

23.1 Complete the phrasal verbs. Remember to put the verb into the correct form.

1. I don't think they ever found out how the man escaped.
2. The children went round the school and collected up all the rubbish.
3. This milk smells horrible; I think it has spoiled off.
4. I rang the tourist information office but I couldn't get through. It's engaged all the time.
5. The relationship was difficult at first, but I think she got on with him quite well now.
6. If she's still ill tomorrow, we'll have to put off the trip to France until later in the month.
7. I agreed to look after my sister's cat when she goes to France.
8. We can carry on with this exercise while the others are in the library.
9. Our English teacher said we should get through the textbook by the end of the course.
10. I'm afraid this photocopier has run out of paper, but you can use the one in my office.

23.2 Complete these sentences in a logical way.

1. It will take her a long time to get over her illness.
2. The plane took off.
3. He had to look it up.
4. I don't really get on with her.
5. She came in and took off her bag.
6. I've decided to give up.
7. Who is going to look after the baby?
8. I went to the garage to pick up the car.
9. I'm afraid we've run out of...?
10. My rent is going up.

23.3 Look at the dictionary entry for 'go off', and match the meanings with the sentences below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>go off</th>
<th>Meaning</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Leave to leave a place and go somewhere else. She's gone off to the pub with Tony.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. UK informal If food goes off, it is not good to eat any more because it is too old.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Stop If a light or machine goes off, it stops working. The heating goes off at 10 o'clock.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Explode If a bomb or gun goes off, it explodes or fires.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Make noise If something that makes a noise goes off, it suddenly starts making a noise. His car alarm goes off every time it rains.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. When the light goes off, the machine has finished.
2. My alarm clock went off early this morning.
3. I think this meat has gone off.
4. The bomb went off without any warning.

23.4 Write two sentences for each of these phrasal verbs to show their different meanings.

pick up  take off  go off  get through Phrasal verbs (2): grammar and style

A Grammar: intransitive verbs
Some phrasal verbs are intransitive. They don’t need an object after the verb, and we cannot put another word between different parts of the verb.

He grew up in a city. (= spent his childhood/developed into an adult) (NOT He grew in-a-city-up.)
Don’t wait out there. Please come in. (= enter)
I’m going to stay in (= stay at home) this evening.
We set off (= started the journey; usually a long journey) at about 7.30.

B Grammar: transitive verbs
Many phrasal verbs are transitive: they need a direct object after the verb. You can usually put the object between the different parts of the verb, or after the phrasal verb.

Put on your shoes. ✓ Turn on the TV. ✓ Take off your coat. ✓
Put your shoes on. ✓ Turn the TV on. ✓ Take your coat off. ✓

If the object is a pronoun, it must go in the middle.
Put them on. ✓ (Put on them.) Turn it on. ✓ (Turn on it.) Take it off. ✓ (Take off it.)

C In dictionaries
You can use a dictionary to check the grammar. Most dictionaries show it like this:
carry on, get by (= intransitive phrasal verb)
I can get by in French. (= I can manage in French, but I don’t speak it well.)
putsth→on, throw sth→away (= transitive phrasal verb)
Did you throw those books away? (= get rid of them/put them in a rubbish bin)
Did you throw away those books?
got over sth, look after sb/sth (= verb + preposition + object)
Maria will look after (= take care of) the children. (Maria will look after them.)

D Style: formal or informal?
Most phrasal verbs are more common in spoken English. In written English there is often a more formal word with the same meaning. (The other words in bold are often used with these verbs.)

make sth up = invent/create sth (from your imagination), e.g. We had to make up a story.
leave sth out = omit sth (= decide not to do sth), e.g. You can leave out question 7.
sort sth out = solve sth (such as a problem), e.g. We asked the computer guy to sort it out.
turn sb/sth down = reject sth (= say no to sth), e.g. I offered him £50, but he turned it down.

Some phrasal verbs are used in written English if there is no other easy way to express the meaning.

wake up, e.g. I always wake up early, even at weekends.
break down (= go wrong/stop working), e.g. The car broke down on the motorway.
take off (= leave the ground), e.g. The plane couldn’t take off because of bad weather.
break into sth (= enter by force, often illegally), e.g. Thieves broke into the house and stole £500.
Exercises

24.1 Correct any mistakes with word order in these sentences. Be careful: some are correct.
1 He’s putting his boots on.
2 I told the children I'd pick up them after school.
3 She grew on a farm up.
4 We set off very early this morning.
5 It’s a big problem but the man will sort out it.
6 I think she made that story up.
7 We know there were two thieves, but do you know how they broke the house into?
8 I said I'd look after them if necessary.

24.2 Make these texts more informal by changing the underlined verbs to phrasal verbs.
1 The cost of living is increasing all the time and I am now finding it quite difficult to manage on my salary. I can probably continue for a few months, but after that I may have to look for another job.
2 She told us to enter, but then we had to remove our shoes.
3 The teacher told half the class to invent a story to go with the picture in our books, while the other half did Exercise 5. She said we could all omit Exercise 4 if we wanted to.
4 I don't know why he rejected my offer of help because the company is in a lot of trouble and they've got no one to solve the problems.

24.3 Fill the gaps to complete the phrasal verbs in these sentences.
1 I'm afraid the photocopier has just broken .................
2 I couldn't do the second question, so I left it .................
3 Put your coat ................. if you're cold.
4 If there are problems with the computer, I usually have to sort it .................

5 We have asked an engineer to come and sort out .................
6 Are you going to stay in ................. ?
7 Why did you leave out ................. ?
8 I'm afraid we broke down .................
9 Can you get by ................. ?
10 I grew up .................

24.5 There are many phrasal verbs in other units. Find three phrasal verbs in each of these units: 52, 53, 61, 79, 80.
Have and have got

Have vs have got
We can use have or have got to talk about possessions, relationships, illnesses and some other states. Have got is more common in spoken English.

| I’ve got an old CD player. | I haven’t got a car at the moment. |
| She’s got two brothers. | Have you got the time? (= What time is it?) |
| He’s got a headache. | It hasn’t got a swimming pool. |

1. In negative sentences, we can use haven’t got or don’t have.
   I haven’t got a car/I don’t have a car. (NOT I haven’t a car.)

2. We don’t use got in short answers, and it isn’t common in the past tense.
   A: Have you got any brothers or sisters?  B: No, I haven’t. (NOT No, I haven’t got)
   I had a car when I was at college. (NOT I had got)

3. The verb form used in the question is usually the same in the answer.
   A: Do you have a car?  A: Have you got a car?
   B: Yes, (I do).  B: Yes, (I have).

Have + noun
When the same word can be a noun or a verb, e.g. wash, it is common to use have + the noun, and not the verb on its own, e.g. I’m going to have a wash. (NOT I’m going to wash.) Have got is not used here.

I always have a quick shower when I get up. (= shower)
Let’s have a rest before we go on. (= rest/stop doing an activity and relax)
I often have a sleep after lunch. (= sleep) [We use this expression for a short period of sleep.]
This computer game is really hard. Would you like to have a try? (= try it)
I had a dream about you last night. (= dreamt)
Let me have a think before I decide. (= think about sth for a period of time)

We use be + adjective and not have + noun in these expressions:
She was lucky.  I’m hungry. (= I want something to eat.)  I’m thirsty. (= I want a drink.)

Have + object

| have breakfast/lunch/a meal, etc. (= eat) | I had breakfast but Paul just had a sandwich. |
| have a drink (= drink sth) | What time do you have breakfast? |
| have a party | Let’s have a drink before dinner. |
| have a baby (= be pregnant or give birth) | I’m having a party for my birthday. |
| have a look (= read or examine) | Mary is having a baby next month. |
| have a nice/great/terrible/etc. time | Could I have a look at your paper? (= read it) |
| have an argument (= angry discussion) | The doctor had a look at my knee. (= examined it) |
| have a word with sb (= speak to sb) | We had a very nice time in Switzerland. |
| have the bill (= receive it in a restaurant) | They had an argument about the holidays. |
| have a problem + (with) or (-ing) | I had a word with the teacher about my homework. |
|  | Could I have the bill, please? |
| I’m having a problem with this exercise. | I had a problem opening the door. |
Exercises

25.1 Transform these sentences from have to have got, or have got to have.

1 I have a new CD player. I’ve got a...

3 Has he got any change for the machine?
4 She hasn’t got much money.
5 We don’t have a video at school.
6 A: Do you have an English dictionary?
   B: Yes, I do.

25.2 Now change the form of have to have got where possible. Make any other changes that are necessary.

1 Do you have a car? Have you got a car?
2 Have you seen her today? You can’t change the form here.
3 We have a small garden.
4 I think I have a cold.
5 A: Do you have a spare pen? B: No, sorry.
6 Someone told me she has a new boyfriend.
7 Let’s have lunch.
8 They had an exam yesterday.
9 I have a new computer.
10 Excuse me. Do you have the time?

25.3 Fill the gaps with a suitable word.

1 I’m tired. I think I’ll have a ...sleep...
2 I had a funny ...story... about you last night. I woke up laughing.
3 I’m exhausted. Can we have a ...break...
4 She’s having her 21st birthday ...party... next week. Are you going?
5 I need to have a ...rest... before I decide what to do.
6 Did you have a ...lot... finding the place without a map?

8 We had ...lunch... in a little restaurant, then went for a walk in the afternoon.
9 There’s a problem with the car, so I asked the garage to have a ...check... at it.
10 I had a terrible ...argument... with my sister; I haven’t spoken to her for days.

25.4 What can you ask in these situations? Use have + a noun and start each question Could I ...?

1 You want to pay in a restaurant. Could I have the bill, please?
2 You would like to look at someone’s newspaper.
3 You want to speak to your teacher.
4 You are in a friend’s house and you are thirsty.
5 Someone asks you if you want to buy their CD player, but you’re not 100% sure if you want it.

25.5 Express these sentences in a different way using have + a noun. Keep the meaning the same and start each one with Mary ...

1 Mary is speaking to one of the boys. Mary is having a word with one of the boys.
2 Mary is pregnant.
3 Mary found it very difficult to work the video.
4 Mary examined my bad shoulder.
5 Mary really enjoyed herself in Ireland.

|                          | Could I take this afternoon off? |
Exercises

26.1 Underline the correct verb(s) in italics. Be careful: in some sentences both verbs are correct.

1. I couldn’t do/make my homework last night.
2. When do you take/do your next exam?
3. Did he do/make many mistakes?
4. I don’t often make/do the housework.
5. Did you make/take many photos?
6. I think I’ve done/made a lot of progress.
7. I want to do/make a course in English.
8. We must take/make a decision soon.
9. He is doing/making research in chemistry.
10. They did/made a lot of noise during the party.

26.2 Replace the underlined phrase with a phrase from the opposite page. Use the verb in brackets.

Example: I’ll clean the house at the weekend. (do) do the housework

1. I buy my food on Saturday morning. (do)
2. He is definitely improving. (make)
3. OK, let’s stop work and relax for 15 minutes. (take)
4. Could you help me and post this letter for me? (do)
5. Now I have a car it changes things a lot. (make)
6. They both want to become rich. (make)
7. When are they going to decide? (make)
8. I’m afraid she failed in both exams. (do)
9. Please sit down. (take)
10. I want to have a week’s holiday. (take)

26.3 Complete the sentences in the past tense about each of the pictures. Use verbs from the opposite page.

Sally / this morning  2. Maria / after dinner  3. Simon / of me this morning  4. Michael / in his exams 26.4 Choose three of these things. How long does it usually take you to do them?

Write sentences, and compare with someone else if possible.

Example: It usually takes me about 25 minutes to get to work.

get to college/work  eat lunch  do your English homework check your e-mail  wash your hair  put on your make-up Give, keep, break, see

Give
I'll give you a ring this evening. (= phone you this evening)
Could you give me a hand? (= help me)
I'll give you a lift home. (= take you home in my car)
In spoken English give + noun is often used instead of a verb on its own, e.g. He gave me a kiss, instead of He kissed me.
Other examples are:
He gave me a push. (= pushed me)
He gave me a (big) smile. (= smiled at me)
He gave me some advice. (advised me)
He gave me a hug. [See picture.]

Keep
Keep (+ noun/pronoun) + adjective (= to make sth/sb stay in a particular state)
These gloves will keep your hands warm.  That raincoat will keep you dry.
Running helps me to keep fit. (= stay healthy)  Please keep quiet. (= remain quiet)
Keep + -ing (= to do sth again and again; often sth that you don’t want to happen)
I keep losing my glasses.  She keeps interrupting me.  I keep getting backache.
I try to keep in touch with old school friends. (= stay in contact, e.g. phone/write to them)
I’m sorry to keep you waiting.

Break
If you break a record, you do something faster or better than anyone else before, e.g.
He broke the world 100 metres record with a time of 9.79 seconds.
I didn’t know I was breaking the law. (= doing something wrong/against the law)
Who’s going to break the news to her family? (= give her family the news)
It’ll break her heart (= make her very unhappy) to see her son like this.

See
A: She didn’t have your number, so she couldn’t phone.
B: Oh, I see. (= I understand)
A: It’s easier to carry two smaller suitcases.
B: Yes, I see what you mean. (= I understand what you are saying.)
They’re doing experiments to see (= find out) how people react when they are under stress.
A: Do you think we need the car?
B: I’ll see (= find out) what the others think.
I don’t see the point of practising six hours a day. (= I don’t understand the reason/I think it’s crazy.)
A: Is that John at the door?
B: Yes, I’ll see (= find out) what he wants.
Exercises

27.1 Match each verb with two nouns on the right to form common phrases.

1. break in touch the law
2. give somebody a hand somebody’s heart
3. keep somebody waiting somebody a lift

27.2 Fill the gaps with verbs from the opposite page.

1. She gave me a big smile when I got to work this morning.

Get: uses and expressions

Meanings
Get is an informal word and is very common in spoken English. It has many meanings.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>RECEIVE</th>
<th>I got a couple of letters this morning. You get a certificate at the end of the course.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>FIND/Buy</td>
<td>I got my ticket for the match yesterday. Where did you get those shoes? She's trying to get a new job.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BECOME</td>
<td>It gets dark very early in December. My hands are getting cold.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ARRIVE/REACH</td>
<td>When did you get here? I can't get there before 7 pm. I'll phone when I get home.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FETCH</td>
<td>Could you get the books from the cupboard? Wait here while I get the car.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Get + past participle
We use this structure in particular expressions. It is more natural than just using the verb.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>get married (= marry)</th>
<th>Rob and Sarah have just got married. They got divorced last year. (= the marriage ended officially)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>get divorced (= divorce)</td>

7. They're preparing to go out.
   They're ...........................................................
8. My sister told me to get out of bed.
   My sister told me to ..........................................

29.4 Write down examples of 'get' that you see or hear, then try to group your sentences according to the different meanings. This will help you to get an idea of the ways in which this important word is used in English.
Go: uses and expressions

Come vs go

With go the movement is usually away from the speaker; with come the movement is towards the speaker. For example, you are at school and the time is 9.30 am.

I had to go to Jimmy’s to pick up some books. Then I went to the post office before I came to school.

Sometimes the speaker imagines they are in another place. When Thomas meets Marta in Spain, he invites her to stay at his home in Switzerland. He says: ‘Would you like to come and visit me in Bern?’ (He lives there, so her movement is towards him.)

We can also imagine that the listener is in a different place. Talking to Marta, Thomas says: ‘I’ll come to your flat at 7.30 pm.’ (She will be at home, so his movement is towards her.)

Different meanings of ‘go’

- When you leave a place in order to do an activity, you often express it in these ways.

  \[ \text{go + -ing form} \rightarrow \text{go (out) + for a + noun} \]

  We could go shopping. \quad \text{Why don’t we go (out) for a walk/drive?}

  They all went sightseeing. \quad \text{They decided to go (out) for a drink.}

  I’d like to go swimming. \quad \text{She wants to go (out) for a meal.}

- Go can describe a changing state (usually a bad one) with certain adjectives.

  \text{My dad’s going grey (} = \text{his hair is going grey) and I’m going bald. (} = \text{losing my hair)}

  \text{The company went bankrupt last year. (} = \text{lost all its money and had to stop operating)}

  \text{My grandmother is going deaf. (} = \text{cannot hear)}

  \text{Our 12-year-old dog is going blind. (} = \text{cannot see)}

  \text{He’ll go mad (} = \text{get very angry)}$infml$\text{) if you wear his jacket.}

- When you want to say/ask if a road or form of transport takes you somewhere.

  \text{Does this bus go to the National Gallery?}

  \text{This road goes through the mountains.}

- Go and get means fetch.

  \text{Could you go and get the glasses from the kitchen?}

- When you talk about the usual position for something.

  \text{The dictionaries go on the bottom shelf.}

  \text{Does this table go next to the wall?}

Expressions with ‘go’ as noun and verb

I’ve never tried bungee jumping but I’d love to have a go. (} = \text{try it)}

\text{How’s it going? (}infml\text{) (} = \text{How are you? or What progress are you making? e.g. with an exercise)}

\text{I’d like to see the film. Why don’t we go together? (} = \text{go somewhere with another person/people)}

\text{It’s time to go. (} = \text{time for us to leave)}
Exercises

30.1 Complete the dialogue using the correct form of come, go, bring or take. (Two verbs are possible in one of the answers.)

A: What time are you (1) ...going... to Jim’s party this evening?
B: I’m not sure because Chris is (2) ...here first, and then we’ll (3) ...together.
A: Right. Do you know what’s happening about the music?
B: Yeah, I’m going to (4) ...some CDs, and Sue is (5) ...her guitar. But I’ll probably leave quite early, so could you (6) ...my CDs back here tomorrow?
A: Yeah, sure. What time?
B: Well, I want to (7) ...to the shops in the morning. Could you (8) ...before ten?
A: Yeah, no problem.

30.2 Replace the underlined words with a different word or phrase. The meaning must stay the same.

1 Excuse me. Does this road go to the bus station? take me
2 Some people aren’t interested in scuba diving but I’ve always wanted to have a go.
3 Hi, Sue. Nice to see you again. How’s it going?
4 Could you go and get my handbag from the other room?
5 If you want, we could go with each other.

30.3 Complete these sentences with an -ing noun (e.g. riding), or for a + noun (e.g. for a walk).

1 I went ...this morning and bought some books and clothes.
2 We didn’t have much food in the house, so we decided to go out ...
3 Why don’t we go ...in that nice new bar near the square?
4 I wanted to go ..., because it was my first time in Rome.
5 My brother has just got a new sports car. We could go ...at the weekend.
6 The pool is at the end of the road, so we often go ...

30.4 Complete these sentences with a suitable word.

1 Don’t put the desk in the corner. It doesn’t go ...
2 You can always wear a hearing aid if you ...
3 If business doesn’t improve they could go ...
4 You can always dye your hair (= change the colour) if you start going ...

6 If the dog comes into the house with wet feet, my aunt will go ...
7 He’s going ..., but he’s hoping to get a guide dog next year.
8 You don’t need to go on your own. We could ...

30.5 Look up ‘go’ in a good English dictionary. Find two or three new meanings (including phrasal verbs and idioms) that you think may be useful to you. Try to learn them. Write down the meanings with example sentences in your notebook. Write a translation as well if you want.
The senses

The five basic senses

These are: sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell. For each one we use a basic verb, which can be followed by an adjective or noun in these constructions.

It looks terrible. (= from what I could see)
He sounds German. (= from what I heard)
It tastes strange. (= from tasting it)
It feels soft. (= from touching it)
It smells wonderful. (= from smelling it)

We can also use the verbs as nouns.

I didn’t like the look of the fish.
Do you really like the taste of olives?

It looks like a wedding cake.
It sounds like a good idea.
This tastes a bit like chicken.
It feels like wool.
This smells like garlic.

We could hear the sound of church bells.
She hates the smell of petrol.

See, look (at) and watch

Compare these examples of see (= able to see) with look (for) sth (= search for, try to find), look (at) sth (= pay attention to sth, usually not moving and for a short time) and watch (= pay attention to sth not moving, usually for a long time).

I can’t see a thing without my glasses. (= I’m not able to see anything)
I can’t find my keys and I’ve looked (= searched/looked carefully) everywhere.
The police have been watching that man for weeks.
If you look at (= look carefully) the map, you can see (= are able to see) the mountains on the left.
He ran into me because he wasn’t looking. (= paying attention) [the speaker seems angry]
He ran into me because he didn’t see me. (= wasn’t able to see me) [the speaker is not angry]

Sometimes two verbs are possible in one context; sometimes only one.
I saw/watched a great programme on TV last night. [For TV, we can use either verb.]
I saw a great film last night at the cinema. [For the cinema, we only use see.]

Hear and listen (to)

Hear means to be able to hear; listen (to) means to pay attention to things you hear.

Compare:
I couldn’t hear what she said. (= I was physically unable to hear)
I can sometimes hear the trains from my bedroom. (= I am able to hear without trying)
I don’t know what she said because I wasn’t listening. (= I wasn’t paying attention)
I was listening to the radio (= paying attention to it), when I heard a strange noise outside.

Sometimes we can use hear (but not in the progressive form) to mean ‘listen to’.
I know he’s dead – I heard it on the radio last night. (= I heard it when I was listening)

Touch

Don’t touch those wires – they’re dangerous.
You have to press that button to start the machine.
I don’t feel safe up here. Could you hold my hand?

Partitives: a bag of ..., a bit of ...

There are many different words used to describe a particular quantity of something.

A Containers (e.g. a bag) and contents (e.g. of shopping)

- a bag of shopping
- a bowl of sugar
- a bottle of wine
- a glass of water
- a can of cola
- a box of chocolates
- a jar of marmalade
- a jug of milk
- a packet of cigarettes
- a carton of orange juice
- a tube of toothpaste
- a vase of flowers
- a cup of coffee

B With uncountable nouns

Certain words make uncountable nouns countable in order to describe a specific quantity, e.g. Has anyone got a sheet of paper I can have? Other examples are:

- a piece of toast
- a piece of cake
- a slice of ham
- a slice of bread (= a thin piece)
- a piece of wood
- a drop of milk (= a little)

We use piece with the nouns above and some abstract nouns, e.g. a piece of advice, but the most common phrase in spoken English is a bit: we use it with a wide range of nouns.

- a bit of advice
- a bit of bread
- a bit of luck
- a bit of time
- a bit of news

C A pair of ...

Some nouns have two parts, e.g. trousers (two legs) and shoes (left and right). You can use pair of to specify the number, e.g. a pair of skis, two pairs of shoes, three pairs of shorts.

D Groups of things

NOTE

Gang has a negative meaning: it suggests a group of young people who may cause trouble.

- a herd of cows
- a bunch of flowers
- a group of people
- a gang of youths/kids/teenagers
- a bunch of grapes
Exercises

32.1 Complete the phrases below the pictures.

1 a .................. of milk            5 a .................. of water

3 a .................. of fruit           7 a .................. of paint
4 a .................. of matches         8 a .................. of coffee

32.2 Contents come in different containers. Are these normal or unusual? If they are unusual, change them and make them normal.

Example a glass of soup  Unusual: It’s usually a bowl or cup of soup.

1 a vase of coffee       5 a bowl of milk
2 a jug of wine          6 a tube of cigarettes
3 a jar of mustard       7 a bag of salt
4 a carton of toothpaste 8 a tin of tomatoes

32.3 Complete these sentences with a suitable noun.

1 I gave her a big .................. of flowers from my garden.
2 The police are looking for a .................. of youths who may be responsible for the damage.
3 I cut about six .................. of ham and put them on a plate.
4 They own a large .................. of land on the coast.
5 I did a .................. of homework last night, then went out.

7 We had a (piece/bit) of luck this morning: we won some money!
8 Could I have a (piece/bit/drop) of milk in my coffee?
Uncountable nouns

Uncountable nouns, e.g. information, homework, advice:
- don’t have a plural form, e.g. information (NOT informations)
- are not used with the indefinite article, e.g. (some) homework (NOT a homework)
- are used with a singular verb, e.g. my advice is... (NOT my advice are...)

The uncountable nouns below are often countable in other languages. Look at them carefully, and also notice the other words in bold that are often used with them.

Perhaps we could get some more information about the concert off the internet.
She gave me lots of advice about the best dictionary to buy.
Are we going to sell all the furniture? (= tables, chairs, armchairs, desks, etc.)
My knowledge (= what I know) of German is very limited. (= very little)
You need a lot of camping equipment. (e.g. tent, sleeping bag, things for cooking, etc.)
She’s worked hard and she’s making good progress. (= she is improving/getting better)
Is there any more news about the rail strike?
The teacher gave us a lot of homework last night.
I always put my camera in my hand luggage. (= bags you carry with you on the plane)
Would you like some more toast? (= bread that is heated and brown on both sides)

In dictionaries

Learners’ dictionaries show countable nouns with a (C) and uncountable nouns with a (U). Some nouns can be countable with one meaning and uncountable in another.

| book (C) | The books are on the table. |
| housework (U) | I did a lot of housework (= cleaned the house) this morning. |
| hair (U) | My hair is getting very long. I must get it cut. |
| hair (C) | I’m starting to get a few grey hairs now. |

Plural nouns

Plural nouns, e.g. trousers, stairs, sunglasses:
- have a plural form and aren’t used with ‘a/an’, e.g. trousers (NOT a trouser)
- usually take a plural verb, e.g. These stairs are dangerous (NOT These stairs is...)
- can sometimes be made singular using a pair of, e.g. a pair of sunglasses

Here are some other nouns that are usually plural:
I’ve just bought a pair of trainers.
These shorts are too long.
I bought new pyjamas when I went into hospital.
The scissors are on the table.
I often wear sunglasses for driving.
You can weigh yourself on the scales in the bathroom.
He couldn’t hear me because he was wearing headphones.
Exercises

33.1 Check the pronunciation of the underlined words in the Index. Practise saying the phrases.

my knowledge of German camping equipment buy some furniture hand luggage a pair of pyjamas I want to weigh myself

33.2 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.
1 I need some informations.
2 The teacher has a news about the school trip.
3 The furnitures are very old.
4 I’m looking for a new jeans.
5 Your hairs are getting very long.
6 Do you have a scissor?
7 We had a lot of homeworks yesterday.
8 Do you think she’s making a progress with her English?
9 These trousers is too small.
10 She gave me some good advices.

33.3 Mark these nouns countable, uncountable, or countable and uncountable. If they can be both, write sentence examples to show the difference.

cup housework coffee spaghetti money coin work travel

33.4 Complete these dialogues using a suitable plural noun or uncountable noun from the opposite page. Make sure the form of each word is correct. Look at the example first.

Example A: It’s too hot for jeans. B: You need a pair of shorts.

1 A: I have to cut this paper into three pieces.
   B: You need ..................................................

2 A: I can’t see because the sun is in my eyes.
   B: You need ..................................................

3 A: I don’t know what to do when I leave school.
   B: You need ..................................................

4 A: My room looks so empty.
   B: You need ..................................................

5 A: I want to find out how much I weigh.
   B: You need ..................................................

6 A: I can’t play my music loud because my mother always complains.
   B: You need ..................................................

33.5 Read this short text from a radio broadcast. Find two uncountable nouns and one noun always used in a plural form. (These words are not included on the opposite page.)

Traffic on the M3 motorway has been terrible this morning because of the bad weather and the roadworks near Basingstoke, and there have been long delays for motorists heading into London. Drivers are advised to choose an alternative route if at all possible.
Verb + -ing form

Some verbs are followed by an -ing form if the next word is a verb. Here are some of them.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>-ing form example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>enjoy</td>
<td>feel like (informal)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>finish</td>
<td>(don't) mind</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>imagine</td>
<td>can't stand</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>admit</td>
<td>give up</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>avoid</td>
<td>deny</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

I've lived in New Zealand all my life; I can't imagine living anywhere else.
Some people can't stand (= hate) working at the weekend but I don't mind.
(= for me it's OK)
His doctor told him to give up smoking. (= stop smoking)
I always try to avoid going through the city centre. (= stay away from it)
At the police station, he admitted stealing her money, but denied taking the computer.
(= he said 'yes' he took the money, but 'no' he didn't take the computer)
Do you feel like going out (= want to go out) this evening?

Verb + infinitive

Some verbs are followed by an infinitive if the next word is a verb.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>infinitive example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>decide</td>
<td>want</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hope</td>
<td>seem</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>manage</td>
<td>appear</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>forget</td>
<td>expect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>refuse</td>
<td>mean</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>promise</td>
<td>offer</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

It's a long walk so I offered to take them in the car.
I expect (= think or believe something will happen) to get the results before next week.
I meant (= planned/intended) to get the information, but I forgot (= didn't remember) to phone.
It was hard work but we managed to finish it. (= we were able to finish it but it was difficult)
I asked her to carry the suitcases but she refused to help. (= she said 'no')
They promised to phone me as soon as they arrived. (= they said they would)

Verb + -ing form or infinitive

Some verbs can be followed by an -ing form or infinitive and the meaning is very similar, e.g. love, like and prefer. But with some verbs there is a difference in meaning:

I remembered to buy my grandmother a birthday card. (= I didn't forget to buy one)
I remember making cards for her when I was small. (= it's one of my memories from the past)

Verb + infinitive without 'to'

Two common verbs are followed by an object + infinitive without 'to': make someone do something, and let someone do something.

My parents make me do my homework every night. (= They force me to do my homework.)
My parents let me go out at the weekend. (= They allow/permit me to go out.)
Exercises

34.1 Underline the correct word(s). Be careful: in two sentences, both possibilities are correct.

1 We decided (to work/working) during our holiday.
2 She promised (to help/helping) us.
3 I don’t feel like (to go/going) for a walk at the moment.
4 She hopes (to spend/spending) some time in the mountains this summer.
5 Do you actually like (to go out/going out) when it’s raining?
6 I can’t imagine (to eat/eating) pasta every day of the week.
7 Most of the time she prefers (to work/working) on her own.
8 I don’t remember (to go/going) to the zoo when we stayed in Madrid.
9 He hopes (to finish/finishing) his thesis by the end of the month.
10 I don’t mind (to help/helping) you if I’m not busy.

34.2 Complete part (c) of each sentence in a suitable way, starting with a verb.

1 Most people want:
   a to be rich       b to get married       c ..............................................
2 A lot of people can’t stand:
   a getting wet      b getting up early     c ..............................................
3 Most people enjoy:
   a going to parties b lying on a beach    c ..............................................
4 On hot days most people don’t feel like:
   a working         b eating big meals     c ..............................................
5 Most people expect:
   a to be happy      b to find a job they will like c ..............................................
6 A lot of people don’t mind:
   a washing up       b ironing             c ..............................................
7 Some parents make their teenage children:
   a wear certain clothes b do housework    c ..............................................
8 Other parents let their teenage children:
   a wear what they like b stay out all night c ..............................................

Now think about each of the above statements. Are they true, and are they (or were they) true for you?

34.3 Read the story and answer the questions below.

When Julie was 17, her father said she could go on holiday with two school friends. He also said that he would lend her the money for the hotel, but she must pay for the flight and her entertainment. Julie was delighted and said she would bring him back a wonderful present, and pay him back in six months. First they had to decide where to go. They looked at lots of brochures and finally agreed on a two-week holiday in the south of France. They had a great time, but unfortunately Julie spent all her money and forgot to buy a present for her father.

1 What did Julie’s father let her do? He let her go on holiday with friends. ..............................................
2 And what did he offer to do? He offered ..............................................
3 But what did he refuse to do? He refused ..............................................
4 In return what did Julie promise? She promised ..............................................
5 What did the three girls decide? They decided ..............................................
6 What did Julie forget? She forgot ..............................................
Verb patterns

<td>(that) the film was tonight.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Mention (= say or write a fact or piece of information) When I spoke to the secretary, she didn’t mention (that) our teacher was ill.

Verb + (object) + preposition

I asked the taxi driver for directions to the hotel. They blamed me for the accident. (= they said I was responsible for it/it was my fault) She complained (to the manager) about the service. (= said she was not satisfied with it) The manager apologised for the noise outside the restaurant. (= the manager said sorry)
Exercises

35.1 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.
1 She said me the film was terrible. She said the film was terrible.
2 He told it’s impossible.
3 The teacher is going to explain you what to do.
4 She suggested us to go to an Italian restaurant.
5 Can we discuss about my report?
6 I want that he leaves.
7 You must answer to the question.
8 I apologised my mistake.
9 She advised me buy a dictionary.
10 I asked to the waiter for a knife.

35.2 Complete the sentences with a suitable verb. (There may be more than one answer.)
1 They watched the film together and then they discussed it in small groups.
2 I didn’t understand the exercise but she instructed me what to do.
3 She wasn’t satisfied with her room, so she complained to the manager.
4 My suitcase was very heavy, so I asked the hotel porter to carry it.
5 Martin knew the area was dangerous but he didn’t think me when I went there.
6 I didn’t want to go at first but she convinced me.
7 I didn’t feel well and my mother advised me to stay at home and rest.
8 She lost all her money but she didn’t think it when I phoned her.
9 I don’t think it was my fault but they still accused me for it.
10 She didn’t know the way, so I explained how to get there.

35.3 Complete these sentences in a logical way.
1 Some of them were getting hungry so I suggested we had fish.
2 They were making a lot of noise next door and I told them to be quiet.
3 Paula went to that new Greek restaurant and said the food was delicious.
4 We read the book for homework and discussed it in class.
5 She didn’t have any money, so she wanted to borrow some.
6 It was only a few minutes to the beach, but I still couldn’t persuade him to go.
7 She said there were strange noises outside her flat, so I advised her to call the police.
8 The team played badly but most of the newspapers blamed the coach.
9 The water can make you ill and I warned him not to touch it.
10 If you don’t understand the instructions, someone will explain them.

35.4 When you learn new verbs, you may need to know the constructions that are used with them. So look at the grammar information about a word in a good dictionary, and always look carefully at the example sentences, then write one or two of your own. Do it for these three examples. What patterns from the opposite page are used after these verbs?

Adjectives ending in -ing and -ed

A large group of adjectives can have an -ing or -ed ending. The -ing ending describes a person, thing or situation; the -ed ending describes the effect on someone of this person, thing or situation.

It was such a boring party. Most people left before 11 pm – they were so bored.
I think the students are depressed because the weather is very depressing at the moment.

Other examples of adjectives ending -ing and -ed are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>surprising/ed</th>
<th>astonishing/ed</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>tiring/ed</td>
<td>exhausting/ed</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>terrifying/ed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>confusing/ed</td>
<td>exciting/ed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>embarrassing/ed</td>
<td>disappointing/ed</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

John isn’t very good at French, so I was quite surprised when he passed the exam – and I was absolutely astonished at his result. He got 98%.
I thought it was very exciting when I first got on a plane. Then we took off and flew into bad weather. I was terrified.
London has lots of streets with the same name; it’s very confusing for tourists.
Greg was very disappointed when they lost the match. Then, the next day, his girlfriend left him, so now he’s really depressed.
One of our teachers often forgets my name. It was funny at first, but now it’s a bit embarrassing.
Exercises

36.1 Write one limit adjective with a similar meaning to these scale adjectives. Cover the opposite page before you begin.

1 bad
2 small
3 tired
4 surprised
5 interesting

6 good
7 cold
8 big
9 hungry
10 frightened

36.2 Rewrite this postcard using limit adjectives where possible to give a more positive and/or more extreme effect. Make any other changes that are necessary and include absolutely once or twice.

Dear Sandy

Arrived on Sunday evening after an exhausting journey. We're very pleased with the hotel - our room is big and the food is nice. We've been lucky with the weather as well - it's been hot every day so far, so we've spent most of the time on the beach. Tomorrow we're planning to walk to a village a couple of kilometres along the coast. In this weather, I'm sure we'll be really tired by the time we get back, but it does sound an interesting place, so I'm looking forward to it.

I'll write again in a couple of days and tell you about it.

Love,
Benita

36.3 Complete the dialogues using a suitable 'limit' adjective in the correct form (-ing or -ed).

A: I was very interested in her talk.
B: Yes, it was absolutely fascinating.

2 A: You weren't frightened, were you?
B: Yes, it was absolutely

3 A: It was a surprising decision, wasn't it?
B: Yes, everyone was

4 A: Was the journey very tiring?
B: Yes, I was

5 A: Are you hungry?
B: Yes, I'm absolutely

6 A: I expect you were very pleased with your score.
B: Yes, I was absolutely

36.4 Think of an adjective from the opposite page to describe how the people felt in these situations.

1 They walked ten miles, then spent the afternoon cutting down trees. exhausted

2 From the description in the travel brochure, they expected a beautiful big villa by the sea. In actual fact it was quite small, not very nice, and miles from the beach.

3 They wore jeans to the party but when they arrived everyone was wearing very formal clothes.

4 One person told them the street was on the left, another told them to turn right, and a third person said they had to go back to the station.

5 My brother has a flat and it's usually in a terrible mess - he's very untidy. But yesterday when I visited him, the place was incredibly tidy. In fact everything looked new.
Prepositions: place

At, on, in

<table>
<thead>

</tbody>
</table>

Opposites

- up
- down
- into
- out of
- over/above
- under/below
- in front of
- behind

Over/above and under/below are very similar in meaning, but over and under sometimes suggest movement. For example:

When we flew over Paris we couldn’t see much because we were above the clouds. Below us was the river which ran under the bridge.

Other common prepositions of place

We drove along one side of the lake, then round the top shore, past the old castle, and finally through the village.

We came over the bridge and parked next to the house, which was opposite the hotel.

Our house is between two shops and it’s near a bus stop. You just go across the road and walk along the other side towards the church.
Exercises

37.1 Fill the gaps with at, on or in.
1. I put the books ............... the table.
2. The butter is ............... the fridge.
3. We saw them ............... the bus stop.
4. I met her ............... a party.
5. She works ............... Moscow.
6. The dictionary is ............... my desk.
7. I sat ............... the bed and wrote the letter.
8. I left my books ............... school.
9. There was still a lot of snow ............... the ground when I arrived.
10. He lives ............... a very nice area.

37.2 Complete these dialogues using the opposite preposition.
1. Was he standing in front of you? No, ............... behind me ............... 4. Did you see her get into the car? No, but I saw her get ...............
2. Is it up the hill to his house? No, it's ............... 5. Does she live in the flat above you? No, she's ...............
3. Did you climb over the fence? No, we got ...............

37.3 Look at this picture and complete the description of the route you took on the first day.

We took the boat (1) ............... the channel, then we drove (2) ............... France and (3) ............... Switzerland, where we spent the first night (4) ............... a small town quite (5) ............... Lucerne.

Now look at this picture and complete the description of the second day.

The next morning we walked (6) ............... a river which ran (7) ............... two mountains. We had lunch (8) ............... a small restaurant and then walked (9) ............... the small town of Stans before heading back.
Adverbs: frequency and degree

Frequency (= how often) always often quite often sometimes occasionally seldom (fml) never frequently hardly ever rarely

- Adverbs of frequency usually go before the main verb, but not if the main verb is ‘to be’:
  I occasionally see them. They hardly ever go to the cinema now.
  She is often late these days. I’ve never tried Korean food.

- Sometimes, occasionally and often can go at the beginning or end of the sentence:
  They go to the zoo quite often. Sometimes my parents give me money.
  I play tennis occasionally. Occasionally I work at the weekend.

Degree (= how much)

These adverbs are used with adjectives. They are more common in spoken English. Each group has a similar meaning, but read the notes below carefully.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I was</th>
<th>a bit bored</th>
<th>It's</th>
<th>quite large</th>
<th>They were</th>
<th>very interesting</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>slightly</td>
<td>fairly</td>
<td>large</td>
<td>extremely</td>
<td>incredibly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>rather</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>really</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>pretty</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- A bit = less than quite, and quite = less than very. They are all very common.
  The book’s a bit boring. The film was quite good. She tells very funny stories.

- A bit, pretty and really are informal and much more common in spoken English. A bit is mostly used before negative adjectives or adjectives with a negative prefix.
  The food was pretty good. This watch must be really expensive.
  The hotel was a bit disappointing. The explanation was a bit unnecessary.

- Rather is like ‘quite’ and ‘fairly’, but we often use it when something is a surprise.
  Her cooking is rather good actually. (= better than I thought and a very nice surprise)
  People don’t usually like factories, but I think they’re rather interesting places.

- Incredibly and extremely are stronger than ‘very’.
  We’re extremely busy at the moment. I was incredibly tired at the end.

Almost/nearly

It’s almost/nearly five o’clock. (= it is probably about 4.57)
I almost/nearly lost the match. (= I won but only just; only by a small amount)

Hardly

I hardly had anything to eat for lunch. (= I had almost nothing)
She could hardly walk after her operation. (= it was difficult for her to walk)
Exercises

38.1 Organise these mixed-up words into correct sentences.
1 brother often us Sundays visits on my
2 me ever phones she hardly
3 have leg my broken never I
4 summer ever saw I hardly him the during
5 get occasionally I early up
6 lose often I glasses quite my

38.2 Replace the underlined adverb with a different adverb that has the same meaning.
1 She seldom goes to conferences now.
2 The cinema was fairly full.
3 There were almost 50 people there, you know.
4 I thought it was a bit disappointing, didn’t you?
5 I’m afraid I’m extremely busy next week.
6 We frequently ask them to turn their music down.

38.3 Respond to these sentences using ‘rather’ to show a positive surprise. (You can also add ‘actually’ at the end of the sentence; this is very common in spoken English.)
1 A: Was it a boring evening?
   B: No, it was rather interesting, actually.
2 A: Were the children very noisy?
   B: No, they
3 A: I’ve heard it’s a very dirty town. Is that true?
   B: No, it
4 A: Was the weather bad?
   B: No, it

38.4 Change the underlined adverbs to make these sentences more positive.
1 I thought they were very good. I thought they were incredibly good.
2 He’s been getting quite good marks in his exams.
3 It’s a pretty nice house.
4 John said the flat was very small.
5 They said it was fairly boring.
6 The clothes were very expensive.

38.5 Put a frequency adverb into each of these sentences to make a true sentence about yourself. Make sure you put the adverb in the correct place.
1 I buy clothes I don’t like.
2 I remember my dreams.
3 I give money to people in the street.
4 I clean my shoes.
5 I speak to strangers on buses and trains.
6 I lose things.

Now think about each of your answers to the above sentences. Do you think they are:

- fairly typical?
- slightly unusual?
- extremely unusual?

If possible, compare your answers with someone else.
Time and sequence

When/As soon as
I’ll phone my uncle when I get home.
As soon as I get home I’ll phone my uncle.
When you’ve finished this exercise you can go home.
You can go home as soon as you’ve finished this exercise.

The meaning is the same, but as soon as suggests it is more immediate. When and as soon as can be followed by the present tense or the present perfect [but not will].

Two things happening at the same time
Pat got ready while I cooked the dinner. [Two actions that need similar periods of time.]
The accident happened while I was on my way to work. [A longer action ‘on my way to work’ and a shorter action ‘the accident’. We can also use when or as here.]
I saw him (just) as I came out of the office. [For two short actions happening at the same time we use as, and we can add just for emphasis, e.g. He opened the door just as I rang the bell.]

One thing after another
We met the others in the café, and then/afterwards we went to the match.
I finished my homework, and after that/afterwards I played some computer games.
After my visit to New York, I decided to have a rest.
We had something to eat before we went out.

We can also follow before and after with an -ing form:
After visiting New York, I … We had something to eat before going out.

A sequence of actions
We had a great holiday. First of all we stayed in St Moritz. Then/After that we drove down the coast for a few days. Finally, we went back to Switzerland to visit friends.
- We can use afterwards instead of ‘after that’, and especially if one thing happens soon after another, e.g. We had a couple of drinks, then afterwards we went back to the flat.
- If something happens after a lot of time or problems, you can use eventually or in the end, in place of finally, e.g. The weather was bad and the traffic was awful, but eventually we got there.

A sequence of reasons
There are different combinations of words and phrases we can use here:

WORKER: Why can’t we buy the new photocopiers now?
MANAGER: First(ly) we haven’t got enough money. Second(ly) the new models are not available yet. And third(ly) the ones we have will be OK for at least six months.
- In spoken English we can start with for one thing, followed by and for another (thing).
  A: What’s wrong with that washing machine?
  B: Well, for one thing it’s too big to go in the space. And for another, it’s very noisy.
- For a second or final reason, we also use anyway in spoken English.
  We can’t go to that club because it’s too far. Anyway, I’m not a member.
Exercises

39.1 Underline the correct word(s) in brackets. Sometimes both answers are correct.
1 We can have lunch (when/as soon as) we’ve finished this.
2 I’ll give them your message as soon as I (get/will get) there.
3 Maria cleaned the kitchen (as/while) I did the bathroom.
4 We must go to that gallery before (leave/leaving).
5 I had problems at the shop but (eventually/finally) they gave me back my money.
6 The phone rang (while/just as) I was shutting the front door.
7 The letter arrived (while/just as) we were having lunch.
8 We spent the morning in the park and (after that/afterwards) we went home for lunch.

39.4 You spent a weekend at a hotel and had these problems:
• There was very little variety in the food.
• The service was very slow.
• When you mentioned this to the staff, they were very rude.

The manager was on holiday during your stay, so you have decided to send a letter of complaint. Write the next part of this letter and then look at the model answer for the whole letter on page 219.

Dear Sir,
I have just returned from a weekend break at The Royal Hotel, and I’m afraid it was not a very enjoyable stay. Firstly, ...
Addition and contrast

Also, as well, in addition
You can link two ideas in one sentence using and, e.g. The food is excellent and very good value. When we put this information in two sentences, we can use these link words.
The restaurant has excellent food. It’s also very good value.
The food is excellent in that restaurant. It’s very good value as well (or too).
You get very good food in that restaurant. What’s more, it’s open every day of the week.
The set menu is £15, which is excellent value. In addition, they give you a free glass of wine.

Although, despite, in spite of
When you contrast two ideas in one sentence, and the second idea is surprising or unexpected after the first, you can use these link words at the beginning or in the middle of the sentence.
She still won the game, although/though she had a bad knee.
Although/though some people were getting tired, we decided to carry on for a bit longer.
They went for a walk despite the fact that it was raining.
Despite having no money, he still seemed very happy.
They got there on time in spite of the delay.
In spite of all the problems, we still enjoyed the trip.

Despite/in spite of can be followed by a noun, an -ing form, or a clause beginning the fact that ...; although is only followed by a clause, e.g. Although she had ...

However
But contrasts two ideas in one sentence; however contrasts two ideas in two sentences. Though can be used in a similar way in spoken English, but it comes at the end of the clause.
I don’t agree with a lot of his methods. However, he is a good teacher.
We didn’t like the town that much. However, the hotel was wonderful.
I didn’t like the film at all. It was better than sitting at home, though.
They told us the shop was next to the station. We never found it, though.

Whereas, however
Whereas and however can contrast a fact or opinion about one person, place or thing, with something different about other people, places or things. The second fact is a contrast but not always a surprise. Notice that whereas contrasts two ideas in a single sentence.
Sarah is careful whereas Christopher makes lots of mistakes.
The south is hot and dry whereas the north gets a lot of rain.
Most big cats such as tigers like to live alone. Lions, however, spend a lot of time in groups.
Marcel said it was very interesting. However, most of them thought it was a fairly stupid film.
Exercises

40.1 Organise these words into two groups: words that link ideas with a similar meaning, and words that show a contrast between ideas.

although in addition whereas as well however also what’s more despite 40.2 Underline the correct word(s) in brackets. Both answers may be correct.

1 (Although/In spite of) we left late, we still got there in time.
2 It was a fantastic evening (although/in spite of) the terrible food.
3 We have decided to go (in spite of/ despite) the cost of the tickets.
4 They enjoyed the course, (although/whereas) it was very difficult.
5 I love the sea (what’s more/whereas) most of my friends prefer the mountains.
6 We’ve found a lovely villa near the lake. (In addition/What’s more) it has its own swimming pool, and we have free use of the owner’s car.
7 We told John the car was too expensive. (However/Although), he still bought it.
8 Most people tried to help us. They were very friendly (too/as well).
9 It’s busy during the week. At the weekend, (however/whereas), it’s very quiet.
10 My uncle owns the factory opposite. He (also/h owever) runs the restaurant next door.

Similarities, differences, comparisons, exceptions

Similarities
These are ways of saying that two or more things are similar, or have something the same.
Peter is like his brother/similar to his brother in many ways. (= they are the same in many ways)
Tom and Mark are very similar.
We have similar taste in music/art/etc. (= we like the same music/art/etc.)
There is a similarity between them.
Maria and Rebecca both passed their exams. (= Maria passed and Rebecca passed)
But neither wants to go to university. (= Maria doesn't want to go and Rebecca doesn't want to go)
I really like my cousin, and we have a lot in common. (= we have many of the same interests)

Differences
His early films are very different from his later ones.
The two brothers are completely different. (= different in every way)
Paula is quite unlike (= completely different from) her sister.
They have nothing in common. (= they have no hobbies, interests or beliefs that are the same)

Comparisons
When we compare two or more things, we study them to see how they are similar or different.

We want to compare the prices before we decide which one to buy.
If you compare this one with the others, I'm sure you'll see a difference.
House prices in the north are very low in comparison with London and the south.
Our new flat is very big compared with/to our old one. (= if you compare it with/to our old one)

Exceptions
An 'exception' is when we make a general statement about things or people and then say that one thing or person is not included, or is different from the others.

It snowed everywhere except (= but not) the west coast.

The museum is open every day except/apart from Sunday(s).
Everyone heard the fire alarm except/apart from the two boys in room 7.
We all agreed it was a good idea with the exception of George - but he always disagrees.
'Except' and 'apart from' have a similar meaning, but 'except' is more common. 'Except' can also be followed by 'for'.
Except for a few tourists, the streets were empty.
Exercises

41.1 Fill the gaps with the correct preposition(s).

1. He's similar .................... my brother.

41.4 Complete these sentences about yourself and your country.

1. In my family, I think I am quite similar to .................. SIMILAR
2. I am .................. compared with the rest of my family.
3. In comparison with Britain, my country is ..................
4. I think Britain is very different from my country because ..................
Reason
I went home early because/as I was feeling a bit tired.
As I was feeling tired, I went home early. [We don’t usually start a sentence with ‘because’.]
I was feeling a bit tired, so I went home early. [This is very common in spoken English.]
The reason I went home early was that I was feeling tired.
We can also use because of, but with a different construction. Compare:
They go there because the weather is wonderful. [because + noun + verb]
They go there because of the wonderful weather. [because of + (adjective) + noun]
Due to means the same as because of, and is often used to explain the reason for a problem:
The plane was late due to bad weather. [Due to is often used after the verb ‘to be’.]

Purpose
A ‘purpose’ is an intention or reason for doing something:
The purpose of the meeting is to plan the timetable. (= the reason for the meeting is ...)
We often introduce a purpose using so (that) or in order to:
I bought this book so (that) I can improve my English.
They went home early (in order) to watch the match on television.
We moved house so (that) we could send our children to this school.
She went into town (in order) to do some shopping.

In spoken English, we often say so (without that) and to (without in order).
It is also common to use a modal verb, e.g. can or could, after so that.

Result
I left my ticket at home, so I had to buy another one.
They are a very big team and therefore they can get the best players.
I forgot to send the letters. As a result, no one knew about the meeting.
So is very common in spoken English, and usually links ideas in a single sentence.
Therefore is more formal, and can be used in a single sentence or to connect two sentences.
As a result is more common in written English, and usually connects ideas in two sentences.

Condition
You probably know if, but we also use other words to express conditions. Notice the tenses used.
We’ll be late unless we leave now. (= if we don’t leave now)
Unless the weather improves (= if the weather doesn’t improve), we won’t be able to go.
I have to go now, otherwise (= because if I don’t) I’ll miss the last bus.
You’ll have to turn up the music, otherwise (= because if you don’t) they won’t be able to hear it.
You can borrow it as long as you bring it back by Thursday. (= but you must bring it back)
You can wear what you like as long as you look smart. (= but you must look smart)
42.1 Combine the two sentences into one sentence using ‘so’, ‘so that’ or ‘because’. More than one answer is possible in some sentences.
1 I didn’t phone you. It was very late. I didn’t phone you because it was very late.
2 I turned up the radio in the lounge. I could hear it in the kitchen.
3 The restaurant was full. We went to the bar next door.

5 It’s a very large city. You have to use public transport a lot.
6 I learned to drive. My mother didn’t have to take me everywhere.

42.2 Rewrite these sentences using ‘because of’. Make any changes that are necessary.
1 He couldn’t play because his arm was broken. He couldn’t play because of his broken arm.
2 She got the job because her qualifications are excellent.
3 The weather was terrible, so we couldn’t eat outside.
4 She didn’t go to school because she had a bad cold.
5 The light was very bad, so the referee had to stop the game.
6 The traffic was very heavy; I was half an hour late.

42.3 Fill the gaps with ‘unless’, ‘otherwise’ or ‘as long as’.
1 I must write that letter now, ........................................ I’ll forget to do it.
2 I can meet you for dinner on Friday ...................................... I have to work late at the office.
3 We agreed to buy my daughter a dog ..................................... she takes it for a walk every day.
4 ........................................ there’s a problem, I won’t disturb you.
5 You can borrow my dictionary ........................................... you bring it back on Monday.

It was very cloudy in the morning, but then the sun came out (= appeared) in the afternoon. The accident happened in thick fog (= bad fog) on the motorway.

Rain

For light rain (= raining a bit) we can use drizzle, e.g. It was cloudy with a bit of drizzle. For heavy rain (= raining a lot) we often use pour, e.g. It’s pouring (with rain) outside. Rain for a short period of time is a shower, e.g. We had several showers today – some quite heavy.

Temperature

boiling  hot  warm  not very warm  cold  freezing
(= very hot)  (also chilly)  (= very cold)

A: How hot does it get in the summer?
B: It can reach about 35°. (= 35 degrees)
A: How cold does it get in the winter?
B: It often goes below 0. (= zero)

Wind

a breeze  a wind  a strong wind  a gale  a hurricane

A breeze is gentle and pleasant; a hurricane is over 100 km per hour and can be dangerous.

It was a hot day but there was a gentle breeze. The trees were damaged in the gale last night. Her hair was blowing in the wind. The hurricane destroyed many buildings.

Thunderstorms

A period of very hot weather is sometimes called a heatwave, and it often ends with a thunderstorm. First it becomes very humid (= when the air feels wet), then you get thunder and lightning, and finally very heavy rain. Afterwards, it is often cooler and feels fresher.

Animals and insects

Pets and farm animals
Many people keep pets (= own and look after domestic animals that live with people) in Britain.
The most common are dogs and cats, but people also keep mice (singular = a mouse), rabbits and goldfish.
Farm animals include: sheep, pigs, cows, horses, chickens and goats.

Wild animals
You will find these animals in a zoo or in the wild. (= living free, e.g. in parts of Africa)

Some animals that live in the wild are in danger of extinction (= they may not exist much longer), so it is important that we protect them. (= make sure they stay safe)

Insects

In the water, in the air and on the ground
Here are some creatures (= living things, e.g. animals and birds) that swim, fly or move along the ground (e.g. a snake).

I come from Argentina, so I am Argentinian and my first language is Spanish. The capital is Buenos Aires, which has a population of more than 10 million people.

Regions

There are some names for regions of the world that we often use.

Europe (e.g. Britain, Spain, etc.)
the Mediterranean (e.g. Italy, Spain, etc.)
the Far East (e.g. China, Japan, etc.)
the Middle East (e.g. Egypt, Iran, etc.)
the Caribbean (e.g. Jamaica, Trinidad, etc.)
South/Latin America (e.g. Brazil, Chile, etc.)

The people

When we are talking about people from a particular country, nationalities ending in ‘-i’ or ‘-i(an)’ can be made plural with an ‘s’, but most others are formed with the definite article (and no ‘s’).

2 What’s the total population?
3 What’s your first language?
4 What’s the capital city?

46.7 Write this sentence in three more different ways to make it more of a generalisation.

‘British people are polite.’ I think most British people are polite.
A  Parts of the body

The outer part of the body is covered in skin, e.g. Too much sun is bad for your skin.

B  Physical actions

People breathe through the nose or mouth, and breathe in and out 12-15 times a minute. People smile when they're happy, and sometimes smile at people to be polite. Funny things make people laugh — for example, when someone tells a joke. People sometimes cry if they're unhappy or receive bad news. They yawn when they're tired or bored. People in some countries nod their head to mean 'yes', and shake their head for 'no'.

C  Common expressions shake hands with somebody  bite your nails  fold your arms  blow your nose  comb your hair

Describing people's appearance

General descriptions

Positive: beautiful is generally used to describe women; handsome is used to describe men; good-looking and attractive are used for both. Pretty is another positive word to describe a woman (often a girl), meaning 'attractive and nice to look at'.

Negative: ugly is a very negative word; plain is negative but more polite.

Height and build tall and slim

medium height and build medium height and very muscular short and fat

Another word for slim is thin, but with a more negative meaning, e.g. John is lovely and slim, but his brother is very thin. It is not very polite to say someone is fat; overweight is a bit less rude.

Hair

blond(e) fair brown dark black straight wavy curly hair

Special features

The man on the left has very pale skin (= light skin). He also has broad shoulders, with a scar on his forehead. The other man has dark skin. He also has a beard and moustache.

Asking questions about a person’s appearance

Q: What does she look like?
A: She's tallish, with short fair hair.

Q: How tall is she?
A: About 1 metre 65.

Q: How much does she weigh?
A: I don’t know – roughly 50 kilos, I guess.

We can use about and roughly to mean 'more or less' when talking about height (= how tall someone is), weight (= how heavy is someone) or age. The suffix -ish can be used at the end of some adjectives to mean 'quite' and at the end of some numbers to mean 'more or less'.

She's got longish hair.
He's twentyish.
She's roughly 40.
Exercises

48.1 Complete these sentences in a suitable way. (More than one answer may be possible.)
1 He’s got very muscular arms.
2 She’s got blonde hair.
3 He’s got very pale skin.
4 They’ve both got curly hair.
5 I would say he was medium height.
6 Her brother has got very broad shoulders.
7 Last time I saw him he had grown a beard and a moustache.
8 Both men were very good-looking.

48.2 Replace the underlined word with a word which is more suitable or more polite.
1 He told me he met a handsome girl in the disco last night. beautiful
2 She’s beautiful but her younger sister is really quite ugly.
3 I think Peter is getting a bit fat, don’t you?
4 I think she’s hoping to meet a few beautiful men at the tennis club.
5 Paul is very thin.

48.3 You want to know about the following: someone’s general appearance; their height; their weight. What do you need to ask? Complete these questions.
1 What exactly? in what general way do you want to know about them?
2 How tall is she? How tall are they?
3 How much do you weigh? How much do they weigh?

48.4 Make these sentences less exact. Do it in a different way each time.
1 She’s 20. She’s 20, more or less. a little under or over 20
2 I’m 75 kilos. I’m pretty boy.
3 She’s 1 metre 70. She’s a little under or over 1.70 metres.
4 They’re both 30. or she’s a little under or over 30.

48.5 Now answer these questions.
1 How tall are you?
2 How would you describe your build?
3 How much do you weigh?
4 What kind of hair have you got?
5 What colour is it?
6 Would you like it to be different? If so, what else would you like to change about your appearance?
7 Do you think you have any special features?
8 Are there any special features you would like to have?
9 Do you like beards?
10 Can you think of a famous woman you would describe as beautiful, and a famous man you would describe as good-looking?

If possible, ask another person these questions.

What's he/she like?

He's very self-confident. (= feels he can do things, and is relaxed in social situations)
When you first meet her she seems shy. (= finds it difficult to talk to people and make conversation)
She doesn't show her feelings. (= you don't know what she is thinking or feeling)
He's got a great sense of humour. (= laughs a lot and sees the funny side of life)

Pride can be a positive feeling when you (or people you know) have done something well.
I'm not a great photographer, but I'm proud of my pictures because I taught myself.
He was very proud when his wife became the first president of the organisation.
Jealousy is a negative feeling of anger/unhappiness, often if someone you love shows a lot of interest in others, or if someone has something you want and don't have.
My boyfriend gets very jealous when I talk to other boys.
He's jealous of his sister because she's more intelligent.
Upset is a common adjective, and means unhappy, sad, and sometimes angry.
He was upset when they didn't invite him. She gets upset if you shout at her.

How do you feel?

I felt very sad when I left university and all my friends.
It was a great feeling when I finished all my exams.
She had mixed feelings (= not sure what to think or feel) about leaving her job.

Talking about family and friends

I’ve got two brothers and a sister. My brothers are twins (= two children born to one mother at the same time), and they are three years younger than me. I’m the oldest and I take after my father (= I am similar to him in appearance and/or character). My sister takes after my father in some ways, but she looks like my mother (= her appearance is similar to my mother’s). We’re a close family (= we have a good relationship/see each other a lot). My best friend Pete is an only child (= without brothers or sisters); he spends a lot of time with us and he’s almost one of the family.

Family names

Your parents give you a first name, e.g. James and Sarah are common first names in Britain. Your family name, usually called your surname, is the one that all the family have, e.g. Smith and Jones. Your full name is all the names you have, e.g. Sarah Jane Smith.

Changing times

In some parts of the world, couples may live together but do not get married. In this relationship they often call each other their partner. Where the child or children live(s) with just one parent, especially after the parents have separated (= they don’t live together any more), these are sometimes called single-parent families.

Friends

an old friend (= someone you have known for a long time) a close friend (= a good friend/someone you like and trust) your best friend (= the one friend you feel closest to) classmates (= other people in your class) flatmates (= people you share a house/flat with, who are not your family) colleagues (= people you work with; they may or may not be friends)

Ex-
We use this for a relationship that we had in the past but do not have now.
The children stay with my ex-husband at the weekend.
I saw an ex-girlfriend of mine at the disco last night.

   e in a small local hospital in 1972.
   f for six months.
   g just after the baby was born.
   h with another student doing medicine.
   i when she left school.

How many of the sentence beginnings on the left can you complete about your own life? Complete the ones you can.
Daily routines

Sleep
During the week I usually wake up at 6.30 am. I sometimes lie in bed (= stay in bed) for 5–10 minutes but then I have to get up (= get out of bed and put on clothes). Most evenings I go to bed about 11.30 pm, and usually go to sleep/fall asleep very quickly. If I have a late night (= go to bed very late; opp an early night), it’s easy to oversleep (= sleep too long) the next morning, then I may be late for work. If I can, I have a sleep (= for a short period, e.g. half an hour) in the afternoon. At weekends I often have a lie-in (= stay in bed until later, e.g. 9.30 am).

Food
In the week I have breakfast at 7.00 am, lunch at 1.00, and dinner around 7 pm. I also have one or two snacks (= food eaten between meals, e.g. a cake or biscuits) during the day. As I live alone/on my own (= without other people), I have to make my own breakfast and dinner (= prepare breakfast and dinner for myself), but during the week I don’t bother (= don’t make an effort) to cook very much. I also have to feed (= give food to) my cats twice a day.

Keeping clean
In the summer I have a shower in the morning, but in the winter I often have a bath instead (= in place of a shower). Sometimes I have a shave at the same time, or I shave when I have a wash and clean/brush my teeth after breakfast. I wash my hair two or three times a week.

English often uses a verb + noun construction, where other languages may use a verb or reflexive verb, e.g. I had a wash (NOT I washed or I washed myself); I had a rest (NOT I rested or I rested myself).

Work
In the morning I leave home about 8.15 am and get to work (= arrive at work) by 9 am. I have a lunch break (= period when I stop work for lunch) from 1–2 pm, and usually a couple of short breaks (= periods to relax) during the day. I leave work around 5.30 and get home about 6.15.

Spare time (= free time)
In the week I usually stay in (= stay at home) and watch TV or read in the evening. At the weekend I go out (= leave the house for social reasons, e.g. go to a cinema or disco), but I also have friends for dinner (= invite friends to my house and cook dinner for them), or friends come round (= visit me at the house) to play cards, e.g. poker or bridge.

Housework
I do the shopping (= buy the food and household goods) on Saturday. Fortunately/Luckily (= it is lucky for me) I have a cleaner (= a person who cleans) and she does most of the housework: she does my washing (= washes my clothes), she does the washing-up (= washes the dishes) and most of the ironing.
Exercises

53.1 How many expressions with ‘have + noun’ from the opposite page can you remember?

have breakfast have a shower have have have have

53.2 Match the verbs on the left with the correct word on the right to form common partnerships.

1 do a rest
2 fall my teeth
3 have the dog
4 play asleep
5 go cards
6 clean the ironing
7 feed early
8 get up to bed

53.3 Complete this dialogue with a suitable word or phrase from the opposite page.

A: Don’t (1) ……bother…………. to cook a meal this evening.
B: Why not?
A: We could (2) …………………….. instead.
B: Yeah. Where?
A: Well, I’d like to go to that Korean restaurant. We could ask Karen and Mike to come.
B: That’s miles away. No, I think I’d rather (3) …………………….. and have an
(4) …………………….. night.
A: But it’s Friday. You can have a (5) …………………….. tomorrow if we have a late night.
B: Yes, I know, but I’m tired. Look, why don’t you ask Karen and Mike to
(6) …………………….. for a meal? I can order some pizzas from the takeaway and we’ll have a nice evening here. We can (7) …………………….. cards or watch a few videos.
A: Sorry, but if you don’t want to come with me, I’ll go (8) ……………………..

53.4 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

1 What time do you have the breakfast? 4 I live by my own.
2 In the morning I always let home at 8 o’clock. 5 I usually wash the hair every day.
3 I didn’t shave me this morning. 6 I went to bed and slept very quickly.

53.5 Complete the phrasal verb in these sentences.

1 I usually wake …………… around 7.30, and then get …………… about 8.
2 During the week I usually stay …………… , but at the weekend I always go ……………
3 Sometimes friends come …………… to the house and we play cards.

53.6 Find three facts from the opposite page which are similar to your routine, and three that are different. Complete the table below.

The place where you live

Location
I live on the outskirts of town. (= on the edge of town, near the country)
I live in the suburbs. (= areas where people live outside the centre of town)
I live in a residential area. (= a nice area of houses/flats, with no factories)
I live quite close to the station. (= near the station)
I live right in the centre. (= exactly in the centre)

Houses
- roof
- chimney
- doorbell
- front door
- garage
- fence
- gate
- path
- front garden

Flats
- my flat
- balcony
- steps
- my brother's flat

I live in a block of flats. My brother lives on the ground floor, and I have a flat on the third floor. Unfortunately there is no lift, so I have to climb (= go up/walk up) three flights of stairs to reach my flat. But I have a balcony with a great view of the park opposite the building.

Steps are outside a house or inside a public building. Stairs connect floors inside a house or building and are often covered with a carpet.

Describing the place where you live
My parents own their house (= they bought it/it belongs to them), but I rent a flat near my university (= I don’t own it; I pay money every week to the owner). The rooms are tiny (= very small, opp huge/enormous), but they’re light (opp dark) because they’re on the top floor and get lots of sun. The flats on the ground floor are dark and also noisy (opp quiet) because they’re nearer the traffic. Some rooms are draughty (= cold air comes in through windows and under doors), and are expensive to heat (= keep warm); but I’ve got central heating (= system of heating every room in a building) and the flat is in good condition.
Exercises

54.1 What can you remember about the house and block of flats on the opposite page? Answer these questions without looking.
1 Does the house have a garage?
2 Does it have a fence at the front?
3 Is the gate open or shut?
4 Does each flat have a balcony?
5 Does the brother live on the first floor?
6 Do the flats have a view of a school and offices?

54.2 Complete these sentences with a suitable word.
1 I walked up to the house and rang the ..........................................
2 She lives ........................................... the second floor.
3 We had to ........................................... six flights of stairs to get to her flat because the ........................................... wasn’t working.
4 I’ve got a great ........................................... from my balcony.
5 You have to walk up some ........................................... to reach the entrance to the building.
6 Do you own the flat or do you ......................... it?
7 I’m living in the house now but it actually ........................................... to my brother. He bought it two years ago. It was in very bad ........................................... then, but he spent a lot of money on it.
8 It costs a lot of money to ........................................... a house when you live in a cold climate.
   Central ........................................... is usually quite expensive.

54.3 Write down four more positive things and four more negative things about a house or flat. When you have finished, compare your answers with section D opposite.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>positive</th>
<th>negative</th>
</tr>

Now think about your answers again. Which positive features are the most important for you? Which negative features do you dislike the most?

54.4 What about your home? Answer these questions.
1 Do you live in a house or flat?
2 If you live in a flat, what floor is it on?
3 If you live in a house, do you have a garden?
4 Does the house/flat belong to you (or your family), or do you rent it?
5 Do you have your own garage or personal parking space?
6 Would you describe your house/flat as dark or light?
7 Is it noisy or quiet?
8 Do you have central heating?
9 Is it near the centre, in the suburbs, or on the outskirts?
10 Is it in a quiet residential area?
Around the home (1)

Rooms
The living room or lounge (= where you sit, relax and watch TV); the dining room; the kitchen; the bedroom(s); and the bathroom(s). Some people have a study (= room with a desk where you work) and a spare room (= room you don’t use every day, and where guests can sleep). The entrance area in a house or flat is called the hall.

The living room

While the cat was asleep in the armchair, I sat on the sofa and had a look at the paper. Then I turned on the TV to watch the news.

The kitchen

I put the meat in the oven, then I made myself a coffee and put the milk back in the fridge. After that, I put some cups and saucers in the dishwasher.
Exercises

55.1 Complete the descriptions. (There may be more than one possible answer.)
1 The bedroom, that's where you …………………………………………
2 The kitchen, that's where you do the ………………………………
3 The bathroom, that's where you have a ……………………………… and ………………………………
4 The living room, that's where you ……………………………… and ………………………………
5 The dining room, that's where you ………………………………
6 A spare room, that's often where ………………………………

55.2 You are in the kitchen. Where would you put:
1 biscuits and a packet of spaghetti? ……………………………… in a cupboard
2 milk?
3 meat that you are going to cook?
4 dirty clothes?
5 dirty cups and saucers?
6 clean cups and saucers?
7 frozen food that you want to keep?

55.3 Here are some things you may find in the living room or kitchen but the letters are jumbled. What are they, and which room do you usually find them in?
Example sekd  desk (living room) skin  nacitusr  rapct  shadriswhe  teklet faos  veon  digref  hiamcerar  acepasnu

55.4 Complete these sentences with the correct adverb or preposition.
1 Shall I put the plates ……………………………… the cupboard?
2 I took the ham ……………………………… of the fridge, made a sandwich, then put the rest of it ……………………………… in the fridge.
3 We tend to sit in the same places – me ……………………………… the sofa and my husband ……………………………… the armchair.
4 I didn't have anything to do, so I turned ……………………………… the TV.
5 You normally cook the meat ……………………………… the oven for 45 minutes.
6 I took a few things ……………………………… of the cupboard and put them ……………………………… the table.

55.5 You have just moved into a new flat. For the first six months you can only have six of the following. Which would you choose, and why? Compare with someone else if possible.
Example I would certainly choose a cooker – I can't eat cold food all the time.

sofa  carpets  dishwasher  TV cooker  curtains  fridge  desk
CD player  bed  dining table  washing machine kettle  saucepans  food processor  armchair

55.6 Write down:
• three things in the lounge or kitchen you can turn on/off
• three things in the kitchen you wash regularly
• two things in the lounge or kitchen you can sit on
• two things you can use to boil water
A The bedroom

I put on my pyjamas, got into bed, and read a book for half an hour. Then I set the alarm clock, switched off the light and went to sleep.

B The bathroom

I didn’t have time for a bath, but I had a wash, cleaned my teeth, and then I went to work.

C Housework

My room is very tidy (= everything in order), but my brother is very untidy – he leaves his clothes all over the floor (= everywhere) and never makes his bed. The room is a complete mess. (= very untidy)

I do the washing-up (= wash the dishes) every evening, and I normally do some washing and ironing (= wash and iron clothes) at the weekend. I hoover the carpets once a week.
Exercises

56.1 Find the correct ending on the right for each of the sentence beginnings on the left, then put the sentences in the most logical order.

1 I cleaned the light
2 I went into bed
3 I set a wash
4 I switched off my teeth
5 I had to sleep
6 I put on the alarm clock
7 I got my pyjamas

56.2 The pictures show six things the man did this morning. Complete the sentences below.

1 He did the shopping.
2 He ..............................................
3 He ..............................................
4 .............................................. 4 He ..............................................
5 He ..............................................
6 He ..............................................

56.3 How often do you do the things in 56.2? Complete these sentences about yourself.

1 I often/sometimes/never ..............................................
2 I ..............................................
3 I ..............................................
4 I ..............................................
5 I ..............................................
6 I ..............................................

56.4 Test your memory. Cover the opposite page and answer these questions about the pictures.

1 Does the alarm clock show 11.30?
2 Does the bed have one pillow or two?
3 Is the wardrobe open?
4 How many drawers does the chest of drawers have?
5 Is the woman in the bathroom holding a towel?
6 Is the shower above the bath?

56.5 How well do you know your own home? Answer these questions as quickly as possible.

1 Have you got a mirror above the washbasin in the bathroom?
2 Have you got a towel rail on the same wall as the washbasin?
3 Is the toilet next to the bath/shower?
4 Have you got a wardrobe and chest of drawers in your bedroom?
5 Have you got a lamp on your bedside table?
6 Have you got an alarm clock?
Everyday problems

There's something wrong with ...

We use these expressions when there is a problem with machines and other things we use.

There's something wrong with the TV. (= there is a problem with it)
The light isn't working. (= not functioning/there is no light)
The light's not working properly. (= it is functioning but not very well)
The telephone is out of order. (= not in use/not functioning)

You often see a notice saying out of order on a public machine or piece of equipment that isn't working, e.g. pay phone, public toilet, etc. At home we usually say it isn't working.

In the home

Paul had a lot of problems yesterday.

He dropped a cup and it broke.

He got another cup, made some coffee, and then spilt it.

His shirt now has a large stain on it [see picture], and it is ruined. (= he can't wear it again, it has no use)

Then he decided to make some toast. He burnt the first piece (if you burn something, you damage it with heat or fire), then he realised he'd run out of bread (= the bread was finished/there was no more bread). He left home hungry and in a bad mood. (= angry and unhappy; opp in a good mood)

Out and about

After Paul went out, things got worse (= his situation became worse/there were more problems). He was late, and he missed the bus (= the bus came and went before he got to the bus stop), so he had to walk. That made him even later. He started running, but he fell over and cut himself [see picture]. Later, when he got to school, he realised he'd lost some money and left his English book at home. (= forgotten his books)

NOTE
You can say, 'I forgot my book', but if you say where this happened, you must use the verb 'leave', e.g. I left my homework on the bus. (NOT I forgot my books on the bus.)
Exercises

57.1 Complete the past tense and past participle of these verbs.

57.2 Match the sentence beginnings on the left with the correct endings on the right.

1. I lost my credit card
   a. when I lit that cigarette.
2. I'm afraid I've run out
   b. and had to wait ages for another.
3. I'm afraid I left
   c. and it has stained the carpet.
4. I dropped my radio on the floor
   d. and all my money.
5. I spilt my coffee
   e. to bring my money.
6. I missed the bus
   f. my money at home.
7. I burnt myself
   g. and now it doesn't work properly.
8. I forgot
   h. of coffee. Would you like tea?

57.3 This is what happened when Anna had a party at her house. Write a description of the damage.

3.

57.4 Write a logical explanation for each question, using vocabulary from the opposite page.

1. Why can't we watch TV?
   It isn't working.
2. How did you break that wine glass?
3. How did you cut your knee like that?
4. I'm cold. What's wrong with the central heating?
5. What happened to the money I gave you?
6. Where's your homework?
7. What's wrong with this radio?
8. Why can't you use the public phone in the station?

57.5 Answer the questions using 'often/occasionally/hardly ever/never'. How often do you:

- drop things?
- break things?
- burn things?
- spill things?
- lose things?
- forget things?
- fall over?
- leave things somewhere?
- run out of things?
Money

Notes and coins
In the UK the currency (= type of money used) is sterling; in America it is the dollar; in much of Europe it’s the euro.

Common verbs

spend £££ on (sth)
Last week I spent £100 on food, and £20 on books.

pay £££ (for sth)
I paid £200 for my new desk. (= it cost me £200)

cost
My new desk cost (me) £200. (= I paid £200 for it)

charge
They charged me (= told me to pay) £10 to repair my watch.

lend and borrow
Could you lend me some money? or Could I borrow some money?

waste £££ (on sth)
Parents often think that children waste their money (= use it badly) on sweets and other things they don’t need.

save (up) (for sth)
I’m saving (up) (= keeping some of my money when I receive it) for my holiday – I’m hoping to go to Greece.

Adjectives
These are all used to describe the price of something (= the amount of money you have to pay for sth), e.g. This watch was cheap; the hotel was reasonable; my suit was quite expensive, etc.

Talking money

I can’t afford (= don’t have enough money) to go on holiday this year.

A: How much is that watch worth? (= What is its value?)
B: It’s worth about £50.

The cost of living (= how much people pay for things) is high in Sweden and Norway, but people still have a good standard of living. (= the level of money and comfort people have)

His car cost a fortune (= was very expensive), but he can afford it; he’s well-off. (= rich)
58.1 Fill the gaps using the past tense of verbs from the box. Be careful, most of them are irregular.

1. My car was five years old, so I ______________________ it and ______________________ a new one.
2. I was very sad when I ______________________ my watch because it was a present from my wife and it ______________________ her a lot of money. Fortunately, somebody ______________________ it a few days later and took it to a police station.
3. I ______________________ over £2,000 for my computer, but it isn’t worth very much now.
4. My father ______________________ me £50 last week but I ______________________ most of it on Friday when I went to the concert.
5. Last week somebody ______________________ £1 million in a game show on television. It was quite exciting.
6. I’m afraid I ______________________ my money on those computer games – I don’t think I’ve played them more than once.

58.2 Complete the sentences without using the underlined words and phrases. Don’t change the meaning.

Example You want to tell a friend that your uncle is very rich.

My uncle is very well-off.

1. You want to know the value of your friend’s gold ring. You ask:
   How much is your _______________________

2. A friend wants to go to a restaurant but you don’t have enough money. You say:

   How much _______________________

5. You want to explain to someone that a disco is incredibly expensive. You say:
   That disco _______________________

58.3 How quickly can you answer these questions, YES or NO? Write down answers to all of them, then go back and check. If possible, ask someone else the same questions.

1. Is the currency in America called the dollar?
2. Is a five-pound note worth less than a 50p coin?
3. If you lend something to someone, do they borrow it?
4. If you waste money, do you use it well?
5. Is the ‘euro’ a currency?
6. If you ‘can’t afford’ something, do you have enough money for it?
7. Does ‘cost of living’ mean the same as ‘standard of living’?
8. If someone tells you a hotel is reasonable, is it very expensive?

58.4 Write down the approximate price of six things in your country, e.g. a daily newspaper, a short bus journey, a cup of coffee in a bar/cafés, a ticket for the cinema, a takeaway burger, a pair of jeans, etc. Do you think the price is expensive, reasonable, cheap? Compare with someone else if possible.
Common problems

A: I don't feel well.
B: What's the matter?
A: I've got a sore throat and I keep sneezing.
B: Oh, you've probably got a cold or flu.
You should go to bed.
A: Yes, I think I will.

She's sneezing. She's coughing. She's got a sore throat.

She's blowing her nose. She's got a temperature.

</tbody>
</table>

For these illnesses, you can go to a doctor or a chemist (= pharmacy). The doctor may give you a prescription (= paper with an order for medicine) that you get from the chemist.

Aches and pains

We use the noun ache for toothache, stomachache, backache, earache and a headache. For other parts of the body we use pain. With both nouns, we often use the verb get.

I've got a terrible headache. (= a bad headache) I often get backache.
I woke up with a terrible pain in my chest. I get a pain in my leg when I run.

Ache is also a verb, describing a pain which continues for a long time but is not strong. By the end of the day, my feet were aching.

Hurt is common as a verb, used to describe a pain which is stronger or more sudden. My throat hurts when I speak. Where does it hurt? (= Where is the pain?)

The most common adjective is painful.

A: Did it hurt when you had the fillings? (= when the dentist fills a hole/cavity in the tooth)
B: It was quite painful when she gave me the injection.

Serious illnesses

Smoking is a major cause of lung cancer.
He had a heart attack and died almost immediately.
Hepatitis is a disease affecting the liver.
Many people suffer from (= have the illness of) asthma. (= chest illness causing breathing problems)

The verb hurt is often used to describe the pain from injuries. It has different structures:
I hurt my back in the garden. She hurt herself when she fell over.
I hit my leg against the table and it really hurts. (= it's a bad pain)

Hospital treatment
John fell out of the window and hit his head on the ground. His wife called an ambulance but John was still unconscious when it arrived. He was rushed to hospital (= taken to hospital very quickly) and when he came round (= became conscious), he didn't know where he was.

Two players jumped for the ball and bumped into each other (= hit each other but it was an accident). One cut his head and had to go to hospital. He needed ten stitches.

Wounds and injuries
Wound and injury describe damage to the body, but a wound is usually caused by a weapon (e.g. gun or knife) and happens in fights and wars. The verbs are wound and injure.

He was seriously (= badly) injured in a car crash.
Two of the soldiers were wounded.
Someone shot him (with a gun).
He got into a fight and he was beaten up.
Exercises

60.1 Check the pronunciation of these words in the Index (especially the underlined letters). Practise saying them.

injury  blood  bandage  unconscious wound  swollen  bruise  weapon

60.3 Look at the pictures and write the story.

Now compare your story with the story about John on the opposite page.

60.4 Match the wounds/injuries on the left with the results on the right.

1. He hit his head on the door.    a. It's swollen and it hurts when he walks.
2. He bruised his leg.             b. He was beaten up quite badly.
3. He broke his leg.               c. It's very painful.
4. He cut his finger.              d. He's got a big bruise on it.
5. He burnt himself.              e. It's still bleeding.
6. He got into a fight.            f. He won't be able to walk for six weeks.

60.5 Answer these questions about yourself. If the answer is 'yes', when did it happen? How? How did you feel? If possible, ask another person the same questions.

1. Have you ever broken your arm or leg?
2. Have you ever needed stitches?
3. Have you ever been unconscious?
4. Have you ever been in an ambulance?
5. Have you ever got into a fight?
Clothes

Pockets, buttons, collar, sleeves

For 'buttons' and 'zips', we usually use the verbs do up and undo.
Do up your jacket before you go out. I can't undo these buttons – my hands are too cold.

B

Verbs and phrases used with clothes

The following text shows common verbs and phrases in an everyday context.
I got up at 7.30, had a shower, got dressed (= put on my clothes), and had breakfast.
It was a cold morning so I put on my coat and left home about 8.20. When I got to work I took my coat off and hung it up behind the door. It was hot in the office, so I took my jacket off as well. During my lunch break I had a look round the shops. I saw a nice jacket in one place and tried it on, but it didn't fit me – it was too small and they didn't have the right size. When I got home I took off my suit and changed into jeans and a T-shirt.

'Too' + adjective and adjective + 'enough'

The man on the right is wearing a suit but it doesn't fit him very well – the jacket is too small (= not big enough), and the trousers are too short. (= not long enough)
Exercises

61.1 Finish this sentence with five more different items of clothing.

I need a pair of trousers.

61.2 Put these sentences in a logical order. The first one has been done for you.

a He took off his jeans.
b He put his shoes back on.
c He tried on the trousers.
d He went into the changing room. 1
e He took them off.
f He paid for the trousers.
g He took off his shoes.
h He went back to the sales assistant.

Food

A Fruit

You normally peel oranges and bananas (= remove the skin) before you eat them.

B Vegetables

I peeled the potatoes and chopped the carrots. (= cut into small pieces)

C Salad

A salad is usually a mixture of uncooked vegetables. In Britain it often contains lettuce, but may also contain tomato, cucumber, and other things. We often put salad dressing (usually a mixture of oil and vinegar, or oil and lemon juice) on salad.

D Meat (animals), fish and seafood

NOTE
A person who does not eat meat is a vegetarian.

animal: cow calf (= young cow) lamb (= young sheep) pig chicken meat: beef veal lamb pork chicken salmon prawn oyster mussels lobster crab

City life

Buildings and places
Here are some of the things you will find in most towns and cities.
commercial centre (= area with lots of banks and company offices) shopping centre (= place with many shops, either indoors or outdoors) car parks (= places to leave many cars) factories (= buildings where you make/ manufacture things, e.g. cars) skyscrapers/high-rise buildings (= buildings with many floors) libraries (= places where you can borrow books) suburbs (= areas outside the centre of town where people live)

People on the move
For many people, the worst time of day is the rush hour (= the time when people travel to and from work, e.g. 7–9 in the morning). At this time of day the public transport system (= trains and buses) has to cope with (= manage something which is difficult) the people who live in the city, and also commuters (= people who live in the country but travel into the city for work). The roads get congested (= busy and full of cars) and people are always in a hurry (= want to get to another place very quickly). For many, this is very stressful. (= makes you nervous and anxious)

Going out (= going to places for social reasons)
I live and work in the suburbs, but I usually go into town (= the town centre) two or three times a week. In the evening, it is pretty lively (= lots of people and lots of things happening), and there’s plenty to do (= lots of possibilities, e.g. bars, discos, etc.). One problem is that there’s nowhere to park in the centre, so I usually get/take a bus into town and take/get a taxi home if I’m late.

There are many common phrases using this construction: there’s plenty to do; there’s nothing to do; there’s plenty to see; there’s nowhere to go; there’s nowhere to park, etc.

Advantages and disadvantages
'The best thing about living in a city is that:'
There’s good nightlife. (= places to go at night, e.g. bars, discos, cinemas)
There’s a wide range of shops. (= many shops selling different things)
You can get whatever you want. (= buy everything and anything you want)
There are lots of cultural activities. (e.g. museums, concerts, films)
It’s cosmopolitan. (= full of people from many different countries and cultures)
There are more job opportunities. (= easier to find work)

'The worst thing about living in a city is that:'
It’s very crowded. (= full of people)
People are more aggressive. (= seem angry and very unfriendly)
It can be noisy (opp quiet) and dangerous. (opp safe)
The streets are often dirty (opp clean) and it’s polluted. (= dirty air)
There’s traffic congestion (= too many cars) and parking is difficult.
There’s a high crime rate. (= number of crimes)
You have a higher cost of living. (e.g. houses are more expensive, so is transport)
Exercises

65.1 Combine words from the left and right to form common compound words and phrases.
1 rush a building
2 traffic b life cost c rate d hour e park
f of living
g congestion h centre

65.2 Complete the dialogues in a suitable way. Each gap is one word.
1 A: The town is full of people from different countries and cultures.

65.5 Do you live in a big town or city? If so, answer questions 1a-b. If not, answer 2a-b.
1a For me, the best thing about living in a big town/city is that ____________________________.
1b The worst thing about living in a big town/city is that ____________________________.
2a For me, the best thing about not living in a big town/city is that ____________________________.
2b The worst thing about not living in a big town/city is that ____________________________.
Life in the country

Surrounded by nature
I grew up (= spent my childhood) in a rural area (= an area in the country; opp an urban area). It was quite a remote area (= an area far from towns), and we lived in an old cottage (= a type of house, often small, you find in the country). My sister and I played a lot in the woods (= an area of trees like a small forest), not far from the nearest village (= a place smaller than a town). I loved being in the country. (NOT I loved to be in the nature.)

Working in the country
A lot of land in the country/countryside (both words are used) is used for agriculture/farming. Some farms grow crops (e.g. wheat, apples and potatoes) and some keep animals (e.g. cows, sheep and pigs). When I was younger, I worked on a farm during my school holidays.

Advantages and disadvantages
'The best thing about living in the country is that:'
You get peace and quiet. (a common phrase to describe a place that is quiet and calm)
You get fresh air. (= air outside a building or town which is clean)
You're surrounded by lovely scenery and you can walk in the countryside.
The pace of life (= the amount of activity in life) is slower and more relaxed.

'The worst thing about living in the country is that:
There isn't much nightlife.
Public transport (= buses and trains) is hopeless. (= terrible)
You don't get many shops.
There isn't much privacy (= private life) because everyone knows what you are doing.

Can you add more things to each list?
On the road

Road features

- traffic lights
- junction
- a bend in the road (this road bends to the right)
- pedestrian crossing (= where people can cross the road)

An accident

There was an accident on one of the main roads into town this morning. A lorry [see picture] broke down (= stopped because of a problem) in the middle of the road. It was eight o'clock, a busy time, and with the lorry blocking the road (= stopping things from moving in the road), there was soon a long tailback (= long line of cars that cannot move). One man in a Mercedes pulled out (= moved out to the centre of the road) to go round the lorry, but another car was coming in the opposite direction. The driver braked (= put his foot on the brake to stop the car), but he couldn't prevent the accident (= stop it happening) – the Mercedes crashed into the front of his car. The driver of the Mercedes was OK, but the other driver was badly injured and both cars were badly damaged.

Giving directions

Go along here, turn right into the main road, then take the first turning on your left. Keep going (= continue in this direction), then turn left again when you get to (= reach/arrive at) the bank.

Common words and phrases

Cars and buses use the road; pedestrians (= people who walk) use the pavement. Cars mustn't park on the pavement.

The speed limit on motorways in Great Britain is 70 mph (120 kph). The police use speed cameras to catch people who are speeding/breaking the speed limit. (= going too fast)

Most petrol stations (= places where you buy petrol) in Great Britain are self-service. (= there are no people to put the petrol in your car; you serve yourself and then pay)

The other car was going very slowly, so I decided to overtake it. (= pass it on the outside)
Exercises

67.1 Complete the text using the map on the right.

Go (1) ___________ along this road and turn left at the (2) ___________. Then you (3) ___________ ___________ and (4) ___________ right when you (5) ___________ to the (6) ___________. Then (7) ___________ ___________ again into (8) ___________ Road, and the bank is (9) ___________ the left just (10) ___________ the cinema.

67.2 Fill the gaps with the correct word.

1. It was quite a serious ___________; both drivers were taken to hospital.
2. Almost all the petrol stations round here are self-___________.
3. One driver was badly ___________ in the crash, and both cars were badly ___________.
4. There were four or five cars involved in the accident and it ___________ the road for about half an hour. When I got there, the ___________ was already about two miles long, and drivers were getting very frustrated.
5. The bicycle hit me just as I stepped off the ___________ to cross the road.
6. My car ___________ ___________ on the motorway and I had to phone a garage to come and fix it.
7. I was doing about 120 kph and then this car ___________ me doing about 160.
8. I couldn’t stop quickly enough, and I ___________ into the back of the car in front.
9. Cars, motorbikes and bikes can’t go down there – it’s only for ___________.

67.3 Many road signs are international. Do you know or can you guess what these mean?

1. You can’t ___________.
2. 50 mph* is the ___________.
3. You can’t ___________.
4. There is only one ___________.
5. End of ___________.
6. Car ___________.
7. Traffic ___________.
8. Low ___________.
9. Road ___________.

*mp h = miles per hour (50 mph = 80 kph approximately) 67.4 Answer these questions about your own country. If possible, compare with someone else.

1. Do you have a speed limit on motorways? If so, what is it?
2. How many lanes do motorways usually have?
3. Do drivers usually stop for pedestrians at pedestrian crossings?
4. Are most petrol stations self-service, or do people serve you?
5. Do many people park their cars on the pavement?
6. Do you have speed cameras at the side of the road?
Transport

Vehicles

Vehicle is the general word for all types of road transport.

A: How did you get here?
B: I came by bus.
A: And the others?
B: Sue and John came by car.
A: And Paul?
B: He missed the bus, so he had to get a taxi.

NOTE

We can say: I go to work on my bike (bicycle), or I cycle to work.

Trains

These are things train passengers (= people who travel by train) often say or ask:
Single to Edinburgh, please. (= a ticket to Edinburgh)
Return to Bath, please. (= a ticket to Bath and back)
Does this train go to (= take me to) Oxford?
Do I have to change? (= change to another train)
Is it a fast train or a stopping train?
A: Which platform for Liverpool?
B: Number three.
A: And when is the train due to arrive? (= timetabled to arrive)

Buses

Sometimes buses are punctual (= arrive at the correct time), but not always. Where I live, buses should run (= travel/operate) every ten minutes, but sometimes I wait at the bus stop for half an hour in a queue (= line of people), and then three buses come together, and they’re all full up. (= full of people) Other times the bus is early and I miss it. (= I don’t catch it)

Taxis

Taxis show what you have to pay on the meter. When you want the driver to stop, you can say this: Could you drop me here? (= Could you stop here?) People often give taxi drivers a tip (= extra money as well as the fare). For example, if the fare is £8.40, you can give the driver £9.
68.1 Underline the correct word in brackets in these sentences.
1 You mustn't (ride/drive) a motorbike without a crash helmet in the UK.
2 She told him to (get in/get on) the car and fasten his seat belt.
3 The bus (fare/ticket) is cheaper than the train.
4 Trains to the airport (travel/run) every half hour.
5 The pilot couldn't (drive/fly) the plane in such bad weather.
6 Have a look at the train (schedule/timetable) to see when the next one is due.
7 We were late, so we had to (get/catch) a taxi.
8 They left a bit late and (lost/missed) the bus.

68.2 Write down two different words that can combine with each of the words below.
Example miss the bus the train
1 .......................................................... fare  3 .......................................................... station  5 .......................................................... get in
2 .......................................................... get on  4 .......................................................... driver  6 .......................................................... journey

68.3 Write the names of these vehicles without looking at the opposite page.

68.4 Fill the gaps with the correct word.
1 Our train leaves from ................................ seven in ten minutes.
2 I waited at the ................................ for ten minutes, and then two buses arrived at the same time.
3 I couldn't get on the first bus because it was ..................................
4 After we took off, the ................................ told us a bit about the plane and the journey.
5 Buses are not very ................................. Sometimes they come every five minutes, then other times you have to wait for 40 minutes.
6 When I got to the bus stop there was a long ................................ of people.
7 The flight was fine but we had a terrible ................................ from the airport to our hotel.
8 I think the next train is ................................ to arrive in about ten minutes.

68.5 Are these statements true or false in your country?
1 Trains are more punctual than buses.
2 Train fares are more expensive than bus fares.
3 Train journeys are more interesting than bus journeys.
4 Railway stations are nicer places than bus stations.
5 In city centres, taxis are quicker than going in your own car.
Work: duties, pay and conditions

What do you do?

People may ask you about your job. They can ask and you can answer in different ways:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What do you do?</th>
<th>I'm a banker/an engineer/a builder. (I'm + 'a(n)' + job)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What's your job?</td>
<td>I work in a bank/marketing. (work in + place or type of work)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What do you do for a living?</td>
<td>I work for UnionBank/Fiat. (work for + name of company)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(= I'm employed by Union Bank/Fiat, etc.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>I'm self-employed. (= I work for myself.)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What does that involve?

When people ask you to explain your job, they want to know your responsibilities (= your duties/what you have to do), or something about your daily routine (= what you do every day). They can ask like this: What does that involve? (= What do you do in your job?)

General duties/responsibilities

I'm in charge of/responsible for security in the factory. (= the place where a product is made)

I deal with/handle customer complaints. (= take all necessary action when customers are unhappy)

I run the coffee bar in the museum. (= I am in control of it/I manage it)

Daily duties/routines

I have to go/to attend (fml) a lot of meetings.

I visit/see/meet clients. (= people I do business with, who pay for my service)

I advise clients. (= give them help and my opinion)

My job involves travelling. [Notice the -ing form after involve.]

Working hours

For many people in Britain, working hours are 8.30–9.00 am to 5.00–5.30 pm, so people often talk about a nine-to-five job (= regular working hours). Some people do flexitime (= they can start work earlier or finish later); and some do shiftwork (= work at different times, e.g. during the day one week, at night the next). Some people work/do overtime. (= work extra hours for more money)

Pay and conditions

Most workers are paid (= receive money) every month. This is called a salary. We can also use the verbs earn/make, e.g. I earn/make $60,000 a year. (= My salary is $60,000 a year.)

Some people are paid for the hours they work. The lowest amount for one hour's work is called the minimum wage. This amount is decided by the government.

With most jobs you get 4–6 weeks' paid holiday; you also get sick pay. (= pay when you are ill)

The total amount of money you receive in a year is called your income. This could be your salary from one job, or the salary from two different jobs. You have to pay part of your income to the government; this is called income tax.
Exercises

69.1 Match words on the left and right to form compound nouns or phrases.
1 nine-to-               a time
2 working               b tax
3 flexi-                c wage
4 income                d five
5 minimum               e hours

69.2 Match the verbs on the left with the nouns on the right. Use each verb once only.
1 earn                  a overtime
2 work                  b meetings
3 deal with             c a shop
4 attend                d complaints
5 run                   e £2,000 a month

69.3 Rewrite these sentences starting with the words given. The meaning must stay the same.

Example: I’m a banker.

I work in banking.

1 What do you do?
   What’s ..................................................

2 I’m employed by the government.
   I work ..................................................

3 I earn $50,000.
   My ..................................................

4 I get £20,000 from my teaching job and another £10,000 from writing.
   My total ..................................................

5 In my job I look after all the computers in the building.
   My job involves ..........................................

6 I’m responsible for one of the departments.
   I’m in ..................................................

69.4 This is part of a conversation with a teacher about her job. Write the missing questions.

A: ..................................................?  B: I start at nine and finish at four.
A: ..................................................?  B: Yes, a bit. On certain courses I work until 5.30.
A: ..................................................?  B: 12 weeks. That’s one of the good things.
A: ..................................................?  B: Yes, we do, but we have to have a doctor’s note.

69.5 What about working conditions in your country?

1 What are normal working hours for most office jobs in your country?
2 How much income tax do most people pay, e.g. 10% or 20% of what they earn?
3 Do workers normally get paid holidays? If so, how many days do they usually get?
4 Is there a minimum wage decided by the government? If so, how much is it?
5 What jobs often involve shiftwork in your country? (Give at least two examples.)

69.6 Think about your own job or the job of someone you know well. How many of the things on the opposite page are true in your country? How is the work different? Can you explain your/their responsibilities and daily duties in English?
Jobs

Manual jobs
These are jobs where you work with your hands, and these are all skilled. (= need a lot of training)

- bricklayer (builds walls with bricks)
- carpenter (makes things using wood)
- plumber (installs and repairs water pipes, etc.)
- electrician (installs and repairs electrical things)
- mechanic (repairs cars)

The medical profession
Doctors, nurses and surgeons (= specialist doctors who operate on people) work in hospitals. GPs (= general practitioners – doctors who treat people with general problems), dentists and vets (= animal doctors) work in places we call surgeries. All of these people treat (= give medical help, e.g. advice, medicines) and look after (= care for/take care of) people or animals.

The armed forces and the emergency services
My cousin joined/went into the army when he was 18.
Exercises

70.1 Write down one job from the opposite page that would probably be impossible for these people.
1 Someone who didn’t go to university  doctor
2 Someone with very bad eyesight (= cannot see very well)  driver
3 Someone who is always seasick on a boat  pilot
4 Someone who understands nothing about cars  mechanic
5 Someone who will not work in the evening or at weekends  actor
6 Someone who is afraid of dogs  soldier
7 Someone who is afraid of heights and high places  gymnast
8 Someone who is terrible at numbers and maths  statistician
9 Someone who doesn’t like to see blood (= the red liquid in your body)  doctor
10 Someone who is a pacifist (= is anti-war)  senator

70.2 Complete these definitions.
1 A university lecturer teaches in a university.
2 An architect  designer
3 An accountant  accountant
4 A vet  veterinarian
5 A lawyer  lawyer
6 An engineer  engineer
7 A bricklayer  bricklayer
8 A stockbroker  financier
9 A mechanic  mechanic
10 A surgeon  surgeon

70.3 Respond to the statements below, as in the example.
Example  A: She’s a police officer.
B: Really? When did she join the police force?

1 A: She’s a soldier.
B: ....................................................... ?

2 A: He’s a sailor.
B: ....................................................... ?

3 A: He’s a fighter pilot.
B: ....................................................... ?

4 A: He’s a fireman.
B: ....................................................... ?

70.4 You have just bought a piece of land and you are planning to build a house on it. Write down at least six people from the opposite page that you may need to help you. What would you need their help for?
Example  A bricklayer to build the walls

70.5 Write a list of friends, relatives and neighbours who have jobs. What does each person do?
Example  My uncle Jim’s an engineer. His wife is an accountant.
The career ladder

Getting a job
When Paula left school, she applied for (= wrote an official request for) a job in a local company. They gave her a job as a trainee (= a very junior person in a company). She didn’t earn much (= didn’t get much money/she had a low salary), but they gave her in-house training (= the company gave her help and advice to become better), and she went on/did several training courses.

Moving up
Paula worked hard and her prospects (= future possibilities in the job) looked good. Her manager/boss (informal) was very pleased with her progress and she soon got a good pay rise (= more money every week/month). After two years she was promoted (= was given a higher position with more money and responsibility). After five years she was in charge of (= the boss of) a department with five employees (= workers) under her. (= under her control).

employer (= person who employs); employee (= worker) trainer (= person who gives training); trainee (= person who receives training)

Leaving the company
By the time Paula was 30, she decided she wanted a fresh challenge (= a new exciting situation) and a career change (= to work in a different kind of job). She wanted to work abroad (= work in another country), so she resigned (= officially told the company she was leaving her job; also quit informal) and started looking for another job. After a month she got a job with an international company which involved (= included) a lot of foreign travel. She was very excited about this and at first she really enjoyed it, but ...

Hard times
After six months, Paula started to dislike the travelling and living in hotels. She didn’t do well in the job either. After a year the company dismissed/sacked her (= told her to leave), and Paula found life difficult. She was unemployed/out of work (= without a job) for nine months until she got a part-time job (= working only part of the day or week) in the kitchen of a restaurant.

Happier times
Paula loved the restaurant. She enjoyed learning to cook, and two years later she took over (= took control of) the restaurant. After a year, she opened a second one, and after 20 years she had 10 restaurants. Last year Paula retired (= stopped working completely) at the age of 50, a rich woman.
Exercises

71.1 Write a synonym (= word with a similar meaning) for each of these phrases.
1  sack someone = ......................... someone
2  out of work = ............................
3  leave a company = ........................
4  be given a better position in a company = be ..............................
5  future possibilities in a job = ...............................................
6  stop working (often at 60 or 65) = ........................................
7  workers in a company = ....................................................
8  take control of something (e.g. a company) = ............................

71.2 Find the logical answer on the right for each of the questions on the left.
1  Why did they sack her?    a  Because she was 60.
2  Why did they promote her? b  Because she was late for work every day.
3  Why did she apply for the job? c  Because she needed more training.
4  Why did she retire?       d  Because she was out of work.
5  Why did she resign?      e  Because she was the best person in the department.
6  Why did she go on the course? f  Because she didn’t like her boss.

71.3 Complete these sentences with a suitable word.
1  He’s not happy in his own country. He wants to work ..........................
2  I don’t want a full-time job. I’d prefer to work ...............................
3  She’d like to go on another training ...............................
4  I’m bored in my job. I need a fresh ...............................
5  At the end of this year we should get a good pay ..........................
6  She’s got more than a hundred workers under ...............................
7  I didn’t know he was the new manager. When did he take ................?
8  I know it’s not a great job. How much does she ........................?

71.5 Have you got a job in a company? If so, answer these questions as quickly as you can. If possible, ask another person the same questions.
1  Are you responsible for anything or anyone?
2  Have you had much training from the company?
3  Have you been on any training courses?
4  Have you been promoted from the time you started your job?
5  Do you normally get a good pay rise at the end of each year?
6  What do you think about your future prospects in the company?
Office equipment

Office work

Brian works for a company which produces (= makes/ manufactures /mənjuːfəˈraɪts/) furniture. He works in an office, opposite the factory where the furniture is made. This is how he spends his day:

He works at a computer most of the time, where he types [see picture] letters and reports, and sends lots of e-mails.

He sends invoices (= paper showing products sold and the money to pay) to customers, and does quite a lot of paperwork, e.g. filing reports (= putting them in a file/ filing cabinet), etc.

Occasionally he shows people round the factory.

He has to make appointments for his boss and put them in the diary. He also arranges meetings for managers from different departments and types the agenda (= list of things to discuss at a meeting). Sometimes he has to attend (= go to /mɛnt/) meetings and take the minutes. (= write down everything that is said during the meeting)

Office problems

Like most people who work in an office, Brian has his problems. This is how he explains them.

The photocopier is broken.
The printer isn’t working.
We’ve run out of paper (= the paper is finished) The computer’s down (= not working) at the moment.
One of my colleagues (= people you work with) is off (= not at work) today and we’ve got loads of work (= a lot of work /ɪnˈfɪnl/) to do.
Exercises

72.1 Find the best noun in the box to complete each of the sentences.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>e-mail</th>
<th>work</th>
<th>letter</th>
<th>minutes</th>
<th>visitors</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>appointment</td>
<td>computer</td>
<td>meeting</td>
<td>reports</td>
<td>drawer</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1 I've got loads of work to do today.
2 I made an appointment to see their managing director next week.
3 The pens are in the top drawer of my desk.
4 Could we arrange the meeting for next Thursday?
5 The letter was down this morning, so I couldn't do anything.
6 I sent her an e-mail yesterday but she hasn't replied.
7 Have you filed those reports yet?
8 Could you type a letter for me to send to the bank?
9 I'm busy tomorrow. I have to show some visitors round the factory.
10 Who took the letter of yesterday's meeting?

72.2 Complete the compound noun in each sentence.

1 I told him to put the details on the noticeboard.
2 He put most of the stuff in the filing cabinet.
3 I'm sure I put those reports in my briefcase.
4 It's a very boring job and I spend most of my time doing general paperwork.
5 I threw all that stuff in the wastepaper basket.

72.3 Rewrite these sentences. Replace the underlined words with the correct form of the word on the right. Add any other words that are necessary, but the meaning must stay the same.

1 My secretary isn't here today. is off
2 The photocopier is broken.
3 We are very busy today.
4 There's a problem with the computer.
5 We don't have any more paper for the photocopier.

    OFF    WORK    LOADS    DOWN    RUN OUT

72.4 What words from the opposite page are being defined here?

1 People you work with. colleagues
2 Something you put on a wall which tells you the date.
3 A book where you often write down all your appointments and things you have to do.
4 A piece of paper which shows the products a customer bought and the money to pay.
5 A building where things (e.g. cars or computers) are made.
6 A list of things to discuss at a meeting.

72.5 Have you got a job? If so, are these statements true for you at work? If you haven't got a job, answer the questions about someone you know well. Compare your answers with a partner if possible.

I work at a computer a lot of the time. I have to do a lot of paperwork.
I use e-mail a lot. I show people round my workplace.
I arrange meetings. I attend quite a lot of meetings.
Business and finance

Banks and business
Companies often borrow money from banks to finance (= pay for) investments (= things they need to buy to help the company in future, e.g. machines). This money is called a loan, and companies have to pay interest on it, e.g. if you borrow £1,000 for a year, and the interest rate is 10%, then you have to pay back £1,000 + £100 in interest.

Profit and loss
The main aim/objective of a company (= most important thing for a company to do) is to make a profit (= receive more money than it spends; opp make a loss). If a company does not make a profit or a loss, it breaks even. For example:
Most new companies are happy if they break even in their first year of business.
Companies receive money from selling their products (this money is called the turnover), and they spend money (called the expenditure) on these things: raw materials (= materials in their natural state, e.g. coal and oil are important raw materials used to make plastics), and overheads (= things a company must always spend money on, e.g. rent, electricity, etc.). For many companies, labour costs (= money paid to workers) are very expensive.

Rise and fall
These verbs describe trends (= movements) in sales, prices, profit and loss, etc.

NOTE
Rise, increase and fall are also used as nouns. For example:
a rise of 10% ('of' introduces the amount);
a fall of $3.5 million; an increase in sales ('in' introduces the thing that is changing);
a fall in profits.

rise/go up/increase e.g. rise slowly (also gradually) go up steadily rise sharply fall/go down/drop e.g. fall slowly fall steadily drop sharply

Notice the different uses of prepositions with these verbs:
by + size of change Pre-tax profits rose by 11% (to £120 million).
from + previous level Prices dropped from $594 to $386.
to + new level

Businesses and the economy
Most companies want:
to grow/expand (= get bigger) and be successful (= do well and make a lot of profit);
low inflation, so prices do not go up; low interest rates to borrow money; economic and political stability (= no quick changes in the economic/political situation); a healthy/strong economy (= an economy in good condition; opp an economy in recession); tax cuts (= tax reductions/lower taxes), so they can keep more of their profit.
Exercises

73.1 What single word or phrase is being defined in each of these sentences?
1 Money you borrow from a bank for your business.
2 What you must pay the bank if you borrow money.
3 The continuous increase in the price of things.
4 Total amount of money a company receives from selling its products.
5 When a company does not make a profit or a loss.
6 Money that a company spends on rent, electricity, paper, etc.

73.2 Complete the missing preposition in these sentences.
1 Sales rose .................. 10% last year.
2 The stock market value fell .................. 240 .................. 225 in the space of two days.
3 There was a rise .................. 5% in the value of the shares.
4 The shares were £2.50 last week, but the value has just gone up 20p .................. £2.70.
5 There has been a steady increase .................. the profit.
6 We had to pay over £5,000 .................. interest.

73.3 Replace the underlined word(s) with another word or phrase that has the same meaning.
After last year when sales (1) dropped by 5%, I am pleased to say there has been a (2) slow rise in sales in the first quarter of this year, and we are optimistic that the company will continue to (3) do well in the next quarter. In the longer term, our (4) objective for the company is to (5) grow by at least 10% over the next two years, and of course, to make sure that our profit (6) increases by a similar amount.

73.4 Look at the graph and complete the sentences on the left. Each gap is one word.
1 In 1998 sales ..................
2 In the following year they .................
3 In 2000 there was a ..................
4 In 2001 business improved and there was a ..................
5 And in 2002 sales ..................
6 In the five-year period sales .................. by 100,000.

73.5 Complete the compound words or common phrases. There may be more than one answer.
1 profit and ..................
2 .................. rate
3 tax ..................
4 raw ..................
5 a healthy ..................
6 .................. stability

73.6 Can you answer these questions about your own country?
1 What is the inflation rate at the moment?
2 If you borrow money from the bank, what is the interest rate approximately?
3 What is the state of the economy at the moment? Is it strong? Is it in recession?
Sport: ball games

A Ball games

Basketball, volleyball, football, tennis, table tennis, golf, baseball, hockey

B Equipment (= what you need to play the games)

For most ball games you need boots or training shoes. (also trainers infml)
You need a racket for tennis, a bat for baseball/table tennis; a stick for hockey; and clubs for golf [see picture].
In tennis and volleyball and there is a net across the middle of the court. There is also a net around each goal in football.

C Things you can do with a ball

Throw it, head it, pass it, hit it, catch it, kick it

D Places and people

Places
The playing area for football and rugby is called a pitch. Around the pitch there is an area for spectators/the crowd (= people who watch the game). The total area is the stadium.
The playing area for tennis, volleyball and basketball is a court; for golf it is a course.

Officials
Football and rugby have a referee; tennis and baseball have an umpire. In football the referee uses a whistle to control the game.

E Winning and losing

NOTE
We write 2–2, but say two-all.

Winning and losing
Spain beat Switzerland 3–2. (= Switzerland lost to Spain 3–2) In other words: Spain won the match. (= Switzerland lost the match) Spain were the winners. (= Switzerland were the losers)
If two teams/players have the same score (= number of goals or points) at full-time (= the end of the game), it is a draw. We can also use draw as a verb, e.g. We drew 2–2.
When a game is in progress, we use lead to describe the position of the teams or player with the most goals/points, and latest to describe the score:
At half-time, Brazil are leading Chile 2–1. (= the latest score is 2–1 to Brazil)

Cinema and theatre

Inside a theatre

Plays and musicals
At the theatre you can see plays, e.g. Hamlet, written by Shakespeare; or musicals, e.g. Phantom of the Opera, written by Andrew Lloyd Webber. You usually book (= reserve) tickets in advance (= some time before you see the play). When you see the play (or film), it is called a performance, e.g. The evening performance usually starts at 8 pm.

Cinema
Films are shown on a screen. In your country, films made in English may have subtitles (= a written translation at the bottom of the screen), or they are dubbed. (= the English is replaced by actors speaking the words in your own language)
The person who makes the film is the director, e.g. Steven Spielberg, and the people in the film are actors. Famous actors are often called film stars (or stars), e.g. Julia Roberts.

Types of film war film, e.g. Apocalypse Now; Platoon romance (= a love story/about a relationship) thriller (= interesting and exciting; often about crime) disaster movie, e.g. Titanic action film, e.g. Indiana Jones horror film, e.g. Dracula comedy (= funny film; makes you laugh) romantic comedy (= love story and funny)

Describing plays and films
Journalists who write about films and plays are called critics, and their articles are called reviews. These are some common words they use.
brilliant/superb acting (= fantastic acting) very moving (= has a big effect on our emotions; often sad) vilont scenes (= scenes including fighting and death) an awful/dreadful film (= terrible) a slow film (= boring)
a gripping story (= exciting/interesting) good fun (= enjoyable but not serious) a complex plot (= story with many ideas)

Telling the story
The film is set (= happens) in the 1920s. It's about (= the subject/story is) a young man from a poor background (= family history and situation), who meets a girl and they fall in love. But her family don't accept him, so they run away (= go to another place to be away from the parents). At first (= in the beginning) everything is fine, but then things go wrong (= problems appear in their situation) and she has to leave him or they will be unhappy.

Music

Types of music
Classical music, e.g. Beethoven, Mozart (NOT classic music)
Opera (a play in which the words are sung), e.g. La Boheme by Puccini, Carmen by Bizet Rock and pop music, e.g. U2, Madonna, Robbie Williams, Alicia Keys
Jazz, e.g. Duke Ellington, Miles Davis

There are many types of rock and pop music. Some are popular for long periods, others have a short history. Examples in the last 25 years are: punk, reggae, rap, garage and hip-hop.

Musical instruments and musicians

People
Rock and pop music are usually performed (= played to an audience) by a group/band, e.g. Bon Jovi or Travis. Most groups have a lead singer, a lead guitarist (guitar with six strings), a bass guitarist (four strings) and a drummer.
Solo artists (= people who perform alone, e.g. Robbie Williams or Madonna) play with a backing group, and some of them are songwriters. (= they write their music/songs)
Classical music is written by a composer, e.g. Bach, and performed by an orchestra (= a large group of musicians including violins and cellos) with a conductor (= person at the front who directs the musicians). Some music also has a choir. (= a large group of singers)

A hit record
A hit record is a song that is very popular and bought by many people, e.g. 'Bohemian Rhapsody' was a hit single for Queen, and 'Angel' was a hit single for Robbie Williams.
Groups and solo artists also produce albums (= make a collection of songs, usually 8–12, on one CD), 'Sergeant Pepper' by the Beatles is one of the most famous albums ever made.

These are also common phrases we use to talk about popular music.
Craig David's new album is out next week. (= you can buy his new album next week)
They plan to release a new record (= put it in the shops for people to buy) for Christmas.
Have you heard the latest album by Stereophonics? (= the most recent/newest album)
Kylie Minogue's new single is number one. (= the most popular record in the shops this week)
Which is your favourite track on the album? (= the song on the album you like the most)
Has your taste in music (= the type of music you like) changed in the last ten years?

4 Has your musical taste changed in the last few years?
Newspapers

Background
Most newspapers are daily (= they come out/are published every day). Some are national, some are local. Magazines are weekly or monthly (= published every week/month).
Some newspapers are tabloids (= small in size). These are usually the popular press (= short articles and lots of pictures), and they often have a larger circulation (= number of readers). The more serious newspapers are bigger in size. People often refer to newspapers as the press.

Contents
Reports (= pieces of writing about news items, e.g. a report in The Times)
Articles (= pieces of writing about an important subject, e.g. an article about drugs)
Headlines (= title in large letters above the report/article, e.g. a front-page headline)
Reviews (= articles giving an opinion of new films, books, etc., e.g. a review of ...)
Adverts (= words and pictures about a product, to make people buy it, e.g. an ad for ...)

People
Editor (= person in control of the daily production)
Reporters/journalists (= people who report news and write articles)
Photographers (= people who take the pictures in the papers)

Headlines
Certain words (usually short) are common in newspaper headlines. Verb grammar is also different in headlines: the present simple can be used for present or past events; an infinitive often refers to the future. Articles (the/a) and the verb be are often not included.

- row (= an argument)
- back (= support)
- quit (= leave a job)
- hit (= have a bad effect on)
- bid (= try/attempt)
- talks (= discussions)
- cut (= reduce/make less)
- key (= very important)

- Government in new row over schools
- Bush backs new law (= Bush has backed a new law)
- British Rail chairman to quit (= the chairman is going to quit)
- Bad weather hits farmers
- UN in bid to end war
- Government and IRA in new talks
- Bank of England cuts rate again
- Zidane could be key player

‘It said in the paper that ...’
When we refer to something written in a newspaper we use these phrases:
It said in The Times that they’ve found the missing girl. (NOT it’s written in ...)
According to The Guardian, the missing girl was found last night.

2 How many are tabloids?
3 How many newspapers only come out on Sunday in your country?
4 Which newspaper has the largest circulation?
5 Can you name two or three famous journalists who write for daily newspapers?
Television

You can also turn it up (= increase the volume; opp turn it down) and turn over (= change to a different channel; e.g. from 1 to 3). You can use switch on, switch off, or switch over in place of turn. (NOT switch it up/down)

Types of programme

Soap opera: a programme often on two or three times a week, which follows the lives of a group/community of people. The stories are often exciting, dramatic and hard to believe.

Quiz show or Game show: individuals or teams (called contestants) answer questions or play different games against each other. The winner gets a prize, e.g. money or a holiday.

Chat show: a programme where a presenter talks to famous people about their lives.

Documentary: a film with factual information, often about a problem in society.

Series: a number of programmes about the same situation or the same characters in different situations. This may be a comedy series (= programmes that try to be funny), or a drama series. (= programmes with interesting characters and exciting situations)

Current affairs: programmes about a social or political problem. Current means happening ‘now/at the present time’.

TV in Great Britain

At the moment there are five ‘terrestrial’ channels (or stations) on TV (BBC 1, BBC 2, ITV1, Channel 4 and Channel 5).

If you pay extra, you can have a satellite dish and receive satellite TV; or pay to have cable TV (TV sent through wire cables underground). There are many channels available.

Talking TV

What’s on TV tonight? (= what programmes are showing on TV tonight?)

Is there anything on TV tonight?

What time’s the film on? (= what time is the film showing?)

I quite like television commercials. (= the advertisements between programmes)

Are they showing the game live (= as it happens) or just recorded highlights? (= parts of the game after it has been played, e.g. later in the day/evening)

‘Friends’ is on tonight, but it’s a repeat (= the programme has been on TV before). I’ve seen it.

What’s your favourite programme? (= the programme you like most/best)

On the phone

Phone and telephone

mobile phone  telephone directory  answerphone  phone box  phone number  phone card

Starting a phone conversation

The first conversation is informal between friends; the second is a formal business call.

MARY: Hello?
RUTH: Is that Mary? (NOT Are you Mary? or Is it Mary?)
MARY: Yeah.
RUTH: Hi. It's Ruth. (NOT I am Ruth or Here is Ruth)
RECEPTIONIST: Good morning. Chalfont Electronics.
PAUL SCHOLES: Oh, good morning. Could I speak to Jane Gordon, please?
RECEPTIONIST: Yes. Who's calling, please?
PAUL SCHOLES: My name is Paul Scholes from ‘Bexel Plastics’. (= a typical formal introduction)
RECEPTIONIST: Right, Mr Scholes. I'm putting you through (= I'm connecting you) ... pause ...
JANE GORDON: Hello?
PAUL SCHOLES: Mrs Gordon?
JANE GORDON: Speaking. (= yes, this is Mrs Gordon)

Telephone problems

4.20 pm You phone your sister Susan, but it’s engaged (= the phone line is busy). In other words, Susan is already on the phone (= using the phone) talking to someone else.

4.30 pm You phone again but a stranger answers and says: ‘I think you’ve got the wrong number.’ (= you have dialled another number, e.g. 637424 and not 627424)

4.35 pm You get through to (= make contact with) your sister’s number, but she’s out (= not at home). Her husband answers and says: ‘Susan won’t be back (= will not return) for an hour’, so you leave a message: ‘Could you ask Susan to ring me when she gets back (= returns)?’ The husband agrees to give Susan the message: ‘I’ll tell her you called.’

6.00 pm Susan phones you back but you’re out. She leaves a message on the answerphone. Her message is: ‘Jean, this is Susan. I’m just returning your call. I’ll give you a ring (= phone you) tomorrow. Bye.’

Useful vocabulary

To phone another city/country, you need the (dialling) code, e.g. the code for Cambridge is 01223.

Phone calls in a town are local calls; calls to another country are international calls.

Text messages are short written messages you can send from one mobile phone to another.
Exercises

Computers and the Internet

A Hardware and software

There is hardware (= the machines), and software (= the programs needed to work the machines). These programs are stored (= kept) on disks: hard disk (inside the tower), floppy disks, CD-ROMs or DVDs.

B Operating a computer open a new document  open an existing document  save the data in this document  print  cut  copy  paste

You can print it out later. Have you saved it in a new file?

C The Internet

The Internet/the Net is a system connecting (= linking) millions of computers worldwide (= around the world). In order to get online (= become connected) you must connect your computer to a phone line using a modem. You also need an Internet Service Provider (ISP), e.g. aol, freeserve. On the Internet, there are different search engines you can use such as ‘Yahoo’ or ‘Excite’ to find what you are looking for.
When you go online (= use the Internet), you can browse (= look at) different websites and download stuff from the Internet. (= move data from one computer to another)

I sent you an e-mail yesterday. What's your e-mail address?
Did you check your e-mail today? (= look to see if you received any e-mails)
You can e-mail me at pd@freeserve.co.uk. (spoken as: pd at freeserve dot co dot uk)

E Important vocabulary

Some computers and programs are more user-friendly (= easy to use) than others. If your computer has a virus (= a software problem), it may crash (= stop working). Because of this you should make a back-up copy. (= a second copy on a floppy disk)

81.4 Answer these questions. If possible, ask someone else the same questions.

1. Do you have a computer at home? If so, what is it (e.g. PC, Mac, etc.)?
2. Do you use computers at school/college/university or work?
3. What do you use them for?
4. What software are you familiar with?
5. Do you use e-mail? If so, what’s your e-mail address?
6. Do you use the Internet? If so, what are some of your favourite websites?
Education: school

The state system (= free education)
Age of 3 most go to nursery school
5 everyone starts primary school
11 pupils (= the name for students at this age) go to secondary school
16 go to a college for vocational (= job) training, e.g. hotel management, secretarial courses; or stay at school for two more years; leave school and get a job 18 leave school and go to university; go to a college for further education/training, e.g. teaching, business studies; get a job

You go to school and go to university (NOT go to the school/university). Other examples are: go to church (= to pray), go into hospital (= as a patient because you are ill), go to bed (= to sleep), go to prison (= as a criminal). There are also public/independent/private schools and parents pay to send their children to these schools. The school fees are expensive. About 7–10% of the population go to private schools in the UK.

Some words look plural, but in fact they are singular and need a singular verb, e.g. Maths isn't my favourite subject. Other examples are: physics, politics and economics.

Timetable

The school day is divided into 6–7 lessons in different subjects, with a break (= period of rest between work) in the morning and afternoon. There is also a one-hour lunch break.
The school year is usually divided into three terms (= periods of study). Each term is about 13 weeks, and each week pupils do (= study) about ten subjects. At the end of the school year they do/take an exam in each subject. After the holidays, pupils go back (= return) to school.

Studying at (a British) university
If you want to go to (= enter/mld) university, you must first pass examinations that most students take at the age of 18 (called ‘A’ levels). Students usually take three or four ‘A’ levels (examinations in three or four subjects), and they must do well to get a place at university.

If you get a place, most students have to pay part of their tuition fees (= money for teaching). Some students also get a government grant (= money to pay for living expenses, e.g. food and somewhere to live), but most students need a loan (= money you borrow from a bank) to cover the cost of (= pay for) university life. Students at university are called undergraduates while they are studying for their first degree.

Most university courses last (= continue for) three years, some courses last four years, and one or two courses, e.g. medicine, are five years. During this period students can say they are doing a degree, and when they finish and pass their exams, they can say they have a degree. This can be a BA (= bachelor of arts) or a BSc (= bachelor of science). For example:

He hopes to get a place at Oxford.  She's at university in Glasgow.
She's doing a degree in physics.  I've got a degree in German from York University.
She's got a BA in French.  He's got a BSc in computer science.

Postgraduate courses
When you complete your first degree, you are a graduate. Some students then go on (= continue) to do a second course or degree, called a postgraduate course/degree (or postgrad course). These students are then postgraduates and they often study for:

an MA (Master of Arts), e.g. I'm doing a Masters in English or an MSc (Master of Science), e.g. She did a Masters in biology or a PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) [minimum three years], e.g. He's got a PhD in computer science.

When people study one subject in great detail (often to find new information), we say they are doing research, e.g. My sister is doing research into/ on the effects of stress at work.

School vs university
School has teachers and lessons; at university you have lecturers and lectures. The head of department (also called a ‘faculty’, but less common in spoken English) at a university is usually called a professor. (An ordinary teacher or lecturer is not a professor.)
Exercises

83.1 Read these sentences spoken by university students. What is each person studying?
1 I'm concentrating on Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright.  architecture.
2 We have to know every bone in a person's body.
3 The way we use fertilisers is much more precise than 20 years ago.
4 We're going to concentrate on Freud and Jung this term.
5 I've been reading some books on time management.
6 Expressionism was really a reaction to the work of the Impressionists.
7 We've spent a lot of time on American foreign policy.
8 You must know this case; it's one of the most famous in legal history.

Now mark the stress on each of your answers, check with the pronunciation in the Index, and practise saying the subjects.

83.2 What do you call:
1 the money some students receive if they get a place at university?
2 the qualification you get at the end of university?
3 the name we give students during this period at university?
4 teachers at university?
5 students when they have completed their first degree?
6 students studying for a second, higher degree?
7 the study of one subject in great depth and detail, often to get new information?
8 the talks/lessons that students go to while they are at university?

83.3 Replace the underlined verbs with less formal verbs that have the same meaning in the context.
1 Is it very difficult to obtain a place at university?
2 You have to pass exams before you can enter university.
3 He's studying physics, I think.
4 Did she receive a grant for her course?
5 The course continues for three years.

83.4 Fill the gaps with a suitable word.
1 My brother is 20. He's still university in York.
2 She's got a degree economics.
3 He's research various types of nervous disorder.
4 She's already got a BA. She's doing a degree now.
5 Who is the professor in your ?

83.5 Answer these questions. If possible, compare your answers with someone else from your own country and/or someone from a different country.
1 Do you need to pass examinations before you can go to university?
2 Do some students get a grant to study at university?
3 Is the tuition free if you go to university?
4 Do most degree courses last three years?
5 What is your equivalent of the British BA or BSc?
6 Do you have similar postgraduate degrees in your country?
Law and order

A The police

When someone commits a crime (= breaks the law and does something illegal/against the law/wrong), the police do a number of things.

They investigate the crime. (= try to find out what happened and who is responsible)
If they catch (= find) the person they believe is responsible for the crime, they will arrest them. (= take them to the police station because they think the person has committed the crime)
At the police station, they question them. (= ask them questions)
If they are sure that the person committed the crime, the person is charged with the crime. (= the police make an official statement that they believe the person committed the crime)
For a serious crime (e.g. murder), the person must then go to court for trial. [see section B]

B In court

In court, the defendant must try to prove (= provide facts to show something is true) that they did not commit the crime. In other words, they must try to prove that they are innocent (opp guilty). Twelve members of the public (called the jury) listen to the evidence ( = information about the crime, for and against) and then make their decision. People who see a crime are witnesses, and they usually give evidence at a trial.

C Punishment (= what a person must suffer if they do something wrong)

If someone is guilty of a crime, the judge will give the sentence (= the punishment). If a person is guilty of murder, the sentence may be 10–20 years in prison. The person then becomes a prisoner.

For crimes that are not serious (called minor offences, e.g. illegal parking), the punishment is usually a fine. (= money you have to pay)
Exercises

84.1 Put this story in the correct order. The first event has been given.

a they found both men guilty.
b and charged them with the robbery.
c £10,000 was stolen from a bank in the High Street.
d After the jury had listened to all the evidence
e The judge gave the men a prison sentence of five years.
f The trial took place two months later.
g and they finally arrested two men.
h They questioned them at the police station
i The police interviewed a number of witnesses about the crime

84.2 Answer the questions.
1 Who investigate(s) crimes? the police
2 Who sentence(s) people?
3 Who live(s) in prison?
4 Who decide(s) if someone is innocent or guilty?
5 Who defend(s) people and present(s) evidence?
6 Who commit(s) crimes?

84.3 Fill the gaps with the correct word.
1 A: Have you ever ....................... the law?
   B: No, never.
2 A: Does anyone know why she ....................... the crime?
   B: I think she needed the money.
3 A: Is it legal to ride a motorbike without a licence?
   B: No, it’s ....................... the law.
4 In Britain it is ....................... to drive a car without insurance.

9 If someone is guilty of murder, the ....................... will be at least ten years in prison.
10 He has been in trouble before, but it was only a minor .......................

84.4 Read the text, then write your answers to the questions below, based on your knowledge of the law in your own country. If possible, discuss your answers with someone else.

Two 15-year-old boys broke into a house when the owner was out, and took money and jewellery worth about £900. The owner reported the crime when she got home at 6pm.

1 Will the police investigate this crime?
2 How will they investigate? What will they do?
3 Do you think the police will catch the two boys?
4 If they do, what crime will they be charged with?
5 Can boys of this age go to prison?
6 What do you think the sentence would be? Do you think this is the correct sentence?
Crime

The law
If you do something illegal/against the law (= wrong), you have committed a crime. Most people commit a crime at some time in their lives, e.g. driving above the speed limit or parking illegally, etc. If you break the law (= do something wrong/illegal) and commit a crime, you could get into trouble (= be in a bad situation) with the police.

Scene of the crime
Two men robbed a jeweller’s in west London early this morning. They broke in (= forced their way into the building, e.g. they broke a window) around 7am and took/stole rings and necklaces valued at over £10,000. Several witnesses (= people who see a crime) saw them leave the shop and get away/escape (= go away from a dangerous situation) in a blue car. The police believe both men are armed (= have guns) and extremely dangerous.

Crime prevention
What can governments do to prevent crime (= stop crime happening) or reduce it (= make it less)? These things happen in some countries.

The police carry guns. (= have guns)
The police are allowed to (= are permitted to/can) stop anyone in the street and ask them questions.

Criminals receive tough (= hard) punishments, e.g. go to prison for long periods.

There is capital punishment (= death, e.g. by injection or electric chair) for some crimes.

What can people do to protect themselves (= keep themselves safe) and their property (= home and land)? They can do these things.

Avoid (= keep away from) dark streets late at night (e.g. midnight).

Avoid wearing (= try not to wear) expensive rings or watches. [Note the -ing form after ‘avoid’.]

Have a burglar alarm.

Put money and valuables (= things worth a lot of money) in a safe.

Leave lights on at home when they go out.

Lock doors and windows when they go out.

4 Do you think tougher punishments will help to ......................... crime?
Politics

Types of government
Monarchy: a state ruled by a king or queen (= the king or queen has power and control). Some countries, e.g. the UK, have a monarchy, but the monarch is not the ruler.
Republic: a state governed by representatives (= men or women chosen by the people) and a president, e.g. the USA or France. People who believe in this system are republicans.
Democracy: a system of government in which leaders are chosen by the people, e.g. France or the United Kingdom. People who believe in this system are democrats.
Dictatorship: a system of government in which one person rules the country (= one person has total power). This person is called a dictator.

People who believe in social democracy are social democrats.
It is a democratic government, with liberal beliefs.

Political positions
The government is very reactionary (= they don’t want any changes). The opposition (= the main political party which is not in government) is more radical (= they want to make changes to the system). The Prime Minister is quite right-wing (= conservative/capitalist), and the leader of the opposition is more left-wing (= socialist).

Elections
In a democracy, people vote for (= they choose in a formal way) the political party (= e.g. social democrats) they want to form the government. They do this in an election (= when everyone votes). Quite often elections take place/are held (= happen) every five years.
42% voted for the socialists in the election. (= The socialist party got 42% of the votes.) They elected a new president last year. (= The new president was elected last year.)
The election takes place next week, and the Liberals hope to form the next government.

Government
Political systems are different all over the world (= in every part of the world). In the UK, when a political party wins a majority (= 51% or more) of seats (= official places in parliament) in an election, they are in power (= the government of the country), and their leader (= person in control of the party) becomes Prime Minister.
The government must have policies (= programmes of action) to run (= manage and control) the country. This means, for example, an economic policy (for the economy), and a foreign policy (for actions by the country in other parts of the world).
Exercises

86.1 What kind of political system is being described?
1 The country is ruled by a king or queen.
2 The country is governed by men and women who are chosen by the people.
3 The country is ruled by one person.

His or her job is then to decide on a number of different (8) ................................. to run the country.

86.5 Answer these questions about your own country. If possible, ask someone else.

1 Which are the main political parties in your country?
2 Which party is in power at the moment?
3 When were they elected?
4 Did you vote in this election?
5 Who is the leader of this party?
6 Is this person the President or Prime Minister of your country?
7 Do you think you are left-wing, right-wing, or in the centre?
8 Do you think your political beliefs have changed/will change during your life?
Bureaucracy

What is it?

Bureaucracy is the rules used by officials (or bureaucrats) to control an organisation or country. It is often used in a negative way to mean unnecessary rules, e.g. filling in (= completing) forms, and waiting for documents. (= pieces of paper with official information)

Important documents (e.g. passport)

Identity card (= card with your name, date of birth and photo to show who you are. The United Kingdom is one of the few countries where people do not have identity cards.)

Driving licence (= the official document which permits you to drive on public roads)

Visa (= document which gives you permission to enter, pass through or leave a country)

Officials often check (= look at and examine) your documents, e.g. customs officials check your passport or identity card, and the police may check your driving licence.

We also use the word certificates for official pieces of paper stating certain facts: a birth certificate gives the important facts about your birth, exam certificates state you have passed certain exams, and a marriage certificate states you have married.

Some documents are for a fixed period of time, e.g. a visa may be for six months. At the end of that period, the visa runs out (informal/expires) (= it finishes/comes to an end).

If you want to stay in the country, you must renew it (= get a new one for a further period of time). You can normally renew a visa, a passport, a membership card for a club, etc.

Forms

There are situations where you need to fill in (= complete) forms.

Landing card: a form you may have to fill in when you enter another country

Enrolment form (sometimes called a registration form): a form you often have to fill in when you join a school or course

Application form: a form where you write details about yourself, often when applying for a job

With many forms, you will need to sign them (= write your signature) and print your full name underneath. (= under it)

Language of forms

Forms often contain formal expressions. In spoken English, this may be different.

Global problems

The environment (= air, water and land around us)
Many people believe we are destroying the environment. (If you ‘destroy’ something, you damage it so badly it does not exist any more.) For example:
- Cars and factories pollute the air. (= make the air dirty)
- We continue to cut down rainforests and increase the dangers of global warming. (= an increase in temperature because of increased carbon dioxide around the earth)
How can the planet (earth) survive? (= continue to exist)
- We must save/conserve (= use less and use well) natural resources (e.g. water, oil and gas). We mustn’t waste them. (= use them badly)
- We must protect animals and plants. (= keep them safe from human damage)
- We mustn’t throw away bottles and cans. We must recycle them. (= use them again)
Many of the verbs above form common nouns:

Natural disasters
A disaster is when something terrible happens and people often die. A natural disaster is caused by nature. For example:
- famine (= situation where people die because there isn’t enough food)
- drought (= no rain for a long period of time; this often causes famine)
- floods (= too much rain in a short period of time, causing damage to houses and land)
- earthquakes (= violent movement of the earth; buildings are often destroyed)

War and peace
A war is a long period of fighting between two or more countries. Some countries have been at war (= fighting a war) for years. There are also civil wars (= fighting between two or more groups in the same country). These are some of the most violent – soldiers (= the people in the army) are killed, but many civilians (= people not in the army or navy; etc.) also die. Wars often end with a peace settlement. (= both sides agree to stop fighting)

Terrorism
This is violent action for political reasons. People who do this are terrorists. A common terrorist crime is planting bombs (= putting bombs in public places) often to kill/assassinate important people. Terrorists also hijack planes and buses (= take control of them by force). The people on board then become prisoners (called hostages). The terrorists may agree to release the hostages (= permit the hostages to go free) if governments agree to their demands (= what they ask for), perhaps giving them money or releasing other terrorists from prison.

NOTE
Assassinate = to kill a famous person, often for a political reason.

Air travel

Departures
When you arrive at the airport, you can look at the departures board which shows the flight numbers (e.g. BA735), departure times (e.g. 0840) and destinations (e.g. Venice). At the check-in desk they weigh your luggage. Usually you can take about 20 kilos. If it is more, you may have to pay excess baggage (= you pay extra). They also check your ticket and give you a boarding card for the plane with your seat number on it. Then you go through passport control where an official checks your passport, and into the departure lounge. Here, you can also buy things in the duty free, e.g. perfume or alcohol. About half an hour before take-off, you go to a gate number, e.g. gate 14, where you wait before you get on the plane. When you board (= get on) the plane, you find your seat. If you have hand luggage, you can put it under your seat or in the overhead locker above your seat. If there are no delays (= when you have to wait until a later time for some reason), the plane moves towards the runway. (= the area where planes take off and land)

Delay can be used as a noun and verb. It is a common word at airports.
There's a two-hour delay on our flight.
Why is the flight delayed?
What's the reason for the delay?
We were delayed at Athens airport.

The flight
The captain (= the pilot) or cabin crew (= people who look after passengers) may say these things:
- Please fasten your seat belt and put your seat in the upright position.
- May we remind passengers (= to passengers: please remember) that there is no smoking now until you are inside the terminal building. (= the part of the airport where passengers arrive and depart)
- The cabin crew are now coming round with landing cards. (= cards you have to fill in when you enter certain countries)

Arrival
When the plane lands (= arrives on the ground), you have to wait for it to stop. When the doors are open, you get off the plane and walk through the terminal building and go to the baggage reclaim (= place where you collect your luggage). You go through customs (GREEN = nothing to declare; RED = goods to declare). At most airports, you can hire a car. (= rent a car)

Hotels and restaurants

Types of hotel accommodation

- a single room = room for one person with a single bed
- a double room = room for two people with one large bed
- a twin room = room for two people with two single beds
- full board = includes breakfast, lunch and dinner
- half board = includes breakfast and dinner
- B&B = just bed (= the room) and breakfast

Visiting a hotel or restaurant

At busy times, e.g. the weekend, you may need to book a room in a hotel or a table in a restaurant in advance (= before you go). When you arrive at a hotel you check in at reception (= tell the receptionist you have arrived); at a restaurant you ask for a table (e.g. Could we have a table for two? or I booked a table for two. The name is Carter.) In restaurants you can tip the waiter/waitress (= give money for good service) if service is not included; in a hotel you may also give the porter (= person who carries luggage) a tip. At the end of a meal in a restaurant or the end of your stay in a hotel, you pay the bill.

In a restaurant

You can see the food available on the menu, and choose wine (and other drinks) from the wine list. There are usually three parts to a meal: a starter (e.g. soup), a main course (e.g. meat or fish) and a dessert (e.g. fruit or ice cream). A drink before the meal is often called an aperitif.

Useful words and expressions

In a hotel

GUEST: Are you fully booked (= completely full) next week?
Do you have any rooms available (= free rooms) this weekend?
Is breakfast/dinner included? (= Does the price include breakfast/dinner?)
Where’s the lift? (= the machine which takes you up or down a floor)
Excuse me. How do I get to (the underground station) from here?
There’s something wrong with (= there’s a problem with) the heating in my room.
What time do we have to check out? (= leave the room on our last day)

In a restaurant

WAITER: Are you ready to order? (= Have you decided what you want?)
Would you like to try the wine? (= taste the wine to see if it is OK)
Is everything all right with your meal?

CUSTOMER: Are you fully booked?
What’s vichysoisse exactly?
I’ll have the (soup) to start. (= as a starter)
Excuse me. Where’s the toilet?

5 Tea- and coffee-making facilities
6 Air-conditioning
A sightseeing holiday in the city

A Famous places

1 palace  2 market  3 temple  4 statue  5 castle  6 cathedral

Many people go on a sightseeing tour of a town (usually in a bus); they can also go on a tour of a castle, cathedral, etc. When you are sightseeing, it helps to buy a guidebook (= a book of information for tourists) and a map of the town you are visiting.

B Tourist activities go sightseeing do a bit of/a lot of sightseeing have a look round (= visit somewhere casually) take pictures (= photos) spend money get lost (= lose one's way) have a great/nice/terrible time go out (= leave home/your hotel to go to a social event, e.g. restaurant or disco)

We went sightseeing almost every day.
I didn't do a lot of sightseeing in Warsaw.
We had a quick look round the shops.
I wanted to have a look round the art galleries.
I took hundreds of pictures on holiday.
I spent lots of money – too much.
We got lost almost every day in London.
They had a lovely time in Venice.
On holiday we went out every night.

C Describing ‘places’

The word place can describe a building, an area, a town, or country:
Bruges is a lovely place (= town) and we found a really nice place (= hotel) to stay.
The town is full of interesting places. (= areas/buildings)
Venice is beautiful but it's always packed (= very crowded) with tourists.
New York is very cosmopolitan. (= full of people from different countries and cultures)
St Petersburg has lots of historic monuments. (= important places built a long time ago)
Many beautiful cities are now very touristy. (= a negative word: 'too much tourism')
São Paolo is a really lively place (= full of life and activity) and the nightlife is fantastic.

To ask if it is 'a good idea' to visit a place, use be worth + -ing or noun.
A: If I go to Scotland, is it worth spending a few days in Edinburgh?
B: Yes, definitely – and Glasgow is worth a visit as well.
Exercises

91.1 Complete this postcard. You may need a word or phrase in each space.

Hi everyone,
I've been in Paris for over a week now and I'm having a great (1) ________________ . In the first few days I did quite a lot of (2) ___________________ - the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, and all the usual tourist attractions. Most places are absolutely (3) ________________ with tourists, so yesterday I decided to have a (4) ________________ round the shops.
Today I've been to a couple of interesting art (5) ________________ . I got (6) ________________ on my way back to the hotel, but it didn't matter because I discovered a really fascinating ________________ (7) ________________ with lots of little stalls, selling just about everything from apples to antiques.
I ate in the hotel the first night but usually I (8) ________________ for dinner - the restaurants are great and I can get a set meal for less than 25 euros. I'm afraid I've (9) ________________ a lot of money, but it's a great place. You'll be able to see for yourself when I get back - I've taken lots of (10) ________________ .
I hope you're all well. I'll write again next week.

Love, Emma

91.2 Which of these places do you usually visit or go to when you are on holiday?

museums  art galleries  churches and cathedrals  tourist shops

B: Yes, Kyoto is definitely ________________________

91.4 Think of a place in your country (a different place for each number) which is:

1 cosmopolitan  4 famous for its historic monuments
2 lively  5 worth visiting
3 very touristy  6 not worth visiting Holidays by the sea

Places to stay
When people go on holiday they stay in various places (= a number of different places): some go to hotels; some rent an apartment (a holiday flat); some prefer to go camping and sleep in a tent.

On the beach
Many people spend their holiday in seaside resorts (= towns by the sea for tourists, e.g. Malaga, St Tropez, Okinawa) where they can go to the beach every day:

You sometimes get a gentle breeze (= a light pleasant wind) from the sea, which helps to cool you down on hot days, but it can also burn you [see section D].

Seaside activities
I like to go for a walk along the cliffs. On sandy beaches, I often play volleyball. I sometimes go windsurfing/snorkelling/diving. I don't swim much but I like to have a paddle. (= just put my feet in the sea) My sister likes to have a swim in the sea, but not if it is very rough (opp calm).

In the sun
Many people go to the beach to sunbathe (= lie in the sun) and get a suntan (= when the body goes an attractive brown colour from the sun; we can also say, be brown). This can be dangerous, and you should always put on suntan lotion (= cream or oil to stop your skin burning). This will also help you to get a tan and protect your skin (= keep your skin safe). If you don't protect your skin, you may get sunburn (= the skin becomes red and very painful). For total protection, use sunblock.
92.1 Write down four more words beginning with ‘sun’.
sunshine... sun... sun... sun... sun...

92.2 Match a word from the left with a word from the right to form six phrases.
1 beach a breeze
2 suntan b umbrella
3 seaside c sea
4 gentle d lotion
5 sandy e resort
6 rough f beach

92.3 Identify these seaside activities.

92.4 Can you find 11 words (including one phrasal verb) from the opposite page in this word square? All the answers are vertical or horizontal.

92.5 Fill the gaps with a suitable verb (one word only). If possible, discuss your answers with someone else.
1 How often do you .......... on holiday?
2 Where did you .......... your last holiday?
3 Do you or your family often .......... an apartment for your holidays?
4 Do you ever .......... camping?
5 Do you enjoy .......... on a beach?
6 Do you .......... a suntan easily?
Prepositions: at, on, in

- at a specific time: at 8 o'clock, at 3.30, at midnight
- on a day: on Monday, on July 14, on the second day
- in a period: in the morning, in April, in the summer, in 1998

Important exceptions are: at Christmas, at Easter, at the weekend, at night.

Prepositions often confused

I'll stay until she phones; I'll be here until 4.30. (= I'll leave after she phones/after 4.30)
I'll be in the office by 8.15 (= not later than 8.15); I'll be back home by 6.30. (= not later than 6.30)

I've worked in this office for six months. [For + a period of time, e.g. a week, a month]
I've worked here since May. [Since + a point in time in the past, e.g. last Friday, 3 March]

I worked on a farm during the summer/the holidays. [This tells you 'when'.]
I worked on a farm for two years. [This tells you 'how long'.] (NOT during two years)
I'm going back to Brazil in ten days' time. (= ten days from now) (NOT after ten days)

Approximate periods of time: past, present and future

Past
I've known the two girls for ages. (= for a long time)
I haven't been to the dentist recently/lately. (e.g. in the last few months)
I saw Tom recently. (e.g. a few weeks ago/not long ago)
I used to go skiing, but that was a long time ago. (e.g. 5-10 years ago)
My sister went to the zoo the other day. (= a few days ago, perhaps a week)

Present
I don't see my sister much these days. (= a period including the past and now)

Future
This dictionary will be OK for the time being. (= for now/the near future - but not long)
I'm sure I'll go to America one day. (= in the future but I don't know when)

Counting time

There are 60 seconds in a minute, 60 minutes in an hour, 24 hours in a day, 7 days in a week, 2 weeks in a fortnight, 52 weeks in a year, 10 years in a decade, 100 years in a century.

'Take' and 'last'

We use take to say how long we need to do something.
It takes me (= I need) half an hour to get to school.
We can walk, but it'll take (= we'll need) a long time.

We use last to talk about the duration of something, from the beginning to the end.
The cookery course lasted for ten weeks. (= it continued for ten weeks)
How long does the film last? (= How long is it from the beginning to the end?)
The battery in my camera didn't last long. (= didn't continue to function for a long time)

A  Cardinal numbers

| 379 = three hundred and seventy-nine | 2,860 = two thousand eight hundred and sixty |
| 5,084 = five thousand and eighty-four  | 470,000 = four hundred and seventy thousand |
| 2,000,000 = two million              | 3,000,000,000 = three billion |

There is no plural 's' after hundred, thousand, million and billion when they are part of a number. When we are talking more generally, they can be plural, e.g. thousands of people, millions of insects.

B  Ordinal numbers and dates

One problem with dates is that we write them and say them in a different way.
We write 4 January (or 4th January), but say the fourth of January or January the fourth.
We write 21 May (or 21st May), but say the twenty-first of May or May the twenty-first.
1997 = nineteen ninety-seven
2003 = two thousand and three

C  Fractions and decimals

| 1 1/2 = one and a half         | 1.25 = one point two five |
| 1 3/4 = one and three quarters | 1.75 = one point seven five |

D  Percentages

26% is spoken as twenty-six per cent.
More than 50% of something is the majority of it; less than 50% is the minority.

E  Arithmetic

There are four basic processes. Notice how they are said when we are working out (= calculating) the answer.

\[ \begin{align*}
+ & = \text{addition} \quad \text{e.g.} \ 6 + 4 = 10 \text{ (six plus/and four equals/is ten)} \\
- & = \text{subtraction} \quad \text{e.g.} \ 6 - 4 = 2 \text{ (six minus four equals/is two)} \\ \times & = \text{multiplication} \quad \text{e.g.} \ 6 \times 4 = 24 \text{ (six times/multiplied by four equals/is twenty-four)} \\
\div & = \text{division} \quad \text{e.g.} \ 8 \div 2 = 4 \text{ (eight divided by two equals/is four)} \end{align*} \]

Some people are not very good at mental arithmetic (= arithmetic in your mind without paper) and often get stuck (= have a problem) if they have to work something out. The easiest way is to use a calculator. (= small electronic machine for working out numbers)

F  Saying ‘0’

This can be spoken in different ways in different contexts.
telephone number: 603 724 = six oh three, seven two four mathematics: 0.7 = nought point seven; 6.02 = six point oh two or six point nought two temperature: −10 degrees = ten degrees below zero or minus ten degrees
Exercises

94.1 How do you say these numbers in English? Write your answers after each one.

1 462 .................................................................
2 2½ ................................................................
3 2,345 ................................................................
4 0.25 ................................................................
5 1,250,000 ...........................................................
6 10.04 ................................................................
7 47% ................................................................
8 10 April ................................................................
9 3 July ................................................................
10 602 8477 (phone number) ...........................................
11 −5° centigrade ........................................................
12 In 1976 ................................................................

Now repeat them until you can say them fluently.

94.2 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

1 After the game I heard that the crowd was over twenty thousands.
2 We arrived on the four August.
3 There were two hundred twenty altogether.
4 My birthday is the thirty-one August.
5 My phone number is seven twenty three, six nought nine.

94.3 Fill the gaps with a suitable word.

1 The ........................................... were in favour of the new plan; about 80%, I think.
2 A small ........................................... were not happy with the idea, but it was only 5%.
3 I'm not very good at mental arithmetic. I always have to use a ..............................
4 When I tried to add all the numbers together, I couldn't ................................. it out.
5 I can do simple mental arithmetic, but I get ................................. if the numbers are very big.

94.4 Can you do these mental arithmetic problems? If you find it difficult, use paper or a calculator.

1 23 and 36 is .........................
2 24 times 8 is .........................
3 80 minus 20 is .........................
4 65 divided by 13 is .........................
5 Add 10 and 6, multiply by 8, then subtract 40 and divide by 11. What have you got?
6 Divide 33 by 11, multiply by 7, add 10, and subtract 16. What's your answer?

94.5 Answer these questions. Write your answers in words.

1 When were you born?
2 How much do you weigh?
3 What is the number of the flat or house where you live?
4 What is the approximate population of your town?
5 What is the approximate population of your country?
6 What is the normal temperature of a healthy person?
7 How many kilometres are there in a mile?
Distance, size and dimension

Distance

These are common ways of asking about distance, with typical replies.

A: How far is it?
B: The nearest one (≈ the shortest distance from here) is about five miles.

A: Is it far?
B: No. It’s just round the corner. (≈ very near)

A: Is it a long way?
B: No, not far (≈ quite near) – about ten minutes’ walk.

A: Is it very far?
B: Yes, quite a long way. Or Yes, too far to walk.

We can use far in a question or a negative, but not in a positive statement on its own (it’s a long way NOT it’s far). But we can say: ‘It’s too far to walk.’

Size and dimension

![Diagram showing dimensions of a rectangular object: width, length, height, shallow end, deep end, depth.]

We can ask and answer about dimensions like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>questions</th>
<th>answers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What’s the length of the room? or</td>
<td>How long is the room?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What’s the width of the path?</td>
<td>How wide is the path?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What’s the height of the wall?</td>
<td>How high is the wall?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What’s the depth of the pool?</td>
<td>How deep is the pool?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>It’s 5 metres (long).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>It’s 60 cm (wide).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>It’s two metres (high).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>It’s 3 metres (deep).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Size in people and things

We use different words to describe the size of people and things. For example:

- A tall girl (opp a short girl)
- A long book (= many pages) (opp a short book)
- A deep lake (= many metres) (opp a shallow lake)
- Fat people (opp thin people)

- A thick book (opp a thin book)
- A wide road (opp a narrow road)

We can use big or large to describe size in English, but not great, which usually means ‘fantastic’ in spoken English. But we can use great big to say that something is very big, e.g. There was a great big dog in the garden, so I stayed outside.
Exercises

95.1 Think about the building you are in now, and answer these questions using expressions from the opposite page.
1 How far is it to the nearest shop?
2 How far is it to a bank?
3 Is it very far to the nearest bus stop?
4 Is it very far to a post office?
5 Is it a long way to the nearest swimming pool?
6 Is it a long way to the next big town?
7 How far is the nearest railway station?
8 Is it far to the centre of town?

If possible, ask someone else the same questions and compare your answers.

95.2 Write down at least six different questions you could ask about the distance, size or dimensions of: the lake, the mountain, the football pitch and the person.

Example How big is the lake?

95.3 Disagree with the speaker in the dialogues below. Look at the example first.

Example A: Is it a long film?
B: No, it's quite short.

1 A: Is he very fat?
B: No, he's quite ..................................................

2 A: The water's deep, isn't it?
B: No, it's ..................................................

3 A: Is the road very wide at that point?
B: No, ..................................................

4 A: He's quite tall, isn't he?
B: No, ..................................................

5 A: They only live in a small place, don't they?
B: No, it's ..................................................

6 A: It's a fairly boring place, isn't it?
B: No, ..................................................
Shapes, colours and patterns

A Shapes

- a square (n) square (adj)

- a rectangle (n)
  rectangular (adj)

- a circle (n)
  round (adj)

- a semi-circle

- a triangle
  triangular (adj)

- a point (n) pointed (adj)

- a star

- a diamond

The room was almost square. It was like a triangle.

We haven't got a round table. An unusual star-shaped candle.

We sat in a semi-circle. The end was pointed.

B Colours

You will already know most of the common colours. Here are some that are less common.

- turquoise
- beige
- purple
- grey

- pink

C Shades of colour (= degrees and variation of colour)

NOTE
With some colours, we use pale, not light, e.g. pale yellow, pale pink.

She bought a dark green skirt. He's wearing light blue jeans. The shirt is pale yellow.

D Patterns (also called 'designs')

These are common on clothes and furniture.

- striped shirt
- tartan skirt
- check dress

E Use of the suffix -ish

When we want to say that a shape is 'almost round' or a colour is 'a sort of green', we can also express this idea with the suffix -ish.

She had a roundish face. He wore a greenish tie. The wall was a yellowish colour.
Exercises

96.1 Complete the table.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>noun</th>
<th>adjective</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>square</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>rectangle</td>
<td></td>

</table>

96.2 Complete these sentences with the correct colour.
1 You mix black and white to get .................
2 You mix red and white to get .................
3 You mix brown and yellow to get .................
4 You mix red and blue to get .................
5 You mix blue and green to get .................

96.3 Describe these pictures using the correct adjective(s) and noun.

1 ................................. 4 ................................. 7 .................................
   a rectangular table

2 ................................. 5 ................................. 8 .................................

3 ................................. 6 ................................. 9 .................................

96.4 What object is being described in each of these sentences?
1 It's got a point at one end and that's the end you write with.
2 It's rectangular and often green. There are white lines on it, and people play on it.
3 It's a reddish-orange vegetable, quite long and usually pointed at one end.
4 For some of the month it's completely round; at other times, it's closer to a semi-circle.
5 It can look grey, pale blue, dark blue, or a greenish blue. It really depends where it is and whether the sun is shining on it.
6 It's roundish, and white, beige or brown in colour. You eat the inside when it's cooked.
7 The bottom part is triangular, and at the top there is another bit in the shape of a semi-circle. You put things on the triangular part and hang them using the semi-circular part.
8 It lives in the sea. It's quite small and greyish, but goes pink when you cook it. Then you eat it.

96.5 What are you wearing? Write a description, including the exact colour of everything. If there is a colour or design you cannot describe, use a bilingual dictionary.
Notices and warnings

A

Information

OUT OF ORDER
for a machine that is not working, e.g. public phone or washing machine

NO VACANCIES
in the window of a B&B (cheap hotel), it means the hotel is full outside a cinema or concert hall – there are no tickets left; they have all been sold

SOLD OUT

B

Do this!

Please queue other side

KEEP OFF THE GRASS

SILENCE
Examination in progress

KEEP RIGHT
(= stay on the right side, and continue on the right side) e.g. in airports, on the underground

C

Don’t do this!

NO SMOKING
Do not leave bags unattended

NO PARKING

‘Do not lean out’ of the window

NO EXIT

D

Be careful!
With these notices, something bad may happen if you do not pay attention to them.

MIND YOUR HEAD
(= be careful you don’t hit your head)
e.g. in front of a low door

MIND THE STEP
(= be careful you don’t hit the step and fall) e.g. in front of a step

FRAGILE
(= be careful, this will break easily)

BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS
(= be careful, there are people here who will steal things from your bag or pocket without you knowing)
Exercises

97.1 Complete these notices and warnings in possible ways, without looking at the opposite page.

- PLEASE QUEUE .............................................. BEWARE OF ..............................................
- MIND THE ..................................................... MIND YOUR ..............................................
- SOLD ............................................................ PLEASE DO NOT .........................................
- OUT OF ........................................................ NO ..............................................................
- KEEP .............................................................

97.2 Where could you see these notices or warnings?

1. Nothing to declare ............................................ at an airport ..............................................
2. No vacancies ..................................................... ..............................................................
3. Beware of PICKPOCKETS ..................................
4. Please queue other side ...................................... ..............................................................
5. Out of order ....................................................... ..............................................................
6. SOLD OUT ......................................................... ..............................................................
7. FRAGILE .......................................................... ..............................................................
8. KEEP OFF THE GRASS ...................................... ..............................................................

97.3 What notice(s) might you see in each of these places?

1. A zoo ................................................................. ..............................................................
2. A waiting area in a busy airport ................................. ..............................................................
3. The door of a hotel room at 9 o'clock in the morning ........ ..............................................................
4. In front of garage doors .......................................... ..............................................................
5. Above the window of a train ................................... ..............................................................
6. Inside a theatre .................................................... ..............................................................
7. On the underground ............................................. ..............................................................
8. A door going into a low room ................................... ..............................................................

97.4 Now write some different notices of your own. Think of six possible notices you could put in one of these places:

- a school ................................................................. ..............................................................
- a university ............................................................. ..............................................................
- a language school .................................................. ..............................................................
- a place where people work, e.g. bank, factory, hospital ..............................................................

Where would you put these notices? If possible, do this activity with another person or show it to another person.

97.5 Look for other notices (in English or your first language). Can you understand the English notices? Can you translate the ones in your own language. Try to find six more notices in the next week.
Vague language

Vague means ‘not clear or precise or exact’. For example, we can say:
I have a vague idea where it is. (= I know more or less but not exactly)
In spoken English, we use a lot of vague words when we are not being very precise.

A Thing(s)
- To refer to actions, ideas and facts:
  The main thing (= fact) about John is that he always stays calm.
  That was a terrible thing (= action) to do.
- To refer to countable objects (often the speaker and listener know what the object is):
  What’s that thing (bicycle) doing in the house?
  Put those things (cups and saucers) in the cupboard.
- To refer to a general situation:
  How are things at school? Things (= life in general) are going really well.

B Stuff
We can use stuff with uncountable nouns (or a group of countable nouns) when we don’t need to give the exact word. Often the listener knows what the speaker is talking about.
Just leave that stuff (= different items of clothes) on the floor. I’ll clear it up.
I play guitar but not much classical stuff. (= music)

C A sort of ...
We often use this phrase when we cannot find the exact word to describe something.
The walls are a sort of yellow. (= not exactly yellow, but more or less)
It’s a sort of horror film. (= not exactly a horror film, but more or less)

D And things like that/and that sort of thing
We use these phrases so that we don’t need to continue the examples.
I don’t eat chilli and garlic and things like that.
She wears a lot of Armani and Versace and that sort of thing.

E Sometime/any time
It’ll be ready sometime next week. (= next week but I don’t know when)
You can collect it any time after 10. (= at 10.30 or 12.30, or 3.00 in the afternoon, etc.)

F A bit
It usually means ‘a little’, but it can also mean ‘quite a lot’ in spoken English.
Could you speak up a bit? (= a little) I can’t hear you very well.
I thought the hotel was a bit (= quite) expensive, actually.

G Approximately
These words are used with numbers and all mean approximately.
It’ll take you about/around 40 minutes.
We’re expecting 100 people, more or less.
It’s roughly ten miles.
We interviewed 20 or so, I think.
Exercises

98.1 What could thing(s) and stuff refer to in these sentences?

1 I never wear that stuff; it's got such a strong smell.  perfume/aftershave
2 This thing has got stuck in the lock.
3 I bought a couple of bottles when I was in Scotland. It's great stuff.
4 We don't need these things on a picnic. We can eat the food with our fingers.
5 What's that white stuff called that you mix with water to make bread?
6 There was a great thing on television last night about elephants.
7 I couldn't get any more stuff in my suitcase.
8 It's a wonderful thing and keeps my young children occupied for ages.
9 I don't know why I bought that thing — it's too heavy for me to carry even when it's empty.
10 It's good stuff. My hair feels really soft, and it didn't cost a lot.

98.2 Add a word or phrase in the spaces to make this conversation less precise and more natural.

A: How many people were at the conference?
B: (1) ......................... 400.
A: Was it good?
B: Er, I (2) ......................... enjoyed it.
A: You don't seem very sure.
B: Well, there were some good (3) ......................... , but it was (4) ......................... too long.
A: And did you go to John's talk?
B: Naturally.
A: How did it go?
B: Well, he was (5) ......................... nervous at the beginning, but it went really well.
A: What was it about exactly?
B: Oh you know, changes in the family, (6) .........................
A: How many people were in the audience?
B: 75 (7) .........................
A: That's good, isn't it?
B: I think John was (8) ......................... disappointed — he wanted at least 100.

98.3 Reply to each of these questions with a suitable 'vague' response.

1 A: Did you get everything you wanted?
   B: Yeah, ..........more...or...less...
2 A: Did you say the walls were blue?
   B: Yeah, .........................
3 A: Will there be 20 chairs in the room?
   B: Yeah, .........................
4 A: Is it a very serious film?
   B: Yeah, .........................
5 A: Are you tired?
   B: Yeah, .........................
6 A: Can I collect it tomorrow?
   B: Yes, .........................
Formal and informal English

Formal English

Formal English is more common in writing than speaking, and is used in notices, business letters and legal English. You will hear some examples in spoken English, e.g. airport announcements.

Notice in café: Only food purchased (= bought) here may be eaten on the premises.
Police statement: I apprehended (= caught) the accused outside the supermarket.
Theatre announcement: The play will commence (= start) in two minutes.
Business meeting: The meeting will resume (= start again) this afternoon at 2 pm.
Lawyer in court: My client had a broken ankle, thus (= so) he couldn’t drive the car.
Business letter: I regret to inform you (= I’m sorry to say) that we are unable to ... (= can’t)
Notice: If you require (= need) further assistance (= more help), please contact ...
Airport announcement: Will passengers for Miami please proceed to (= go to) gate 36.

Informal English

Informal language is more common in spoken English. For example:
• most uses of get are informal (see Unit 29)
• many phrasal verbs are informal (see Units 23 and 24)
• many idioms are informal (see Unit 13)
• most shortened words are informal (see Unit 100)

Informal language is not suitable for formal written English, but in spoken English (and most e-mails or letters to friends) it will help you generally to sound more natural.

I had to go and pick up (= collect) the kids (= children) from school.
I reckon (= think) we’ll get (= receive/obtain) the money pretty (= quite) soon.
I’m just going to the loo. (= toilet)
Do you fancy going out? (= Would you like to go out?)
I managed to fix up (= arrange/make) an appointment for 7.30.
My flat is very handy for the shops. (= near the shops and very convenient)
I thought the book was terrific. (= marvellous)
Most of the students are bright (= intelligent) but Paul is really thick. (= stupid)
What’s up? (= What’s the matter?)
We must get in touch with them (= contact them) very soon.
When we get to (= reach/arrive) the hotel, I’ll have a word with (= speak to) them.
I offered him ten quid (= pounds), but the guy (= man) wasn’t interested.
A: Here’s the book I promised you.
B: Oh, cheers. (= thank you. It can also mean ‘goodbye’.)
Did you bring your bike? (= bicycle)

Slang

This is a form of very informal language. It includes words used by particular groups of people, e.g. young people often refer to ‘drugs’ as dope, and also words which many people think are impolite and unacceptable in most situations. You should probably not use these words, but some of them are quite common. For example, the word piss is a slang word meaning to urinate/go to the toilet, and it is also used in a number of other slang expressions with different meanings.

Piss off! (= go away)  He was pissed. (= drunk)  It’s pissing with rain. (= raining heavily)
Exercises

99.1 Put the words on the left into the correct column on the right.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>handy</th>
<th>purchase</th>
<th>thus</th>
<th>quid</th>
<th>apprehend</th>
<th>guy</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>loo</td>
<td>resume</td>
<td>terrific</td>
<td>commence</td>
<td>reckon</td>
<td>cheers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

formal | informal
--- | ---
purchase |
--- | ---

99.2 Find a synonym in the box for each of the words in 99.1.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>so</th>
<th>start</th>
<th>thanks</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>buy</td>
<td>purchase</td>

<td>start again</td>
<td>think</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>catch</td>
<td>marvellous</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pounds</td>
<td>toilet</td>
<td>---</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

99.3 Replace the underlined words and phrases in these sentences with more informal language.

1. Where did you purchase that book?
2. I'm just going to the toilet.
3. The woman on the desk told us to proceed to gate 12.
4. What's the matter?
5. Would you like to go out for a meal?
6. When are you going to collect your bicycle?
7. My flat is five minutes from where I work, thus it's very convenient.
8. The man in the market wanted twenty pounds for this ring.
9. Most of the children are very clever.
10. I think it'll commence quite soon.

99.4 Now rewrite the underlined parts of this letter in more suitable formal English.

Dear Mr Collins,

We're really sorry to say that we can't lend you the sum of £500 that you need, but it may be possible to provide you with a loan for some of the money.

If you would like to contact the branch and have a word with Mrs Jenkins, she will fix up an appointment with the assistant manager. He will be happy to discuss the matter with you.

Yours sincerely,

99.5 Dictionaries will tell you if a word is formal or informal/spoken. Use your dictionary to find out if these underlined words are formal or informal/spoken. What do they mean?

I thought the film was a drag. Patrons only. It was too much hassle to go. Someone has pinched my pen. He's a nice bloke. Smoking isn't permitted.
Abbreviations and abbreviated words

Letters or words?
Most abbreviations are spoken as individual letters:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BBC</th>
<th>British Broadcasting Corporation</th>
<th>MP</th>
<th>Member of Parliament</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>UN</td>
<td>United Nations</td>
<td>PM</td>
<td>Prime Minister</td>

<tr>
<td>WWW</td>
<td>World Wide Web</td>
<td>CV</td>
<td>Curriculum vitae</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ISP</td>
<td>Internet Service Provider</td>
<td>CD</td>
<td>Compact Disc</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A few abbreviations are spoken as words, e.g. AIDS /ɛɪdz/ (= Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome), and occasionally they can be spoken as individual letters or a word, e.g. VAT /væt/ or [V-A-T] Value Added Tax (= a tax on goods/products in EU countries)

If you don’t understand an abbreviation, you can ask about its meaning like this:
A: What does V-A-T stand for?
B: Value Added Tax.
A: What does EU stand for?
B: European Union.

Written forms only
Some abbreviations are written forms only; they are still pronounced as full words.
Mr /mɪstə/
Mrs /mɪzɪs/ (= a married woman)
Ms /mæs/ (= a woman who may be single or married)
  St Mark (Saint Mark)
  Dean St (Dean Street)
  Dr (Doctor)

Abbreviations as part of the language
Some abbreviations (from Latin) are used as part of the language.

<table>

<td>for example</td>
<td>exempli gratia</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>i.e.</td>
<td>I-E</td>
<td>that’s to say/in other words</td>
<td>id est</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Shortened words
Some common English words can be shortened, especially in spoken English. In some cases, the shorter form is more common and the full form sounds very formal/strange, e.g. refrigerator, influenza, gymnasium and veterinary surgeon.

100.2 Rewrite this note, making it more informal by using short forms where possible.

Michael

Peter had a mathematics examination this afternoon and then he had to take his bicycle to the repair shop, so he’ll probably be a bit late home. You can watch television while you’re waiting for him, and please help yourself to anything in the refrigerator. If there’s a problem (for example, Doctor Brown rings about the influenza vaccination), my telephone number is next to the photographs on the dining room table. I should be home myself by about five.

Margaret (Peter’s mother)

100.3 What abbreviations in written English are often used for these words or phrases?

2 and so on
3 Street
4 in other words
5 Mister
6 Doctor

100.4 Complete these sentences with suitable words or abbreviations from the opposite page.
1 She didn’t want to walk, so she went on her bike.
2 If you go to Mediterranean islands, Sardinia or Corsica, it’s a good idea to hire a car.
3 If you want to apply for the job, you need to send your application with a letter of application.
4 I asked the teacher to write the word on the blackboard.
5 In that shop on the corner you can get books, pens, writing paper.
6 She was away from college last week because she had a cold. I think she’s better now, though.
7 When I sold my records, I put an advertisement in the paper and had three replies the same day.
8 It was a warm day, so I put the milk and butter in the refrigerator.
9 If the tickets are very expensive, don’t buy any.

2.4 The answers here will depend on your first language: a translation may or may not be suitable for all of the words. Example sentences are a good idea for most words, and there is usually something else that is also useful to know. Here are some suggestions:

concentrate: the main stress is on the first syllable, and it is followed by the preposition ‘on’. The noun is ‘concentration’.
beard: a picture is the best way to show meaning; it is pronounced [bɔːd]; also useful to know ‘moustache’.
nearly: synonym = almost. Usually goes before the main verb except the verb ‘to be’, e.g. we nearly lost the game; it is nearly 4 o’clock.
empty: opposite = full. Also useful to learn ‘half-empty’ (= ‘half-full’) but seems more negative.
rescue: synonym = save; noun and verb.
knife: a picture is the best way to show meaning; the letter ‘k’ is silent; also important to know the plural form ‘knives’, and the words ‘fork’ and ‘spoon’.
2.5 Possible answers:
take: a picture, a bath, a decision, a bus make: a mistake, a decision, a mess, a noise, friends, money, coffee do: homework, research, someone a favour, an exam, sport, the shopping, the washing-up 39.4 Possible answer:

Dear Sir,
I have just returned from a weekend break at The Royal Hotel, and I’m afraid it was not a very enjoyable stay. Firstly, there was very little variety in the food and sometimes no choice at all. Secondly, the service was very slow most of the time and we had to wait half an hour between courses. And finally, when we complained to the head waiter about these delays, he was very rude and the service did not improve.
I sincerely hope that action will be taken to improve the restaurant, and I shall expect a letter of apology and explanation for the very poor standard of service in a hotel with such a fine reputation.
Yours faithfully,

Unit 100

1 British Broadcasting Corporation    2 Member of Parliament
3 World Wide Web    4 Compact Disc    5 Prime Minister
6 United Nations    7 Personal Computer    8 Identification
100.2 Michael,
Pete had a maths exam this afternoon and then he had to take his bike to the repair shop, so he'll probably be a bit late home. You can watch TV/telly while you're waiting for him, and please help yourself to anything in the fridge. If there's a problem (e.g. Dr Brown rings about the flu vaccination), my phone number is next to the photos on the dining room table. I should be home myself by about five.
Margaret (Peter's mum)

100.3 1 e.g. 2 etc. 3 St 4 i.e. 5 Mr 6 Dr

100.4 1 e.g. 2 etc. 3 CV 4 board 5 etc. 6 flu 7 ad(vert)
8 fridge 9 i.e. 10 stand

100.5 PTO stands for 'please turn over' at the bottom of a page.
RSVP means 'please reply' (from the French 'répondez, s'il vous plaît') and is found at the bottom of formal invitations, e.g. to a reception or wedding.
ASAP/asap stands for 'as soon as possible' and is commonly used in e-mails and faxes.
CC/cc stands for 'carbon copy' and is used in business letters and e-mails to show you are sending a copy to someone else. In the past, carbon copies were made using carbon paper. We don't use this any more, but we still use the abbreviation.

Acknowledgements

For this new edition I am particularly grateful to lexicographer Julie Moore. Working with the Cambridge International Corpus of written and spoken English, she has provided information and insights which have been invaluable in guiding lexical selection and example sentences in the book.

A number of people have reviewed different parts of the manuscript and given me extremely useful feedback. My thanks to the following reviewers:
Miles Craven, Cambridge, UK
Eryl Griffiths, Cambridge, UK
Agnieska Lenko-Szymanska, Milanowek, Poland
Chris Nicol, Cannes, France
Jeanine Saelens, Heule, Belgium
Olga Vinogradova, Moscow, Russia

My editor Alison Silver has been wonderful. She has worked with great professionalism on a long and intricate manuscript, and the final product is immeasurably improved as a result of her contribution. My thanks to Ruth Carim for her proof-reading and comments on the final manuscript.

Finally, I would like to thank Oxford Designers & Illustrators for their elegant design of this new edition, and Nóirín Burke at Cambridge University Press. Nóirín has guided the project from its infancy, and coordinated the various stages of both editions with calm efficiency.

English Vocabulary in Use
Second Edition
Pre-intermediate & Intermediate

English Vocabulary in Use Pre-intermediate & Intermediate is primarily designed as a self-study reference and practice text but it can also be used for classroom work. This second edition has been fully revised and updated to ensure that the vocabulary presented is current and relevant.

- 100 easy-to-use units: vocabulary items are presented and explained on left-hand pages with a range of follow-up activities on right-hand pages.
- Presents and explains new words in context and shows learners how to use them and how to work out rules for using them.
- Based on a corpus of real written and spoken language to ensure the vocabulary is relevant and up-to-date.
- Contains a comprehensive, student-friendly answer key.
- Includes a detailed index with phonemic transcriptions to help with the pronunciation of difficult vocabulary.
- Is beautifully illustrated in full colour.

CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL CORPUS
The Cambridge International Corpus (CIC) is a collection of over 700 million words of real spoken and written English. The texts are stored in a database that can be searched to see how English is used. The CIC also includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a unique collection of over 50,000 exam papers from Cambridge ESOL. It shows real mistakes students make and highlights the parts of English which cause problems for students.
